Exploring the Spirituality of the Gospels Patrick J. Hartin, 2011-05-01 Within each of the four gospels there is a foundational spirit, a spirituality of the gospels. That is to say, each gospel contains rich images and values central to the vision of the person of Jesus and to the path toward spiritual transformation in his image. In this volume Patrick Hartin first looks at each gospel and asks such questions as: Who is Jesus? and What transformation does this encounter with Jesus invite? Hartin then follows with examples of people who have appropriated the transformative power of these particular spiritualities from Saint Antony and Dorothy Day to Saint Augustine and Archbishop Romero. Hartin's twofold approach gives us a deeper appreciation for the spiritual dimension of the gospels and helps us to be transformed in Christ by their message and vision.

The Talking Book Allen Dwight Callahan, 2008-10-01 The Talking Book casts the Bible as the central character in a vivid portrait of black America, tracing the origins of African American culture from slavery's secluded forest prayer meetings to the bright lights and bold style of today's hip-hop artists. The Bible has profoundly influenced African Americans throughout history. From a variety of perspectives, this wide-ranging book is the first to explore the Bible's role in the triumph of the black experience. Using the Bible as a foundation, African Americans shared religious beliefs, created their own music, and shaped the ultimate key to their freedom: literacy. Allen Callahan highlights the intersection of biblical images with African American music, politics, religion, art, and literature. The author tells a moving story of a biblically informed African American culture, identifying four major biblical images: Exile, Exodus, Ethiopia, and Emmanuel. He brings these themes to life in a unique African American history that grows from the harsh experience of slavery into a rich culture that endures as one of the most important forces of twenty-first century America.
