Once Upon a Toy Kathy Merlock Jackson, Mark I. West, 2025-06-27 In the magical realm of children's play toys and stories have a rich and complex relationship In this collection contributors analyze the many types of interplay between children's toys and narrative Many of these essays explore how this relationship is portrayed in novels films and television programs Others discuss how this relationship is shaped by broader historical and cultural narratives Still other essays discuss how children create their own stories while playing with toys Taken together the essays speak to the myriad ways that toys are represented in popular narratives and provide insights into the meanings that toys hold for children adults and society

Multicultural Literature for Latino Bilingual Children Ellen Riojas Clark, Belinda Bustos Flores, Howard L. Smith, Daniel Alejandro González, 2015-11-25 While there are volumes that fall into the category of children's literature there appears to be relatively few that explore the needs of bilingual learners and the linguistic and sociocultural context of Latino children's literature This volume makes a needed contribution by addressing the social cultural academic and linguistic needs of Latino bilingual learners who are still underserved through current school practices We aim to conceptualize different forms of social knowledge so that they can serve as cultural resources for learning acquiring knowledge and transforming self and identity This volume presents a balance of theory research and practice that speak to authentic multicultural Latino literature and helps ensure its availability for all students The intended outcome of this volume then is to create a heightened awareness of the cultural and linguistic capital held by the Latino community to increase Latino students social capital through the design of critical pedagogical practices and for the formulation of a new perspective that of Latino multicultural literature for children

Juan Felipe Herrera Francisco A. Lomelí, Osiris Aníbal Gómez, 2023-06-20 This book presents the distinguished prolific and highly experimental writer Juan Felipe Herrera A wide ranging collection of essays by leading experts it offers critical approaches on Herrera who transcends ethnic and mainstream poetics It expertly demonstrates Herrera's versatility resourcefulness innovations and infinite creativity This collection includes an extensive interview with the poet and a voluminous bibliography on everything by about and on Herrera The chapters after a deep dive into the life and work of an internationally beloved poet who creates work that fosters a deep understanding of and appreciation for people's humanity

Rulers of Literary Playgrounds Justyna Deszcz-Tryhubczak, Irena Barbara Kalla, 2020-10-29 Rulers of Literary Playgrounds Politics of Intergenerational Play in Children's Literature offers multifaceted reflection on interdependences between children and adults as they engage in play in literary texts and in real life This volume brings together international children's literature scholars who each look at children's texts as key vehicles of intergenerational play reflecting ideologies of childhood and as objects with which children and adults interact physically emotionally and cognitively Each chapter applies a distinct theoretical approach to selected children's texts including individual and social play constructive play or play deprivation This collection of essays constitutes a timely voice in the current discussion about the importance of children's play and adults contribution to it vis vis the increasing limitations of opportunities for children's playful time in contemporary societies Battleground: Immigration Judith Ann
