Spirit Of The Wolf Raise Your Voice:

mahikan ka onot Duncan Mercredi,2020-11-18 mahikan ka onot collects the finest work of accomplished Indigenous poet Duncan Mercredi from his first book in 1991 to recent unpublished poems These are poems of life on the land as well as life in the city vibrant with the rhythms of traditional Cree and M tis storytelling but also with the clamour and the music of the streets This book brings the work of Duncan Mercredi Cree M tis back into the public eye providing a new generation of readers with the opportunity to experience his unique artistry Mercredi brings to these poems the sensibility of a Cree speaker and a renowned oral storyteller revealing a deep attachment to the land and a nuanced understanding of the complexities of contemporary Indigenous life In startlingly direct plainspoken language the poet explores themes of cultural resurgence and steadfast connections among the generations even amid the unfolding tragedies wrought by colonialism Some of these poems are memories of traditional life on the land especially in the time before Manitoba Hydro radically altered Mercredi s home community of Grand Rapids Manitoba Others focus on the urban Indigenous experience based upon Mercredi s longstanding and intimate knowledge of Winnipeg Like mahikan the wolf Mercredi s characters are often outsiders in certain contexts but the poems reveal other perspectives that allow us to understand their loyalty and their love of community The volume includes an afterword by Duncan Mercredi and an introduction by M tis scholar Warren Cariou both of which provide resources for deeper study of the poems The Emma LaRocque Reader Elaine Coburn,2025-07-15

Emma LaRocque was born in 1949 in Lac La Biche into a Cree speaking M tis family She grew up in a one room kerosene lit log cabin built by her father At the age of nine she fought her parents to attend school where she encountered English and the colonizer s harmful stereotypes of Indigenous peoples Confronting the contradictions of colonialism sparked her journey as a writer and scholar as she sought to understand the dissonance between her identity and the world around her The Emma LaRocque Reader is a comprehensive collection of her most significant writings poetry and prose offering an intimate window into the mind of one of Canada s foremost Indigenous scholars Through her work LaRocque provides profound insights into the intersections of colonialism sexism and racism in Canada while also critically celebrating the beauty of her community and culture In the afterword she reflects on fifty years of challenging the colonial enterprise A vital contribution to postcolonial literature The Emma LaRocque Reader intertwines the personal and the political to explore what it means to be human offering a powerful testament to Indigenous resistance resilience and vision Spirit of the Wolf Duncan Mercredi,1993 African Education and Globalization Ali A. Abdi,Korbla P. Puplampu,George Jerry Sefa Dei,2006-01-01

Containing both theoretical discussions of globalization and specific case analyses of individual African countries this collection of essays examines the intersections of African education and globalization with multiple analytical and geographical emphases and intentions Dhuuluu-Yala Anita Heiss,2003 This overview about publishing Indigenous literature in Australia from the mid 1990s to 2000 includes broader issues that writers need to consider such as engaging with readers and reviewers Although changes have been made since 2000 the issues identified in this book remain current and to a large extent unresolved The Cambridge History of Native American Literature Melanie Benson

Taylor,2020-09-17 Native American literature has always been uniquely embattled It is marked by divergent opinions about what constitutes authenticity sovereignty and even literature It announces a culture beset by paradox simultaneously primordial and postmodern oral and inscribed outmoded and novel Its texts are a site of political struggle shifting to meet external and internal expectations This Cambridge History endeavors to capture and question the contested character of Indigenous texts and the way they are evaluated It delineates significant periods of literary and cultural development in four sections Traces Assimilation and Modernity 1879 1967 Native American Renaissance post 1960s and Visions Revisions 21st century These rubrics highlight how Native literatures have evolved alongside major transitions in federal policy toward the Indian and via contact with broader cultural phenomena such as the American Civil Rights movement There is a balance between a history of canonical authors and traditions introducing less studied works and themes and foregrounding critical discussions approaches and controversies The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars,2016

The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole
