Developing, Delivering, and Sustaining School Counseling Practices Through a Culturally Affirming Lens

Brant-Rajahn, Sarah N., Gibson, Eva M., Cook Sandifer, Mariama, 2022-05-06 Systemic oppression continues to disenfranchise students at the intersections of race ethnicity gender identity sexual orientation immigrant status religion ableism and economic status Because of this school counselors are called to function as advocates and change agents but often find themselves underprepared to address these oppressive systems in schools It is vital that school counselors are provided resources that enable them to increase their preparedness and allow them to address oppressive practices within schools as well as work with diverse populations using culturally affirming and antiracist practices

Developing and Sustaining School Counseling Practices Through a Culturally Affirming Lens informs culturally affirming and antiracist professional practice and advocacy work by school counselors. It serves as a learning tool that better prepares school counselors to address the needs of marginalized students and work as effective change agents to disrupt systemic oppression in school settings. Covering topics such as professional identity, racial trauma, and social justice, this book serves as a dynamic resource for school counselor educators, school counselors in training, school counselors, directors, supervisors, district leaders, and administration researchers and academicians as they implement antiracist social justice and culturally affirming practices in school settings and academia.

Statistics of Land-grant Colleges and Universities United States. Office of Education, 1941

Management and Supervisory Practices for Environmental Professionals Herman Koren, Alma Mary Anderson, 2022-05-29

Based on the lifelong experiences of two authors as supervisors and teachers, the Fourth Edition of this bestseller provides up-to-date information for newly promoted or management-aspiring professionals and engineers in the fields of environmental health, occupational health and safety, water and wastewater treatment, public health, and many others. The first volume explains through nine sets of tools the basic principles supervisors need to understand the structure of their organization, what leadership is, how to effectively plan and budget, how to manage other people, and best practices for achieving success in a management position. The second volume explains the advanced principles that supervisors need to understand the art of communications, resolving communications problems, and the supervisor-manager's role in teaching, counseling, and managing employee performance and employee health and safety. In addition to those already practicing professionals in their fields, this book is an excellent resource for students interested in learning management skills prior to entering the workforce.

Features of the Fourth Edition:

- Helps to understand and utilize organizational structure to facilitate problem solving.
- Offers a practical set of methods, tools, and techniques, all illustrated and easy to understand for achieving leadership qualities.
- Provides concise but essential discussion material for each topic using the practical art of communications.
- Includes thorough updates and many new case problems with answers provided.
- Introduces self-testing questions for different situations and practical exercises utilizing an individual's own work experience for answers.
