The House On The Borderland:

The House on the Borderland William Hope Hodgson, 2020-11-03 William Hope Hodgson's cosmic horror classic continues the Haunted Library of Horror Classics series. In a ruined house at the edge of an abyss lies the diary of a madman. Two friends on a fishing trip make an unsettling discovery when the river they've been following abruptly ends and reappears some 100 feet below the edge of an abyss. If that wasn't unnerving enough, the river runs along the remains of an oddly shaped house half swallowed by the pit. Within the ruins, they discover the moldering journal of an unidentified man, the Recluse, who had lived in the house years ago. Its pages reveal the man's apparent descent into madness: why else would he chronicle haunted visions, trips to other dimensions, and attacks by swine-like creatures that have followed him home? After a horrific vision in which he witnesses the end of the earth and time itself, the Recluse awakens in his study to find nothing has changed except that his dog has dissolved into a pile of dust. And then the swine things return. Introduced by modern horror master Ramsey Campbell as an enduring classic of cosmic terror, The House on the Borderland has inspired dozens of other classic horror novels and indelibly changed the genre. Influencing writers from H. P. Lovecraft to Terry Pratchett, this 1908 masterpiece shucks the conventions of Gothic horror and presents an eerie mix of sci-fi, fantasy, and the supernatural.

the hours in which I have pondered upon the story that is set forth in the following pages I trust that my instincts are not awry when they prompt me to leave the account in simplicity as it was handed to me And the MS itself You must picture me when first it was given into my care turning it over curiously and making a swift jerky examination A small book it is but thick and all save the last few pages filled with a quaint but legible handwriting and writ very close I have the queer faint pit water smell of it in my nostrils now as I write and my fingers have subconscious memories of the soft cloggy feel of the long damp pages I read and in reading lifted the Curtains of the Impossible that blind the mind and looked out into the unknown Amid stiff abrupt sentences I wandered and presently I had no fault to charge against their abrupt tellings for better far than my own ambitious phrasing is this mutilated story capable of bringing home all that the old Recluse of the vanished house had striven to tell
