Broken-But Not Destroyed S. Miriam Clifford,2009-08 The Author had entered into this life by rape of a woman without being asked to be born without having made any effort to get here A newborn does not know she is alive There is no realization factor for the infant is as if it was unconscious An irresistible instinct impels her as she becomes a woman her life takes a deep plunge felt by the indifferent blows of tragedy such as dying at a young age starvation physical and emotional abuse financial ruin automobile accident divorce and homelessness and the list goes through many situations Each predicament centers on the story of someone who came into her life e fabric of our lives is the sum total of all our experiences Thinking back to what shaped the Author provides a revealing perspective She did not write these thoughts from a palace Miriam wrote them while she was going through the roughest times in her life in journals on napkins and on cardboard on the streets of emptiness An Atheist meets her Maker Jesus again this time in the dark alley in New York City The journey of forgiveness redemption healing and restoration provides powerful insight why each person is obliged in spite of self to investigate on their journey that the human thought is related to the principle reason that nothing is without cause ere one discovers that their life is mapped out for a purpose an assignment leading into destiny Her life changes 360 degree as she starts reflecting on her life which propels her into a voyage of the true self discovery finding and then knowing the source of life is God Life is not about finding yourself it is about discovering who God created you to be

The War Within Ashly Hill,2021-05-28 The poems in this book are about the constant battle or the war within an addicts mind The war of emotions and denial the grief and the guilt Encompasses the need to cling to mind altering substances and also the need to let them go These pages also go into the addicts mind when it comes to growth and empowerment of sobriety along with everyday struggles and happiness The loss of love and redefining who a person is by love laughter and tears The beautiful blossom of a mother given a second chance The growth that resides in all of these emotions properly expressed A reminder to be kind and compassionate to help instead of judging Never ending is the struggle to be better than we were yesterday never ending is the war within us all
