

Differentiated Supervision Action Plan - Documentation

- Each individual is responsible for his/her own paperwork and artifacts, which must be kept in a paper or electronic portfolio. The artifacts, paperwork, and narrative summaries, which include a mid-point and final reflection on professional growth and application aligned to the Danielson Framework, must be included in the portfolio. The project and accompanying portfolio will be reviewed twice. A mid-year and final review will be conducted between the professional employee and supervising administrator and will be used as evidence for supervision and evaluation.
