The Holy Family In Art And Devotion:

The Holy Family in Art and Devotion Joseph F. Chorprenning, 1998 The Oxford Handbook of Christmas Timothy Larsen, 2020-10-21 The Oxford Handbook of Christmas provides a comprehensive interdisciplinary account of all aspects of Christmas across the globe from the specifically religious to the purely cultural The contributions are drawn from a distinguished group of international experts from across numerous disciplines including literary scholars theologians historians biblical scholars sociologists anthropologists art historians and legal experts The volume provides authoritative treatments of a range of topics from the origins of Christmas to the present decorating trees to eating plum pudding from the Bible to contemporary worship from carols to cinema from the Nativity Story to Santa Claus from Bethlehem to Japan from Catholics to Baptists from secularism to consumerism Christmas is the biggest celebration on the planet Every year a significant percentage of the world's population is drawn to this holiday from Cape Cod to Cape Town from South America to South Korea and on and on across the globe The Christmas season takes up a significant part of the entire year For many countries the holiday is a major force in their national economy Moreover Christmas is not just a modern holiday but has been an important feast for most Christians since the fourth century and a dominant event in many cultures and countries for over a millennium The Oxford Handbook of Christmas provides an invaluable reference point for anyone interested in this global phenomenon A Gift of Angels Bernard L. Fontana, 2010-09-20 It rises suddenly out of the Sonoran Desert landscape towering over the tallest tree or cactus a commanding building with a sensuous dome elliptical vaults and sturdy bell towers There is nothing else like it around nor does it seem there should be This incongruity of setting is what strikes first time visitors to Mission San Xavier del Bac This great church is of another place and another time while its beauty is universal and timeless Mission San Xavier del Bac is a two century old Spanish church in southern Arizona located just a few miles from downtown Tucson a metropolis of more than half a million people in the American Southwest A National Historic Landmark since 1963 the mission's graceful baroque art and architecture have drawn visitors from all over the world Now Bernard Fontana the leading expert on San Xavier and award winning photographer Edward McCain team up to bring us a comprehensive view of the mission as we've never seen it before With 200 stunning full color photographs and incisive text illuminating the religious historical and motivational context of these images A Gift of Angels is a must have for tourists scholars and other visitors to San Xavier From its glorious architecture all the way down to the finest details of its art Mission San Xavier del Bac is indeed a gift of angels Childhood in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance Albrecht Classen, 2005 Earlier theses on the history of childhood can now be laid to rest and a fundamental paradigm shift initiated as there is an overwhelming body of evidence to show that in medieval and early modern times too there were close emotional relations between parents and children The contributors to this volume demonstrate conclusively on the one hand how intensively parents concerned themselves with their children in the pre modern era and on the other which social political and religious conditions shaped these relationships These studies in emotional history demonstrate how easy it is for a subjective choice of sources coupled with faulty interpretations caused mainly by modern prejudices toward the Middle Ages in particular to lead to the view that in the past children were regarded as small adults The contributors demonstrate convincingly that intense feelings admittedly often different in nature shaped the relationship between adults and children

Reformation and Everyday Life Nina J. Koefoed,Bo Kristian Holm,Christopher B. Brown,Günter Frank,Barbara Mahlmann-Bauer,Tarald Rasmussen,Violet Soen,Zsombor Tóth,Günther Wassilowsky,Siegrid Westphal,2023-11-13 The European reformations meant major changes in theology religion and everyday life Some changes were immediate and visible in a number of countries monasteries were dissolved new liturgies were introduced and married pastors were ordained others were more hidden Theologically as well as practically the position of the church in the society changed dramatically but differently according to confession and political differences This volume addresses the question of how the theological liturgical and organizational changes brought by the reformation within different confessional cultures throughout Europe influenced the everyday life of ordinary people within the church and within society The different contributions in the book ask how lived religion space and everyday life were formed in the aftermath of the reformation and how we can trace changes in material culture in emotions in social structures in culture which may be linked to the reformation and the development of confessional cultures
