Coupland, 2010-05-03 Have you ever had a heart changing life changing experience Dolores E Coupland had one approximately twenty years ago when she picked up Charles H Spurgeon s devotional book Morning and Evening As she read those amazing passages on the love and loveliness of Jesus her heart was captivated In fact it was not only captivated but it was changed Since then it has been Coupland s passion to share this aspect of Spurgeon s writings with others This has led to many hours spent going through his sermons collecting choice thoughts and assembling them into devotionals It has been said that if we would read Matthew 27 every day we would obtain and retain a passionate love for Jesus Well these daily meditations have been designed with the same purpose in mind The cross was central to Spurgeon and so it is here This whole book is centered on Jesus on his great sacrifice for us and on what he means to us He is our salvation our treasure our heaven our all Spurgeon once wrote Are you trusting in the cross Are you resting in Jesus If not may the Lord teach you this blessed privilege There is no joy like it There is no strength like it There is no life like it There is no peace like it At the cross we find our heaven It is through the cross that all heavenly holy things abound within our hearts Yes we must dwell at the cross and these daily meditations will assist us in staying there Have you ever visited Gethsemane that place that is so appropriately named olive press What about Gabbatha Have you spent some precious moments there And what about that most important place of all Golgotha Have you been there Oh it is of the utmost importance that you find your way there In fact your very life depends on it So come Let us open up the pages of this book day by day and follow Charles Spurgeon as he leads us to all those precious places where our Savior lived suffered and then died for our redemption      *Charles H.
