Woman as Prophet in the Home and the World R. Mary Hayden Lemmons, 2016-09-15 This first ever interdisciplinary study of woman as prophet shows that in these troubling times ordinary women especially Christian women need to function as prophets by proclaiming in word and deed the indispensability of lovingly seeking the welfare of others More specifically social science shows that the person centered love prophesied by women prophets is able to meet interpersonal challenges within the home and world while philosophy and theology establish that women are able to excel as prophets due to the virtuous dispositions inculcated by femininity the choice to be caring a God centered spirituality and a pro life humanitarian personalist feminism that welcomes male collaborators Facilitating the ability of Christian women to prophesy love are Baptismal graces Thomistic virtues and a much needed prophetic Marian ecclesiology based on what John Paul II calls the prophetism of femininity These interdisciplinary findings provide an essential resource for educators and students of humanity the theology of women and evangelization These findings emerge first from an investigation into the cognitive and ontological underpinnings of what John Paul II called the feminine genius A second set of findings emerges from exploring the prophetic dimensions of the feminine genius secular feminism s need to adopt the insights of Christianity and the ability of femininity s prophetism to recast both femininity and feminism as Marian prophecies A third set of findings arises from analyzing the spirituality of women prophets within the Christian tradition by considering the conditions necessary for prophesying explicating requisite Thomistic virtues and delving into the spirituality of Hildegard Catherine of Siena Julian of Norwich and Teresa of Avila A fourth set of findings arises from innovative studies of polarization secularization lust romantic love the conditions whereby mothers with careers can flourish and the ability of nuns to combat racism in a small Midwestern town Overall these interdisciplinary investigations explicate the theology of women and show that women who prophesy love either in the order of grace or nature can help heal lives families and culture

Home and the World, 1857 Home and the World Judith Page Walker Rives, 1857 Home and the World Yuming He, 2020-10-26 China's sixteenth and seventeenth centuries saw an unprecedented explosion in the production and circulation of woodblock printed books What can surviving traces of that era's print culture reveal about the makers and consumers of these books Home and the World addresses this question by carefully examining a wide range of late Ming books considering them not merely as texts but as material objects and economic commodities designed produced and marketed to stand out in the distinctive book marketplace of the time and promising high enjoyment and usefulness to readers Although many of the mass market commercial imprints studied here might have struck scholars from the eighteenth century on as too trivial lowbrow or slipshod to merit serious study they prove to be an invaluable resource providing insight into their readers' orientations toward the increasingly complex global stage of early modernity and toward traditional Chinese conceptions of textual political and moral authority On a more intimate scale they tell us about readers' ideals of a fashionable and pleasurable private life Through studying these works we come closer to recapturing the trend conscious sophisticated and often subversive ways readers at this important moment in China's history imagined their world and their place within it 2015 Joseph Levenson Book Prize Pre 1900 Category China and Inner Asia Council of the Association for Asian Studies

Home and the World in Slovak Writing Katarina Gephardt, Charles Sabatos, Ivana Taranenková, 2025-03-04 Literatures of small nations represent a minuscule portion of the global literary marketplace where books written in English outnumber translated works The struggle for visibility in relation to dominant languages and cultures is not new in Slovakia a nation of five million whose literary history has been shaped by the influence of more widely spoken languages including Hungarian Czech and Russian Home and the World in Slovak Writing brings Slovak literature out of this isolation to tell the story of how a nation's literature can survive and thrive despite a small domestic audience and relatively limited circulation in English translation The book demonstrates how historic events such as the post Stalin Thaw the Prague Spring and the Velvet Revolution moulded the Slovak canon and situates contemporary Slovak literature in broader regional and global contexts Through case studies of the transformations and adaptations of Slovak literature contributors examine the changing social roles of writers the tensions between tradition and innovation and the dynamic interactions between influences from the outside world and domestic sources of inspiration Home and the World in Slovak Writing maps the relationship between geopolitical destiny and literary production at a critical moment As relations between the East and the West are destabilized by war the question of cultural identity has again become a matter of national survival in Central Europe Wired to the World, Chained to the Home Penny Gurstein,2001 How does working at home change people s activity patterns social networks and their living and working spaces How will it change the way we plan houses and communities in the future Here Gurstein combines a background in planning sociology of work and feminist theory with quantitative data from ten years of original research including in depth interviews and surveys to understand the socio spatial impact of home based work on daily life patterns At Home in the World Maria DiBattista,Deborah Epstein Nord,2017-02-06 A bold new literary history that says women s writing is defined less by domestic concerns than by an engagement with public life In a bold and sweeping reevaluation of the past two centuries of women s writing At Home in the World argues that this body of work has been defined less by domestic concerns than by an active engagement with the most pressing issues of public life from class and religious divisions slavery warfare and labor unrest to democracy tyranny globalism and the clash of cultures In this new literary history Maria DiBattista and Deborah Epstein Nord contend that even the most seemingly traditional works by British American and other English language women writers redefine the domestic sphere in ways that incorporate the concerns of public life allowing characters and authors alike to forge new emancipatory narratives The book explores works by a wide range of writers including canonical figures such as Jane Austen Charlotte Bront George Eliot Harriet Jacobs Edith Wharton Virginia Woolf Willa Cather Gertrude Stein and Toni Morrison neglected or marginalized writers like Mary Antin Tess Slesinger and Martha Gellhorn and recent and contemporary figures including Nadine Gordimer Anita Desai Edwidge Danticat and Jhumpa Lahiri DiBattista and Nord show how these writers dramatize tensions between home and the wider world through recurrent themes of sailing forth escape exploration dissent and emigration Throughout the book uncovers the undervalued public concerns of women writers who ventured into ever wider geographical cultural and political territories forging new definitions of what it means to create a home in the world The result is an enlightening reinterpretation of women s writing from the early nineteenth century to the present day The Home Its Work and Influence Charlotte Perkins Gilman,2024-12-21 Step into a groundbreaking analysis of domestic life with Charlotte Perkins Gilman s thought provoking work The Home Its Work and Influence This compelling book unveils the untold story of the home as not just a sanctuary but a powerful institution shaping society labor and gender roles Gilman s exploration challenges conventional thinking by questioning the traditional division of labor within the home and society She calls for a redefinition of what work means emphasizing how the home has historically been a battleground for gender equality and social change What if the home is not just a private space but a key player in the broader societal structure How can we transform the dynamics of family life to create a more just and equitable world As you journey through this influential work you ll gain a new perspective on how home life impacts both individual well being and societal progress Gilman s arguments invite readers to rethink their own roles within the home and the workplace urging a transformation that echoes in today s evolving family dynamics Are you ready to challenge your beliefs about the home and its role in shaping society Step into Charlotte Perkins Gilman s visionary world and see the home in a completely new light Take action now and dive into a critical examination of domestic life Purchase The Home Its Work and Influence today and discover how this timeless work can inspire change in the way we view family labor and society *Annual Report of the Secretary of the State Board of Agriculture of the State of Michigan and ...
