The Holy Gospel John S. Custer, 2004-07-01      The Gospel of John Charles Raith II, 2017-03-16 The Gospel of John Theological Ecumenical Readings brings together leading Catholic Orthodox and Evangelical theologians to read and interpret John's Gospel from within their ecclesial tradition while simultaneously engaging one another in critical dialogue Combining both theological exegesis and ecumenical dialogue each chapter is uniquely structured with a main essay by a Catholic Orthodox or Evangelical theologian on a section of John's Gospel followed by two responses from theologians of the other two traditions The chapter concludes with a final response from the main author Readers are thus provided with not only a deep and engaging reading of the Gospel of John but also the unfolding of a rich theological ecumenical dialogue centered on an authority for all Christians namely the Gospel of John      Literature for Europe? Theo d'. Haen, 2009 In Literature for Europe leading scholars from around Europe reflect on the role played by literature and by the study of literature in the constant re negotiation and re construction of cultural identities in Europe implied by the accession to the European Union in the early years of the twenty first century of fifteen new member states with the accession of a number of Balkan states impending and Turkey waiting in the wings while at the same time transatlantic relations of the EU to the USA are hotly debated in politics as in culture China and India awake as economic giants and globalization is upon us At the same time two of the earliest signatories to the treaties eventually leading to the European Union rejected a proposal for a European Constitution and linguistic religious and ethnic dividing lines show even in some of Europe's oldest nation states How do literary texts genres and forms thinking about them and teaching them respond to and shape ongoing processes of European self understanding in our era of globalization The volume seeks to answer these questions by charting key developments in a number of fields crucial to the emergence of a European common literary space literature and cultural value systems literature and cultural memory literary history translation the impact of the new media and the information age on matters of literature and identity and the impact of the postcolonial Literature for Europe is a thought provoking tour d horizon of cutting edge developments in the relationship between literary studies and the matter of Europe and suggesting an exciting agenda for literary studies in Europe It will be of interest to everyone working in European studies and or European literature      Performing the Gospels in Byzantium Roland Betancourt, 2021-05-13 Tracing the Gospel text from script to illustration to recitation this study looks at how illuminated manuscripts operated within ritual and architecture Focusing on a group of richly illuminated lectionaries from the late eleventh century the book articulates how the process of textual recitation produced marginalia and miniatures that reflected and subverted the manner in which the Gospel was read and simultaneously imagined by readers and listeners alike This unique approach to manuscript illumination points to images that slowly unfolded in the mind of its listeners as they imagined the text being recited as meaning carefully changed and built as the text proceeded By examining this process within specific acoustic architectural spaces and the sonic conditions of medieval chant the volume brings together the concerns of sound studies liturgical studies and art history to demonstrate how images texts and recitations played with the environment of the Middle Byzantine church The Gothic Version of the Gospels and Pauline Epistles Carla Falluomini, 2015-05-19 The Gothic version of the New Testament is the oldest extant writing in a Germanic language and one of the earliest translations from the Greek This volume offers a re examination of fundamental questions concerning the historical and cultural context in which the version was prepared the codicology of the manuscripts and the value of the Gothic text for the reconstruction of the underlying Greek together with a history of text critical research and a new evaluation of the significance of the Gothic text in the light of current New Testament textual criticism The Armenian Gospels of Gladzor Thomas F. Mathews, Alice Taylor, 2001 The text s elaborate illumination also brings to life a vibrant artistic center the Monastery of Gladzor which long ago disappeared The Armenian Gospels of Gladzor includes sixty color reproductions of the manuscript s illuminated pages ten black and white illustrations and two maps along with an essay that explores the book s artistic richness and theological complexity BOOK JACKET The ^AOxford Handbook of the Bible in Orthodox Christianity Eugen J. Pentiuc, 2022-07-26 The Oxford Handbook of the Bible in Orthodox Christianity is designed to demonstrate how Orthodox Christian namely Eastern Greek Slavic Romanian Antiochene and Oriental Syriac Coptic Ethiopian and Armenian communities have received shaped and interpreted the Christian Bible The basic hallmark of Orthodox Christianity a unique mix of strictness tradition and flexibility innovation modernity is detectable at the level of text canon Scripture Tradition relationship and mostly in the area of biblical hermeneutics Divining Gospel Jeff W. Childers, 2020-03-23 Ancient manuscripts of John s Gospel containing hermeneiai have long puzzled scholars provoking debate about their origins purpose and use The fragmentary nature of the early evidence has impeded progress towards a better understanding of these specialized books The present study shows that these books are Divining Gospels editions of John s Gospel incorporating lot divination materials for use in fortune telling The study centers on material presented here for the first time the text and translation of a unique sixth century Syriac manuscript the earliest and most complete example of a hermeneia Gospel An analysis of the Syriac along with evidence from Greek Coptic Latin and Armenian versions show they all preserve vestiges of the same apparatus disseminated widely at an early time throughout many different Christian communities These books must be situated squarely within the development of divinatory practices in early and late antique Christianity However they represent a true hermeneutic a method by which interpreters brought the potency of the Bible to bear on the everyday concerns of people who consulted them for help Furthermore the Divining Gospel draws on the special aura that John s Gospel held in the Christian imagination both as text and as textual object An analysis of the interplay between the biblical text and sacred codex the oracles the ritual practitioner and the client enrich our appreciation of this distinctive hermeneutic Contextualizing these materials in popular use illuminates the fraught relationships between the ecclesial establishment ritual experts operating on the margins of orthodox respectability and lay

Burgon, 1990 What do you get when you buy this volume You get all six of the Works of Dean John W Burgon which in effect gives you an excellent introduction to Textual Criticism in The Traditional Text of the New Testament In The Causes of the Corruption of the Traditional Text of the Gospels you will learn how the Gnostics Manicheans Ebionites Arians and other heretics sought to halt the spread of Christianity by putting out corrupt manuscripts Discover the motivation that caused the critics to elevate these adulterated manuscripts to a place of adoration See for yourself the overwhelming evidence against the thousands of changes in the popular new versions that dilute the Scriptures The Last Twelve Verses According to the Gospel of Mark shows that over 2 000 manuscripts and as many Greek lectionaries contain these verses without any brackets or doubting footnotes Did you know that except for the NKJV MKJV LITV the nine other major new versions have bracketed the last 12 verses of Mark or in a footnote indicated that they do not believe they are authentic WHY It's a mystery There are only three 3 Greek manuscripts that do not have these verses And in 200 pages of proofs Burgon shows that those two are so edited at the place where these verses belong that anyone can see the scribes were looking at these verses in the older mss they were copying As Dr Gordon H Clark wrote If a version brackets these verses then you know that they are not going by the evidence The Revision Revised is a Critique of the English Revised Version of 1881 with additional applications to the Modern Translations There is an excellent critique of the Westcott and Hort textual theories Proof of the Genuineness of God Manifested in the Flesh contains an unanswered and unanswerable defense of 1 Timothy 3 16 The Woman Taken In Adultery gives a defense of the authenticity of John 7 53 8 11 Conflation and The Neutral Text by Edward Miller M A gives an additional critique of Dr Hort s theories Get this volume and arm yourself to fight for the God breathed words that God has preserved for you that you might have life and faith Every one of His words are precious We need not give up thousands of them Can We Recover the Original Text of the New Testament? David Alan Black, Abidan Paul Shah, 2023-10-06 In recent decades the traditional definition of the original text of the New Testament NT has shifted from seeking one singular text to seeking a number of texts Instead of one authorial text now it is claimed that it could be one of several different texts based on their locations in the history of transmission preauthorial authorial canonical and postcanonical These distinctions were first listed by Eldon Epp in his article The Multivalence of the Term Original Text in New Testament Textual Criticism as predecessor autographic canonical and interpretive text forms It is apparent that with such changing definitions of the original text of the NT text critics are ambivalent regarding reaching the traditional goal of NT textual criticism Instead attention is now given towards hypothesizing regarding the emergence of the variant readings Furthermore any attempt towards utilizing text critical principles to reach the original text is looked upon as being out of date and pointless All such shifting definitions of the original text and the ensuing claims have far reaching consequences for biblical faith and praxis In this work three different scholars will present their methodologies for retrieving the original text of the NT No matter how each of the presenters evaluates the text critical evidence it is obvious that they all believe in the inerrancy and retrievability of the NT text
