writers of his time An ardent believer in an educated public his efforts to implant the ideals of democracy in early America made him a legend on the frontier This selection of his work captures the essence of the man and his time and includes writing published in the United States Magazine Pittsburgh Gazette as well as his narrative on the Whiskey Rebellion Incidents of the Insurrection     For the Honor of the School Ralph Henry Barbour, 1900     The Honor of the Ken Laura W. Haywood, 1999-11-12 The Honor of the Ken is speculative fiction set several hundred years in the future on Kenakenkarney a planet colonized despite the presence of an indigenous race the Ken by a religious cult from Earth The Terrans promptly enslaved the Ken to mine a precious mineral Some two hundred years later the Ken were freed but most of them having no other opportunities remained miners Adanna Ming the daughter of a Ken father a miner and a Terran mother a teacher inherited her fathers copper colored skin pointed cats ears and other Ken attributes The only obvious sign of her Terran ancestry is blue eyes Through the intervention of a friend of her mothers she was the first Ken admitted to the prestigious Womens University There she met Marielle Adams a spoiled bored but very bright heiress To create an interest for herself Marielle takes Adanna under her wing She introduces her as her friend teaches her things Adanna has no way of knowing and learns a great deal in the process The two women became very close friends After graduation Marielle created opportunities for Adanna who used them to achieve success as a writer and briefly as an actress dancer In addition to writing Adanna ran a school for Ken children trying to teach them the two cultures of Kenakenkarney She also became a symbol to both the Ken and the Terrans in very different ways All her success cant save her however when the Terrans desperate for miners to work a new mineral find re enslave the Ken But Adanna isnt sent back to the mines instead she is bought by Ginja Shareef a woman she knew very slightly at the University Ginja is a gifted poet and Adanna admires her work very much What Adanna doesnt know has no way of knowing is that Ginja hates her She blames Adanna for a fundamental loss in her life and has bought her to exact justice As dedicated as Ginja is to justice Adanna is committed to the principles of freedom She refuses to give in to Ginjas demands accepting Ginjas abuse as the price of her principles In the course of this brutal struggle between the two women they come to know each other and a wary respect grows between them That respect however in no way lessens their fierce battle of wills Marielle meanwhile has formed an abolitionist group and is fighting slavery every way she knows A prime weapon in her arsenal is Adannas last novel a novel about slavery and freedom that expresses Adannas ideas powerfully After a series of Machiavellian exploits orchestrated by Marielle the slavery law is repealed but manumission will come only after a cooling off period Ginja has come to understand that she cannot break Adanna by force and seeks other ways to crack her will After failing to compel Adanna to use force something that violates Adannas pacifist principles she almost succeeds by telling Adanna exactly why she will do anything to defeat her The charge horrifies Adanna who has no way to defend herself against it She also threatens repeatedly to sell Adanna to Marielle a threat Adanna dismisses Adanna admits freely that being owned by Marielle would be for her worse than anything Ginja might do to her but she is absolutely certain Marielle would never betray her by buying her But Marielle knowing about Ginjas brutality and with the kindest of intentions does exactly that and Adanna finds herself having to fight someone she cares about deeply someone she doesnt want to hurt A second battle of wills ensues and it is a battle Adanna knows she cannot win It isnt until a misunderstanding between them escalates into a situation that goes completely out of control that Marielle begins to understand why Adanna is acting as she is Their struggle continues but the fr
