Existence and Enlightenment in the Laṅkāvatāra-Sūtra Florin Giripescu Sutton, 1991-01-01 This book offers a systematic analysis of one of the most important concepts characterizing the Yogic School of Buddhism the last creative stage of Indian Buddhism as outlined and explained in one of its most authoritative and influential texts Laṅkāvatāra Sūtra Compiled in the second half of the fourth century A D this sutra not only represents a comprehensive synthesis of both early and late religious philosophical ideas crucial to the understanding of Buddhism in India but it also provides an insight into the very early roots of the Japanese Zen Buddhism in the heart of the South Asian esotericism The first part of the book outlines the three fold nature of Being as conceptualized in Buddhist metaphysics The author uses an interpretive framework borrowed from the existentialist philosophy of Heidegger in order to separate the transcendental Essence of Being from its Temporal manifestation as Self and from its Spatial or Cosmic dimension The second part clarifies the Buddhist approach to knowledge in its religious transcendental sense and it shows that the Buddhists were actually first in making use of dialectical reasoning for the purpose of transcending the contradictory dualities imbedded in the common ways of perceiving thinking and arguing about reality

Eihei Dogen: Mystical Realist Hee-Jin Kim, 2012-06-25 Eihei Dogen the founder of the Japanese branch of the Soto Zen Buddhist school is considered one of the world's most remarkable religious philosophers Eihei Dogen Mystical Realist is a comprehensive introduction to the genius of this brilliant thinker This thirteenth century figure has much to teach us all and the questions that drove him have always been at the heart of Buddhist practice At the age of seven in 1207 Dogen lost his mother who at her death earnestly asked him to become a monastic to seek the truth of Buddhism We are told that in the midst of profound grief Dogen experienced the impermanence of all things as he watched the incense smoke ascending at his mother's funeral service This left an indelible impression upon the young Dogen later he would emphasize time and again the intimate relationship between the desire for enlightenment and the awareness of impermanence His way of life would not be a sentimental flight from but a compassionate understanding of the intolerable reality of existence At age 13 Dogen received ordination at Mt Hiei And yet a question arose As I study both the exoteric and the esoteric schools of Buddhism they maintain that human beings are endowed with Dharma nature by birth If this is the case why did the buddhas of all ages undoubtedly in possession of enlightenment find it necessary to seek enlightenment and engage in spiritual practice When it became clear that no one on Mt Hiei could give a satisfactory answer to this spiritual problem he sought elsewhere eventually making the treacherous journey to China This was the true beginning of a life of relentless questioning practice and teaching an immensely inspiring contribution to the Buddhadharma As you might imagine a book as ambitious as Eihei Dogen Mystical Realist has to be both academically rigorous and eminently readable to succeed Professor Hee Jim Kim s work is indeed both Pneumatology and the Christian-Buddhist Dialogue Amos Yong,2012-07-26 This project at the interface of Buddhist Christian studies comparative theology and Christian systematic theology proceeds by way of exploring questions related to the presence and activity of the Holy Spirit in a 21st century world of many faiths

Dōgen and the Kōan Tradition Steven Heine,1994-01-01 This book has three major goals in critically examining the historical and philosophical relation between the writings of D gen and the Zen koan tradition First it introduces and evaluates recent Japanese scholarship concerning D gen s two Sh b genz texts the Japanese Kana collection of ninety two fascicles on Buddhist topics and the Chinese Mana collection of three hundred koan cases also known as the Shōbōgenzō Sanbyakusoku. Second it develops a new methodology for clarifying the development of the koan tradition and the relation between intellectual history and multifarious interpretations of koan cases based on postmodern literary criticism. Third the book's emphasis on a literary critical methodology challenges the conventional reading of koans stressing the role of psychological impasse culminating in silence.
