neighborhood drug dealer and a lonely woman appears doomed to a disastrous end In the second set in Crown Heights Brooklyn a soft spoken parolee looking to reassemble the broken pieces of his former life meets a young withered yet surprisingly ebullient cancer patient that eventually puts his one final chance at freedom at risk As you read on the twin tales gather like a storm to an exhilarating ferocity culminating in a violent flood of passions that none of the characters can control and which threatens to drown them all Faulkner fans may think they know what the end holds for these four characters but rest assured the culmination of THE MORNING SIDE OF THE HILL exposes an unexpected coincidence that Faulkner may have hinted at but never fully explored

Part I features six systematic chapters that discuss literary, intellectual, socio-economic and political contexts, providing innovative approaches to issues such as sense and sentiment, gender considerations, formal characteristics, economic history, enlightened and radical concepts of citizenship and human rights, ecological ramifications and Britain's growing global involvement. Part II presents twenty-five analytical chapters that attend to individual novels, some canonical and others recently recovered. These analyses engage the debates outlined in the systematic chapters, undertaking in-depth readings that both contextualize the works and draw on relevant criticism, literary theory and cultural perspectives. The handbook's breadth and depth, clear presentation and lucid language make it attractive and accessible to scholar and student alike. The

Studies in the Victorian and Neo-Victorian Novel Adrian Radu, 2024-02-29 Readers of the nineteenth-century novel expected literature to be a form of journalism and fictional history. They wanted to read about easily identifiable situations with a chronological, straightforward and easily discernible development of plot, familiar backgrounds and credible characters. About a hundred years later, the Victorian novel became the great tradition, omnipresent and reliable. However, today the age and the context are different, and novels need more substance, including such themes as memory, race and empire, sex and science, spectrality and the heritage industry, or key issues like gender, sexuality and postmodernism. All these elements are considered Neo-Victorian, which, in spite of their novelty, do point to a certain Victorian anchor. This volume contains ten studies, the substance of which is the analysis of novels that, according to their date of publication, are products of the Victorian and Neo Victorian periods as defined above The authors investigate and discuss Victorian roots and characteristics preserved or recycled Victorian themes Neo Victorian characters and motifs or any other characteristics that may label them as Victorian or Neo Victorian products
