Supervising Technical And Professional People:

Supervising Student Employees in Academic Libraries David A. Baldwin, 1991-09-15 Library administrators have taken the student work force for granted for a long time and are only now beginning to realize that this important group accounts for a significant portion of the operating budget Baldwin describes the role of student employees and the supervisor including hiring orientation and performance appraisal He discusses some common problems as well as corrective discipline and termination procedures A separate chapter is devoted to federal student aid programs because of their role in student employment The specific orientation of this well organized handbook makes it essential for any supervisor of student employees

Personnel Literature United States. Office of Personnel Management. Library, 1987 Managing Cultural Diversity in Technical Professions Lionel Laroche, 2012-06-25 Managing Cultural Diversity in Technical Professions provides managers of technical professionals with clear and tested strategies to improve communication and increase productivity among culturally diverse technical professionals teams and departments Dr Laroche outlines the differences in education and training career expectations communication styles and management expectations in countries around the world He explains cross cultural concepts and presents his case for the importance of cross cultural competence supported by hard data including charts tables and readily accessible schematics You ll benefit from the author s experience and expertise as a manager and consultant in this area illustrated by numerous anecdotes critical incidents and mini case studies centered around two central themes Most technical professionals do not recognize the impact of cultural differences in their work Cross cultural issues lead to a significant under utilization of talent and affect productivity negatively Managing Cultural Diversity in Technical Professions offers proven tactics for improving your personal effectiveness and the efficiency of your multicultural teams breaking the communication barrier in the multicultural workplace The Effective Health Care Supervisor Charles R.
