Reflections on the Law of War Frits Kalshoven, 2007-05-31 The papers collected in this volume span a 35 year period of active involvement in the reaffirmation and development of international humanitarian law A process under that name started in 1971 and ended in 1977 with the adoption of two Protocols Additional to the Geneva Conventions of 1949 one for international and one for internal armed conflicts Subsequent developments brought a narrowing of this gap between international and internal armed conflicts as well as growing recognition of the interplay between the law of armed conflict and human rights the rediscovery of individual criminal liability for violations of international humanitarian law the introduction of further prohibitions or restrictions on the use of specified weapons and so on In contrast with these positive developments the period was negatively characterised by increasing disrespect not only for some or other minor rule such as what to do with cash taken from a prisoner of war at the time of his capture but for the very principles underlying the entire body of the law of armed conflict respect for the other as a human being and hence humane treatment of prisoners of war and other detainees protection of civilians Throughout the period the author's activities ranged from participation in lawmaking and law interpreting exercises through attempts at explaining the law of armed conflict in its historical context and making propaganda for its faithful implementation to critical or even bewildered observance of actual events The papers brought together here reflect these diverse angles

The Law of Non-International Armed Conflict Sandesh Sivakumaran, 2012-08-09 The Law of Non International Armed Conflict brings together and critically analyses the disparate conventional customary and soft law relating to non international armed conflict All the relevant bodies of international law are considered including international humanitarian law international criminal law and international human rights law The book traces the changes to the legal framework applicable to non international armed conflict from ad hoc regulation in the nineteenth and early twentieth century to systematic regulation through the 1949 Geneva Conventions and 1977 Additional Protocols to the transformation of the law in the mid 1990s Armed conflicts ranging from the US civil war the Algerian War of Independence and the attempted secession of Biafra through to the current conflicts in the Colombia the Philippines and Sudan are all considered The identification and analysis of the law is complemented by a consideration of the practice allowing both violations of and respect for the law to be ascertained Given that non international armed conflicts are fought between states and non state armed groups or between armed groups particular attention is paid to the oft neglected views of armed groups This is done through an analysis of hundreds of statements unilateral declarations internal regulations and bilateral agreements issued by armed groups Equivalent material emanating from states parties to conflicts is also considered The book is thus an essential reference point for the law and practice of non international armed conflicts

The Conduct of Hostilities under the Law of International Armed Conflict Yoram Dinstein, 2022-11-17 The book serves as a companion to three other volumes published by Cambridge University Press dealing respectively with the jus ad bellum the law of belligerent occupation and non international armed conflicts It is devoted to the core of the jus in bello that is the conduct of hostilities on land at sea and in the air in inter State armed conflicts analyzed against the background of customary international law and treaties in force The book deals with both means and methods of modern warfare It addresses issues of general non combatant protection the principle of proportionality in collateral damage to civilians and special protection especially of the environment and cultural property It also considers the relevant dimensions of international criminal law and deals with controversial matters such as unlawful combatancy direct participation of civilians in hostilities and the use of human shields Case law and legal literature are cited throughout
