Squadron Six Hundred Thirty Three Operation Rhine Maiden:

6 Group Bomber Command Chris Ward, 2010-06-15 6 Group was born out of the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan BCATP which among other things called for the formation of 25 Canadian Squadrons in Britain This figure was later downsized The Canadian vision was of a Canadian force operating independently alongside Bomber Command in the manner of the American 8th but skillfull negotiating by the British resulted in Canadian Bomber squadrons operating within the RAF under RAF control but funded by Canada On the 1st of January 1943 most of the existing RCAF squadrons were brought together on stations in North Yorkshire and County Durham to form 6 Group By the end of the war 14 Squadrons were operational and one other had been posted to the Pathfinders After an uncertain beginning the Group became an efficient and valuable contributor to Bomber Command s campaigns Beginning predominantly with Wellingtons the Group was re equipped with a mixture of Halifaxes and Lancasters including the Hercules powered MkII and the Canadian built MKX

Bomber Boys on Screen S. P. MacKenzie, 2019-08-08 Since the Second World War depictions of Royal Air Force operations in film and television drama have become so numerous that they make up a genre worthy of scholarly attention In this illuminating study S P MacKenzie explores the different ways in which the men of RAF Bomber Command have been represented in dramatic form on the big and small screen from the war years to the present day Bomber Boys on Screen is the first in depth study of how and why the screen drama image of those who flew those who directed them and those who provided support for RAF bomber operations has changed over time sometimes in contested circumstances Until now dramas that focus on Bomber Command have tended to be mentioned only in passing or studied in isolation despite the prevalence of surveys of both the British war film genre and of aviation cinema In Bomber Boys on Screen MacKenzie examines the development presentation and reception of significant dramas on a decade by decade basis Titles from the beginning of the war The Lion Has Wings 1939 to the start of new century Bomber s Moon 2014 are situated in the context of technical possibilities and limitations evolving social and cultural norms in the United Kingdom and elsewhere and the development of moral and utilitarian controversies surrounding the wartime bomber offensive directed against Nazi Germany While the focus is on feature films and television plays reference is also made to documentaries memorials veterans organizations book titles war comics and other representations of the war fought by Bomber Command

1 Group Bomber Command Chris Ward, Greg Harrison, Grzegorz Korcz, 2014-06-18 A history of the British Royal Air Force s 1 Group Bomber Command during World War II During the period immediately before the Second World War the RAF modified its command structure to rationalize for rapid expansion Bomber Command was divided into six operational groups each flying the same type of aircraft including Wellingtons Sterlings and Lancasters Chris Ward presents us here with the history of 1 Group Bomber Command having previously acquainted us with the histories of three four five and six Groups in four highly acclaimed volumes published by Pen and Sword He continues with characteristic ease quality of research and narrative pace to present

us with an operational record of the group's activities during a particularly dramatic period of aviation history The book contains individual squadron statistics their commanding officers stations and aircraft losses It provides an exhaustive reference for one of the RAF's most important operational groups 633 Squadron Frederick E.
