Preparing School Leaders for the 21st Century Stephan Gerhard Huber,2004-08-02 The quality and success of schools depend upon school leadership Increasingly in many countries worldwide this belief has led to designing and implementing appropriate training and development programs for educational leaders In an international comparative research project current school leader training and development programs in fifteen countries across Europe Asia Australia and North America are analyzed compared and discussed Preparing School Leaders for the 21st Century provides insights and constructive ideas for those planning and carrying out school leadership development in different countries and those conducting research in this field Part one in the book reflects on roles tasks competences and conceptions of school leadership exploring the changing context in which school leaders find themselves focusing on the new demands on the school leaders and suitable leadership theories Part two provides a comparative discussion of the various leadership development models identifying similarities and differences based on a set of criteria selected and going beyond a mere juxtaposition In describing common issues and challenges it also looks for common solutions and considers what the different countries might be able to learn from each other and successfully transfer Part three identifies current international trends deduced from these programs Nineteen recommendations for designing future programs are outlined and instructive examples of best and promising practice are given Part four comprises well structured country reports which provide information about the education system and school system of those countries about recent changes and their impact on school leadership about the overall school leader training and development approach Business Ethics: A Kantian

Perspective Norman E. Bowie,2017-02-06 It is more important than ever that a business must be both ethical and profitable In this thoroughly revised and updated second edition Norman E Bowie shows that by applying Kant s three formulations of the categorical imperative and by doing the right thing for the right reason a business can achieve success in both of these fields Bowie uses examples such as building trust transparency through open book management and respecting employees by providing a living wage and meaningful work This new edition for graduates and academic researchers in the field of business ethics has been heavily revised to include the newest scholarship on Kantian ethics with a new emphasis on Kant s later moral and political theory a workable account of Kantian capitalism and additional accounts on corporate social responsibility Kantianism and human rights corporate moral agency and the Kantian theory of meaningful work
