Cleft Tongue Dana Amir, 2018-05-11 This book is an attempt to analyse psychic language and its diverse modes of expression both within psychic structure and in the interpersonal realm It begins by looking at two basic forms of delay in the development of psychic language concrete language which is based on flattening and pseudo language which is rooted in concealment The next chapter focuses on the split between voice and meaning which marks psychotic syntax and the latter s double function in defending the self against an unconscious death wish The subject of the third chapter is the chameleon language of perversion and the relationship between the perverse structure and the primal scene This chapter is followed by one that suggests understanding autistic syntax as an inverse use of the psychic musical organ point The fifth chapter discusses the absent function of the inner witness in traumatic language The sixth chapter discusses psychosomatic language through the distinction between metaphorical metonymical and psychotic bodily expressions

Monuments as Cultural and Critical Objects Thomas Houlton, 2021-11-25 Monuments as Cultural and Critical Objects explores monuments as political psychological social and mystical objects Incorporating autoethnography psychoanalysis deconstruction postcolonialism and queer ecology Houlton argues for a radical interdisciplinary approach to our monument culture Tracing historical developments in monuments alongside contemporary movements such as Rhodes Must Fall and Black Lives Matter Houlton provides an in depth critique of monument sites as well as new critical and conceptual methodologies for thinking across the field Alongside analysis of monuments to the Holocaust colonial figures and LGBTQIA subjects this book provides new critical engagements with the work of D W Winnicott Marion Milner Jacques Derrida Edward Said Eve Sedgwick and others Houlton traces the potential for monuments to exert great influence over our sense of self nation community sexuality and place in the world Exploring the psychic and physical spaces these objects occupy their aesthetics affects politics and powers this book considers how monuments can challenge our identities beliefs and our very notions of remembrance The interdisciplinary nature of Monuments as Cultural and Critical Objects means that it is ideally placed to intervene across several critical fields particularly museum and heritage studies It will also prove invaluable to those engaged in the study of monuments psychoanalytic object relations decolonization queer ecology radical death studies and affect theory

Marion Milner: The Life Emma Letley, 2013-08-15 Artist poet educationalist and autobiographer Marion Milner is considered one of the most original of psychoanalytic thinkers whose life 1900-1998 spans a century of radical change Marion Milner The Life is the first biography of this extraordinary woman It introduces Milner and her works to the reader through her family, colleagues and above all through her books charting their evolution and development as well as their critical reception and contribution to current twenty-first century debates and discourses In this book Emma Letley draws on primary sources including the newly opened Marion Milner Collection at the Archives of the British Psychoanalytical Society in London as well as interviews and the re-contextualised series of Milner's texts She traces the process of Milner's writing of her books her discovery of psychoanalysis her training and her place in that world from the 1940s onwards Marion Milner The Life includes discussion of Milner's connection with D W Winnicott and her emergence as a most individual member of the Independent Group Letley also shows how Milner's Personal Notebooks offer fascinating insights into her relationships both personal and professional and into many of her important ideas on creativity the body-mind relationship her revolutionary ideas on education and her particular personality as a clinician working with both children and adults Further Letley explores Milner's literary character from her very early diaries and narratives to her last book written in her 90s published in 2012 Marion Milner The Life places Marion Milner firmly in her Edwardian family setting and contains new material from primary sources including a new view of her collegial connections It provides a wealth of material on her life and works that will be invaluable to psychoanalysts psychotherapists art psychotherapists students those involved with life writing and autobiography and the general reader

Fantastic Reality Mignon Nixon, Louise Bourgeois, 2005 A critical study of Louise Bourgeois's art from the 1940s to the 1980s its departure from surrealism and its dialogue with psychoanalysis

Thoughts Without A Thinker Mark Epstein, 2013-07-30 The line between psychology and spirituality has blurred as clinicians their patients and religious seekers explore new perspectives on the self A landmark contribution to the field of psychoanalysis Thoughts Without a Thinker describes the unique psychological contributions offered by the teachings of Buddhism Drawing upon his own experiences as a psychotherapist and meditator New York based psychiatrist Mark Epstein lays out the path to meditation inspired healing and offers a revolutionary new understanding of what constitutes a healthy emotional life

The Suppressed Madness of Sane Men Marion Milner, 1987-01-01 Robert Indiana Susan Elizabeth Ryan, Robert Indiana, 2000-01-01 The author argues that Indiana's strident visual language emerges from his tendency to recast his life in story and verse a fact that unlocks complex and secret tissues of figurative meaning within the deceptively simple canvases By illuminating the enigmas in Indiana's word and image combinations she helps to explain the longevity of LOVE and its influence on a later generation of artists

Art Therapy Education Tami Yaguri, Dalia Merari, 2021-10-19 Art and artmaking are at the basis of art therapy as a healing practice Teachers of art therapy emphasize the role of the creative process and the symbolic use of materials in the training of art therapy students This volume suggests an innovative research approach that examines different art therapy teaching and training practices and studies them as parts of one picture

The American Journal of Psychiatry ,1988 Melanie Klein Deborah P. Britzman,2015-11-07 This volume introduces the psychoanalyst Melanie Klein to the general field of education and traces her theories of mental life as an emotional situation through to problems of self other relations in our own time The case is made for Klein s relevance and the difficulties her theories pose to the activities of learning and pedagogical relation Klein s vocabulary the paranoid schizoid and depressive positions phantasy object relations projective identification anxiety envy and the urge for reparation and gratitude are discussed in terms of their evolution and the designs of her main questions all stemming from the problem of inhibition Her contribution to an understanding of symbolization and the shift from concrete thinking to greater freedom of mind is analyzed The essay develops the following questions why is learning an emotional situation How did Klein s life and larger history influence her views What are her central theories of mental life Why did Klein focus on anxiety and phantasies as making up the life of the mind What is object relations theory And what does Klein s model of the self proffer to contemporary education in schools and in universities When History Returns Deborah P. Britzman,2024-05-01 When History Returns brings together psychoanalytic theories of learning with the antinomies of social strife From a psychoanalytic perspective history returns through transitional scenes of inheriting a past one could not make experiencing a present affected by what came before and facing a future one can neither know nor predict Taking such scenes as the subject of education Deborah P Britzman provides new approaches and vocabulary for conceptualizing experience and understanding as expressed in psychoanalysis literature film clinical case studies and warm pedagogy Britzman argues that novel quests for humane responsibility take hold in the fallout of understanding in the feel of history in imaginative dialogues and missed encounters and in searches for friendship belonging and affiliation Each chapter charts these quests in contemporary education carrying readers into the heart of learning and the emotional situations that urge the transitions of difficult knowledge into care for thinking and the questions that follow Choice ,1988 National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1988
