Fant, Jr., 2010-05-01 God as Author takes a thoughtful literary approach to understanding the Gospel Gene Fant writes in the preface Most of us have heard that Christ is the Author and Finisher of our faith Hebrews 12:2 so it makes sense that the Gospel would be God's story As many a church message board has noted so succinctly History is His Story In our easy discussions of special revelation I cannot help but wonder if we have missed something awe inspiring that may be revealed by a reversal of the lens that we turn toward narrative Perhaps the Gospel is not just like a story perhaps story narrative in general is like the Gospel My clear conviction is that something stands behind the power of narrative In fact I believe that Someone stands behind it There is an Author whose skill and grace imbues the broad range of the stories that we tell There is a Father who gave us a story to help us understand our place in this world a story that points back to Him His story is in many ways the only story that we know When we use that realization as a foundation for interpreting and generating narrative it changes everything including ourselves
