Coming Home to Earth Mark S. Bocker, 2016-09-13 As a young Norwegian Lutheran teenager in rural Wisconsin Bocker lay awake one night worrying whether he believed in Jesus enough to get to heaven This getting to heaven anxiety reflected an excessive focus on individual salvation and a loss of concern for the well being of the Earth community A faith journey that leaves Earth behind is misguided Ever since those early teen years Bocker has been on a journey to come home to Earth Coming Home to Earth makes the case that there is no salvation apart from Earth and that Earth care is at the core of our identity and mission as followers of Jesus The ecological consequences of a loss of concern for the well being of Earth have been devastating Bocker is especially concerned to determine what will motivate followers of Jesus to make radical changes in our way of life so that we can participate in the healing of wounded Earth and all of its inhabitants both human and nonhuman We are far more likely to make needed sacrifices for our fellow creatures if we share God's delight in and affection for them and cherish Earth as our home

Shadow Work Emily Hodgson Anderson, 2025-03-04 How is it that reading and writing can at once isolate us and bring us closer to others Blending personal narrative with literary criticism Emily Hodgson Anderson considers what a life spent with books has taught her about loneliness and human connection She delves into the unseen labor of women authors and mothers and she argues that we can reimagine intimacy through books Herself a book lover and writer a teacher of literature and a single mom Anderson reflects on the loneliness and the strength that can come from living writing and parenting alone Shadow Work puts writers such as Jane Austen Mary Shelley Laurence Sterne and Shakespeare into unexpected conversations with authors of children's literature and contemporary fiction among them Roald Dahl Laura Ingalls Wilder Zadie Smith and Lewis Carroll Elegantly and poignantly written this book examines what it means to revisit longtime literary companions and how literature can help us better understand what we show and hide about ourselves

Danger Zone: The Coming Conflict with China Michael Beckley, Hal Brands, 2022-08-16 A provocative and urgent analysis of the U S China rivalry It has become conventional wisdom that America and China are running a superpower marathon that may last a century Yet Hal Brands and Michael Beckley pose a counterintuitive question What if the sharpest phase of that competition is more like a decade long sprint The Sino American contest is driven by clashing geopolitical interests and a stark ideological dispute over whether authoritarianism or democracy will dominate the 21st century But both history and China's current trajectory suggest that this rivalry will reach its moment of maximum danger in the 2020s China is at a perilous moment strong enough to violently challenge the existing order yet losing confidence that time is on its side Numerous examples from antiquity to the present show that rising powers become most aggressive when their fortunes fade their difficulties multiply and they realize they must achieve their ambitions now or miss the chance to do so forever China has already started down this path Witness its aggression toward Taiwan its record breaking military buildup and its efforts to dominate the critical technologies that will shape the world's future Over the long run the Chinese challenge will most likely prove more manageable than many pessimists currently believe but during the 2020s the pace of Sino American conflict will accelerate and the prospect of war will be frighteningly real America Brands and Beckley argue will still need a sustainable approach to winning a protracted global competition But first it needs a near term strategy for navigating the danger zone ahead

One Art Elizabeth Bishop, 2015-01-13 These letters funny touching and occasionally harrowing remind us that this great poet was a remarkable woman as well Don't miss them Michael Dirda The Washington Post Book World Robert Lowell once remarked When Elizabeth Bishop's letters are published as they will be she will be recognized as not only one of the best but one of the most prolific writers of our century One Art is the magnificent confirmation of Lowell's prediction From several thousand letters written by Bishop over fifty years from 1928 when she was seventeen to the day of her death in Boston in 1979 Robert Giroux the poet's longtime friend and editor has selected over five hundred missives for this volume In a way the letters comprise Bishop's autobiography and Giroux has greatly enhanced them with his own detailed candid and highly informative introduction One Art takes us behind Bishop's formal sophistication and reserve fully displaying the gift for friendship the striving for perfection and the passionate questing rigorous spirit that made her a great artist A remarkable collection True magic Richard Locke The Wall Street Journal One Art does not quite substitute for an autobiography there are too many important facts missing Instead it stands as a sort of golden treasury to be gone through in one enthralled reading and then browsed in ever after J D McClatchy The New York Times Book Review The publication of Elizabeth Bishop s selected letters is a historic event Let us celebrate the appearance of this extraordinary this quite exceptional and wonderful work Tom Paulin The Times Literary Supplement Saturday Review of Literature ,1926 The Chautauquan ,1900
