Conservatism among the Iroquois at the Six Nations Reserve Annemarie Anrod Shimony, 1994-07-01

Annemarie Anrod Shimony's classic work clearly shows the contemporary cultural and religious crises that face the Longhouse Iroquois at the Six Nations Reserve Ontario Shimony presents a lucid and eloquent account of the survival of the Native American tradition which is struggling to maintain political and cultural autonomy in an ever changing modern world Based on original field work dating from 1953 to 1961 and supplemented by new material describing changes during the last thirty years Shimony's work is once again the most comprehensive ethnography of the largest extant traditional Iroquoian community Some of the material discussed includes the social organization the system of hereditary chiefs the beliefs and practices of the Longhouse religion the events of the Iroquoian life cycle and the extensive medicinal and witchcraft aspects of the culture Additional areas of focus include the rituals of the agricultural calendar and Iroquois conceptions of death and burial rituals As Elizabeth Tooker wrote in Indians of the Northeast Shimony's monograph is next to Morgan's League the most important general description of the Iroquois With its new material added Conservatism among the Iroquois is once again required reading for anyone interested in Native American culture

Healing Insanity Patrick E. Iroegbu, 2010-06-01

Healing Insanity A Study of Igbo Medicine in Contemporary Nigeria is an original and in depth study on endogenous medical system in an African society It is craftily written and provides solid insight through case studies and theory into how insanity affects patients and the society Particularly it explores various collective representations and strategies regarding insanity and healing as it examines the healing institutions healers and ritual cults The central question is given the patterns of healing how do the Igbo shape the incidence and symptoms of insanity define its aetiology and provide healers with culture specific resources and skills to address this illness The focus became increasingly centred on bodily semantics and endogenous knowledge systems and practices Dr Patrick Iroegbu's work is a very valuable and rare study and has appeared at a desirable time It is for an African society a comprehensive study of the many ways Igbo people in their practical routinelike attitudes and body centred experiences as well as in their more reflective aetiologic knowledge and healing institutions relate to the phenomenon of insanity or ara in the cultural parlance As the first of its kind reminiscent of and assured by the various remarks of Igbo scholars and leaders at various meetings and discourses the task this work has set out to accomplish is a very brave one The author s account of his fieldwork experiences and adopted techniques illustrates his initiation revealing him as a genuine ethnographer who is a friend of people and at ease with his field With both the far seeing and inspiring analysis of Igbo medicine life and culture accounted for in the work the book stands out for ethnographers teachers students leaders policymakers and the general public This is a book that deserves to be read as it shapes the critical path toward understanding ways of healing insanity in a culture specific context crosscutting perspectives for a relationship between indigenous healing and the biomedical sphere Prof Ren Devisch Africa Research Centre University of Leuven This book is written with a clear purpose for everyone to read to understand and heal insanity and indeed provides a thick piece of cultural philosophy and vernacular of Igbo medicine in hopes of putting cultural wisdom in pursuit of integral health care development Prof Pantaleon Iroegbu Professor of Philosophy Major Seminary Ekpoma January 2006 To read this book as I did is to get the benefit of Dr Patrick Iroegbu s ethnographic insight for an archetypical African healing system in Igboland It offers a fascinating theory of symbolic release that speaks of African symbolic action and knowledge system Dr Paul Komba Esq University of Cambridge
