The Spiritual Foundation of Morality Rudolf Steiner, 1995 Moral teaching and moral preaching cannot establish morality It is only by delving into the hidden secrets of life that we can advance not just to moral doctrines but to the moral sources of life true moral impulses At different times humanity has manifested moral life in different ways To understand these differences the evolution of consciousness must also be taken into account Originally morality was a part of human nature for in their essence human beings are good But through evolution there have come errors deviations times of falling away In this small much loved cycle of three lectures Rudolf Steiner indicates the sources for the recovery of a living morality for our time Rudolf Steiner shows the transformation of the virtues through the evolution of consciousness and above all through the incarnation of the Christ in the Mystery of Golgotha Since then morality works to build up Christ s being Synopses Why morality needs to be studied Preaching morality v founding morality examples of ancient India devotion to wisdom and ancient Europe courage Leprosy in the Middle Ages The biography of Francis of Assisi the transformation of courage into love The reality of moral forces The caste system differentiation as to a law of evolution The betrayal of the Atlantean Mysteries the consequences for the European population Racial evolution v soul evolution The demons of leprosy overcome by the Christ impulse in Francis of Assisi Francis s prior incarnation the mysteries at Colchis and the Buddha Francis s faith in the original goodness of humanity Plato s four virtues The nature of evil and freedom the teaching of the mean Interest as a precondition for understanding and moral conduct Spiritual Science as divine wisdom stimulates interest During the third post Atlantean cultural epoch interest was regulated by the instinctive virtue of wisdom today interest must be regulated by conscious truthfulness The lack of truthfulness in modern times theosophy as an educator of truthfulness Truthfulness as the virtue of the sentient soul Courage as the instinctive virtue of the mind soul in the fourth epoch today in the fifth epoch it must become love based on understanding This is promoted by a theosophical comprehension of the Christ Temperance as the virtue of the consciousness soul is still instinctive in the fifth epoch it will be replaced by life wisdom in the sixth epoch The effect of spiritual scientific wisdom on the body The virtue of justice Knowledge of the suprasensory world through wonder astonishment faith The evolution of conscience The Christ impulse is naked it must be clothed by impulses of wonder love conscience Founding v preaching morality the reality of the Christ impulse v abstract ideals of brotherhood How goodness builds and evil destroys This volume is a partial translation of Theosophische Moral CW 155      The Spiritual Foundation of Morality Rudolf Steiner, 19??      The Spiritual Foundation of Morality Rudolf Steiner, 1995-10-01

Laurence Oliphant is one of the great unknown personalities of the nineteenth century and indeed of recent cultural history at large He was born at Cape Town in 1829 and died near London in 1888 He left behind some twenty books including novels travel accounts and mystical spiritual writings He was diplomat traveler adventurer writer and mystic At the beginning of the 1860s the period of Oliphant s great spiritual transition began when he met the Swedenborgian Thomas Lake Harris It was Oliphant's last works Sympneumata and Scientific Religion that prompted Rudolf Steiner to pursue karmic research on Oliphant. As a result, Steiner revealed the karmic relationship between the lives of Oliphant and the Roman poet Ovid. In an August 24, 1924 lecture in London, Steiner commented that Oliphant's individuality is significant not only because of the previous Ovid incarnation but also because of its activity in the interval between the two incarnations. Looked at in the light of spiritual research on the subject, Oliphant's life assumes dimensions of world historical interest. When a Stone Begins to Roll contains extensive selections from Oliphant's autobiographical book Episodes in a Life of Adventure or Moss from a Rolling Stone 1887. In addition to the insightful commentary of T. H. Meyer, the book also offers a generous sampling of Oliphant's complex and compelling work as well as hitherto unpublished material and the satire The Sisters of Tibet.

Christ and the Human Soul Rudolf Steiner, 2023-07-05 10 Lectures in Copenhagen and Norrköping May 23-30, 1912 July 12-16, 1914 CW 155. Spiritual science does not want to replace Christianity; rather, it aims to be the instrument through which the meaning of Christianity can be grasped. And one thing that will become particularly clear through spiritual science is that the being whom we call Christ must be recognized as the center of life on earth and that what we call the Christian faith is the ultimate religion, the eternal religion for the future of the earth. Rudolf Steiner, July 13, 1914. This collection of lectures from 1912 and 1914 offers a deepened understanding of the being of Christ, the divine Logos, in his connection with individual human souls. From religious figures such as John the Baptist and Saint Francis to the twentieth-century poet Christian Morgenstern, these lectures reveal how Christ works with and through all who seek him. The Pauline statement "Not I, but Christ in me" becomes an inner guide by which each human soul can find a way to intimate union with the Christ being. It is he who has the power to make our ideals and goals in life, if they are worthy, into true seeds of future reality. The time of faith has come and gone; Christ needs our conscious striving, our effort to understand within the heart's deep core his ongoing presence and activity in the further evolution of our spiritual Earth and in our journey toward humanness. These lectures are a comfort and a signpost for the soul to walk the inner path of communion with Christ for the healing and redemption of the earth. We may be able in the end to redeem the karma accrued by our own individual souls, but for our spiritual work to be fruitful for all humanity, it must be brought into connection with Christ. What we take into ourselves in such a way that it is done from the perspective of "Not I," this is what Christ makes into a common possession for all humanity. July 14, 1914. To know Christ means to undergo the school of selflessness. Under the influence of materialism, the selflessness of humanity was lost in a way as will be understood in future ages of humanity. However, through absorption in the Mystery of Golgotha, the penetration of the knowledge of the Mystery of Golgotha with our whole feeling and soul, being, we can once again acquire a culture of selflessness. We can come to understand that what Christ did for the development of the Earth is contained in the fundamental impulse of selflessness and that what he can become for the conscious development of the human soul is the school of selflessness. Rudolf Steiner, June 1, 1914. To read these lectures is to strike out on the heart's path of fellowship with

Spirit as Sculptor of the Human Organism Rudolf Steiner, 2014 Let us be courageous and not draw back in fear when realities of the world of spirit that play into human life are unveiled You see the future of humanity depends on us learning to live with the world of spirit in the same way that we live with the physical world here on earth

Rudolf Steiner In a wide ranging series of lectures Rudolf Steiner demonstrates the integral nature of spirit and matter and their manifold connections Speaking to audiences in London Holland Germany and Switzerland Steiner explains how through a process of evolving consciousness humanity lost its knowledge and direct experience of the spiritual sources of existence but now needs to reconnect with them Spirit is the essence and power of life which in Steiner s vivid image strikes a match in our whole being when we allow it to inform us fully Our world cannot be understood only in physical terms but is inseparable from the divine realities continually creating and sustaining it Reconnecting with the spirit calls upon us to heal the fractures between everyday consciousness and the metaphysical realms in which we are already embedded In Steiner s descriptions there is no end to the numerous reconnections possible between our past present and future between the active individualizing principle of the I and the physical human body it works upon and shapes between our physical actions and limb movements in one life and the forming or sculpting of our head in a future one and above all between the moral actions and insights we develop whilst alive on earth and our developing eye for spiritual reality in the life after death with all that this can mean for the future of human evolution Taking a truly holistic approach Rudolf Steiner tackles an eclectic series of subjects throughout these sixteen lectures all united by the common theme of rediscovering how spirit pervades life Apart from a focus on education in several lectures he discusses experiences during sleep the human spirit and soul between death and a new birth how spirit sculpts the human organism Christ from the perspective of anthroposophy the battle for human nature between luciferic and ahrimanic beings karma and the creation of conditions for our return to a new life on earth human experience of the etheric cosmos and the human being s faculties of hearing speaking singing walking and thinking Together these lectures offer a cornucopia of spiritual insights and wisdom for the present day Religion, Rationality and Community

Robert Gascoigne, 2012-12-06 This study is an attempt to examine the relationships between religious belief and the humanism of the Enlightenment in the philosophy of Hegel and of a group of thinkers who related to his thought in various ways during the 1840 s It begins with a study of the ways in which Hegel attempted to evolve a genuinely Christian humanism by his demonstration that the modern understanding of man as a free and rational subject derived its strength and validity from the union of God and human existence in the incarnation The rest of this study is concerned with two different forms of opposition to Hegel first the critical discipleship of the Young Hegelians and Moses Hess who insisted that Hegel s notion of Christian humanism was false because religious belief was necessarily inimical to a clear consciousness of social evil and the determination to abolish it second the religious opposition to the Enlightenment in the thought of Schelling and Kierkegaard which emphasized God s transcendence to human reason and the insignificance of secular history In the years leading up to the revolution of 1848 Hegel s synthesis was rejected in favour of the assertion of atheistic humanism or religious otherworldliness Chapter One after discussing the young Hegel s critique of the social and political effects of

Christianity examines the union of religious belief speculative philosophy and the rational state in Hegel's mature system
