Groundless Paths Karl Brunnholzl, 2012-08-14 The Abhisamayalamkara summarizes all the topics in the vast body of the praj aparamita sutras Resembling a zip file it comes to life only through its Indian and Tibetan commentaries Together these texts not only discuss the hidden meaning of the praj aparamita sutras the paths and bhumis of sravakas pratyekabuddhas and bodhisattvas but also serve as contemplative manuals for the explicit topic of these sutras emptiness and how it is to be understood on the progressive levels of realization of bodhisattvas Thus these texts describe what happens in the mind of a bodhisattva who meditates on emptiness making it a living experience from the beginner s stage up through buddhahood Groundless Paths contains the first in depth study of the Abhisamayalamkara the text studied most extensively in higher Tibetan Buddhist education and its commentaries from the perspective of the Nyingma School of Tibetan Buddhism This study consists mainly of translations of Maitreya s famous text and two commentaries on it by Patrul Rinpoche These are supplemented by three short texts on the paths and bhumis by the same author as well as extensive excerpts from commentaries by six other Nyingma masters including Mipham Rinpoche Thus this book helps close a long standing gap in the modern scholarship on the praj aparamita sutras and the literature on paths and bhumis in mahayana Buddhism Arya Maitreya s Ornament of Clear Realization with its Indian and Tibetan commentaries presents the complex dynamics of the path to liberation as a succession of realizations of the empty nature of all phenomena This presentation is a powerful antidote to whatever two dimensional views we might hold about spiritual experience and the journey to enlightenment

First World War as the British French and German armies all pursued the same solutions assault tactics combined arms and elastic defense in depth By the end of the war only the German army managed to develop and implement a set of revolutionary offensive defensive and combined arms doctrines that in hindsight represented the best way to fight Hunzeker identifies three organizational variables that determine how fighting militaries generate new ideas distinguish good ones from bad ones and implement the best of them across the entire organization These factors are the degree to which leadership delegates authority on the battlefield how effectively the organization retains control over soldier and officer training and whether or not the military possesses an independent doctrinal assessment mechanism Through careful study of the British French and German experiences in the First World War Dying to Learn provides a model that shows how a resolute focus on analysis command and training can help prepare modern militaries for adapting amidst high intensity warfare in an age of revolutionary technological change

A. Carson,2002 A readable guide for helping Christians understand what biblical forgiveness and biblical love really look like in the painful situations in life Historical Reality Or Metaphoric Expression? Michael Wachutka,2001 This book elucidates the differing interpretations on Japanese mythology by the German philologist and historian Karl Florenz 1865 1939 and the Japanese kokugakusha Iida Takesato 1828 1900 at the end of the 19th century Iida in his Nihonshoki tsushaku and Florenz in his Japanische Mythologie approached a comparable endeavor from very different vantage points It is shown how their distinct cultural formation their education and upbringing within unlike academic discourses and their life within a variety of intellectual social and political milieus formed their different scholarly outlook and methodology in interpreting and commenting on the Nihongi myths Comparing both scholars their work and their mutual relation we can find a very interesting interaction of cultural and scholarly traditions Based on translations of both works this study juxtaposes Iida's emic inner view on Japanese mythology with the etic outside view of Florenz and at the same time provides the first portrayal of life and work of these two eminent scholars in English Shinto Helen Hardacre,2017 Helen Hardacre offers for the first time in any language a sweeping comprehensive history of Shinto the tradition that is practiced by some 80% of the Japanese people and underlies the institution of the Emperor Habermas and Literary Rationality David L. Colclasure,2010-06-10 The book is different from other work in the philosophy of literature to the extent that it aims to retool Jürgen Habermas theory of communicative action to provide a description of the role that literature plays in the political public sphere Literary scholarship has paid little serious attention to Habermas philosophy and on the other hand the reception of Habermas has given little attention to the role that literary practice can play in a broader theory of communicative action Colclasure's argument sets out to demonstrate that a specific literary form of rationality inheres in literary practice and the public reception of literary works which provides a unique contribution to the political public sphere After the Cult Holger Jebens, 2010 In many parts of the world the white man is perceived to be an instigator of globalization and an embodiment of modernity However so far anthropologists have paid little attention to the actual heterogeneity and complexity of whiteness in specific ethnographic contexts This study examines cultural perceptions of other and self as expressed in cargo cults and masked dances in Papua New Guinea Indigenous terms images and concepts are being contrasted with their western counterparts the latter partly deriving from the publications and field notes of Charles Valentine After having done his first fieldwork more than fifty years ago this anthropological ancestor has now become part of the local tradition and has thus turned into a kind of mythical figure Based on anthropological fieldwork as well as on archival studies this book addresses the relation between western and indigenous perceptions of self and other between tradition and modernity and between anthropological ancestors and descendants In this way the work contributes to the study of whiteness cargo cults and masked dances in Papua New Guinea Eastern Christian Approaches to Philosophy James Siemens, Joshua Matthan Brown, 2022-10-05 With few exceptions the field of Eastern Christian studies has primarily been concerned with historical critical analysis hermeneutics and sociology For the most part it has not attempted to bring Eastern Christian philosophy into serious engagement with contemporary thought This volume seeks to redress the matter by bringing the Eastern Christian tradition into a meaningful dialogue with contemporary philosophy It boasts a diverse group of scholars specialists in ancient philosophy analytic philosophy and continental philosophy who engage with a wide range of pressing issues Among other things it addresses such topics as contemporary atheism the metaphysics of action religious epistemology the philosophy of language bioethics the philosophy of race and human rights In so doing it aims to introduce contemporary readers to unique perspectives and novel arguments often overlooked by mainstream anglophone philosophy
