Shapiro,2025-07-15 An ethnography of factory accidents and their attendant reconstructive plastic surgeries in Coimbatore Tamil Nadu Connective Tissue explores notions of risk work and labor practices and the way meaning is made from experiences of trauma care and recovery The book charts a rough chronology of the accident from the workspace that preceded it the transformation of the workspace by the accident through journeys to and treatment in the hospital and then the various and complex ways in which the accident reverberates into the future during recovery Connective Tissue revisits scholarship on factory labor by analyzing the accident as constitutive of the experience of work itself and it refines existing conversations about the body trauma and care by introducing an analysis informed by theories of labor and production Author Lily N Shapiro argues that care does not happen in spite of or on the margins of capitalism but rather that capitalism happens in and through care and caring relations These experiences are intersected by identities of caste class and gender and entangled in state discourse about labor rights welfare and industrial law
