Spirituality Of The Middle Ages A History Of Christian Spirituality Ii:

A History of Christian Spirituality. II, the Spirituality of the Middle Ages Jean Leclercq, Francois Vandenbroucke, Louis Bouyer, 1968 A history of Christian spirituality, v.2 : the spirituality of the Middle Ages Louis ; Leclercq Bouyer (Jean ; Vandenbroucke, Francois ; Cognet, Louis), 1968 A History of Christian Spirituality: The spirituality of the Middle Ages, 1968 Christian Spirituality Jill Raitt, Bernard McGinn, John Meyendorff, 1987 From the World Spirituality series this is a broad ranging illustrated scholarly treatment of core topics in Christian spirituality focused on the Reformation and pre Reformation periods History of Christian Spirituality, 1968 History of Christian Spirituality, 1968 Christian Spirituality: In the middle ages, translated by S. P. Jacques Pierre Pourrat, 1924 History of Christian Spirituality: The spirituality of the Middle Ages Louis Bouyer, Jean Leclercq, 1963 History of Christian Spirituality Louis Bouyer, 1982-01-01 The Encycloedia of Christianity, Vol. 5 Erwin Fahlbusch, Geoffrey William Bromiley, 1999 Written by leading scholars from around the world the articles in this volume range from sin Sufism and terrorism to theology in the 19th and 20th centuries Vatican I and II and the virgin birth The Merging of Theology and Spirituality Larry S. McDonald, 2006-07-29 While acknowledging the inherent tension between evangelicals who emphasize theological propositions and those who emphasize personal experience Alister McGrath believes that spirituality represents the interface between ideas and life between Christian theology and human existence The book explores the centrality of McGrath s theology in the development of his views on spirituality McGrath does not approach spirituality from a theological void but instead uses his theological perspective as the foundation Through detailed examination of McGrath s previous work and the writing of other evangelicals The Merging of Theology and Spirituality offers an overview of a unique thinker s contributions and a guide for future theological and spiritual exploration Christian Spirituality in Africa Sung Kyu Park, 2013-02-06 Christian Spirituality in Africa holistically approaches the convergence of East West and Christian Traditional African religions Its theological historical and anthropological perspectives contribute to a balanced understanding of Christian spirituality transformation in an African context Explorations in Spirituality Philip Sheldrake, 2010 A distinctive exposition of the main elements of the study of Christian spirituality that also underlines the essentially socially transformative nature of the Christian spiritual tradition Seeking Spiritual Intimacy Glenn E. Myers, 2011-03-28 In Seeking Spiritual Intimacy Glenn Myers introduces us to the Beguines a network of faith communities in Medieval Europe where women organized their world around a simple life with Christ at the center Learn from the insights of wise women of faith who from their modest homes and communities revitalized the faith of a continent Spirituality, Gender, and the Self in Renaissance Italy Querciolo Mazzonis, 2007-03 Angela Merici 1474 1540 like other mystic women such as Catherine of Siena was considered a santa viva a living saint by virtue of her mysticism sacred knowledge human qualities and participation in civic life However Angela s originality and genius reside above all in the foundation of the Company of St Ursula It is there that she put her theology into practice and translated her spiritual ideas and experience into a defined model of religious life for women Spirituality Gender and the Self in Renaissance Italy places St Angela Merici and her Company of St Ursula in historical and religious context and examines them from a variety of perspectives institutional social spiritual and cultural By analyzing Merici's spirituality the book contributes to two fields of research that have been particularly rich and contentious women's religious life and early modern Catholicism The Company of St Ursula long mistaken for a charitable or educational confraternity proposed a form of consecration for women outside the convent similar to that lived by late medieval women such as the beguines and the tertiaries Merici's ideal of spiritual life inward looking a institutional democratic public and transcendent codified into a religious rule the irregular features of the female approach to the sacred It offered women the possibility of living beyond the limits imposed on them Furthermore Merici's spirituality is compared with a vast array of religious practices promoted by important religious thinkers of her time such as Battista da Crema Erasmus of Rotterdam and Ignatius Loyola The book seeks to understand the historical significance of spirituality by linking religious models with relevant aspects of Renaissance society and culture In particular the author examines the forms of relationship with God and perfection in relation to a Renaissance notion of the self and in connection with gender concepts Methodologically the application of historical literary cultural and anthropological concepts to the subject leads to a rich cross fertilization of theoretical approaches

A Cultural History of the Emotions in the Medieval Age Juanita Ruys, Clare Monagle, 2020-08-20
 Our period opens at the end of the Roman Empire when intellectual currents are indebted to the Greek philosophical inheritance of Plato and Aristotle as well as to a Romanized Stoicism Into this mix entered the new and from 313CE imperially sanctioned religion of Christianity In art literature music and drama we find an increasing emphasis on the arousal of individual emotions and their acceptance as a means towards devotion In religion we see a move from the ascetic regulation of emotions to the affective piety of the later medieval period that valued the believer's identification with the Passion of Christ and the sorrow of Mary In science and medicine the nature and causes of emotions their role in constituting the human person and their impact on the same became a subject of academic inquiry Emotions also played an increasingly important public role evidenced in populace wide events such as conversion and the strategies of rulership Between 350 and 1300 emotions were transformed from something to be transcended into a location for meditation upon what it means to be human

The Christian Path in a Pluralistic World and the Study of Spirituality Diana Villegas, 2012-01-01 Based on exploration of boundaries between spirituality and religion this book argues that theological study of spirituality is important for interpretation of the Christian path in a pluralistic world As a text for graduate study in spirituality and ministry it explores relevant sociological studies post modern culture contemporary study of Christian spirituality and a brief history of the relationship between theology and spirituality The book argues that the revelation and tradition of Christianity understood and interpreted in the light of contemporary culture make a difference to postmodern persons' quests for spirituality What one believes and how one understands that belief influences the manner in which the Christian path is lived in a pluralistic global world The book discusses the role of religion in culture and the relevance of this for the identity of religious spirituality and the study of Christian spirituality Rosemary Haughton Eilish Ryan,1997 Familiar with the ordinary stuff of life teething babies family crises and elderly parents Haughton applied her understanding of the Gospel to her life in the Church and the world unique spirituality for everyone A History of Christian Spirituality: The spirituality of the Middle Ages, by J. Leclercq, F. Vanderbroucke, and L. Bouyer ,1963 Science and Religion: Fifty Years After Vatican II Kenan Osborne OFM,Ki Wook Min,2014-01-31 In the past one hundred years two major realities have changed both science and religion The world of science has been enriched by quantum physics the computation of the age of the universe archaeological data in the Middle East and a scientific stress on historical writing The world of religion has been enriched by the establishment of the World Council of Churches and the Second Vatican Council In the past fifty years major scientists and major religious leaders have met together again and again In the past fifty years religious leaders from Christianity Islam and Judaism have held a number of thought provoking conferences In this volume these gatherings are reviewed and evaluated Two major religious problems have challenged the science religion discussions namely which God should the scientists agree on the Trinitarian God Allah or Yahweh Which history of the universe sponsored by these three religions should scientists be looking for This volume raises questions and suggests some preliminary forms of serious discussion
