Committee on Armed Services,1956 Considers 84 H R 483 Journal of the American Medical Association American Medical Association,1917 A Rural Surgeon Dr John B Case,2020-09-01 A Rural Surgeon follows the adventures and misadventures of Dr John Case and his family as they commence their new life in the Western Canadian Prairie province of Alberta and learn first hand of its extreme weather Life in another Commonwealth country ensures that there are many cultural similarities but the Cases also experience an immense number of differences from their previous lifestyle Discover along with Dr Case the impact of less regulation and increased personal freedom combined with more responsible social behaviour and the helpful interdependence necessary in a remote and sparsely populated region A broad and wide ranging description of life in a remote Western Canadian city from a physician s point of view this book will appeal to readers who enjoy reading of life s diversities tragedies and triumphs Physicians will recognise and find interest in the changing practice of medicine in a rapidly expanding city during a time of enormous scientific advances As with all of Dr Case s books he presents a wonderful balance of laughter and tragedy His inquisitiveness and compassion shine in his description of life as a specialist surgeon in a nonurban environment

Doctors Story A Personal Journey and A J. D. Krenie Stowe,2006-12 A Doctor s Story uses the highly personalized narrative of one woman s educational and professional path to highlight shocking flaws in our profit driven medical delivery system Employing moving anecdotes to illustrate glaring deficiencies in health care policy and delivery and in medical training the book takes a refreshing and distinct approach to a topic on the mind of virtually every American Can we reshape our expensive inefficient and inhumane health care system to meet the needs of all The book is structured as an autobiography so the discussion of policy is laced with humor compassion sarcasm and anger It is as the title states a story not a scientific study or research project The book s premise is that real experiences of real people can speak volumes and that one person can effect change
