The House With The Red Door The Morrisons:

The House with the Red Door Jennifer E. Ferguson, 2000-11-30 The wind is blowing rapidly and tosses away layers of soil causing several little buried skeletons to appear She is surrounded by these little hands that desperately try to reach out to her She is drowning and cannot survive the heavy rain that continuously falls and the heavy winds blowing away her rosebush garden The wind howls even louder and these tiny hands continue reaching out to her crying and crying tormenting her mind In this chilling thriller a small family that dwelled for generations in an exclusive mansion will be transformed into nothing but shame and disgrace And a doctrinal mother and an honest hardworking nanny will turn what used to be a private home sweet home into a whorehouse and a destructive burial ground The filth that is buried behind the walls of this once used to be mansion is as dark as midnight And no one wants to go near THE HOUSE WITH THE RED DOOR The Problems of ethnic female Adolescents as portrayed in Toni Morrison's "The Bluest Eye", Maxine Hong Kingston's "The Woman Warrior", Sandra Cisneros' "The House on Mango Street" Anna Watorczyk, 2005-09-26 Inhaltsangabe Abstract African American Chinese American and Mexican American female adolescents are representatives of minority groups in the United States The three groups of ethnic girls were assigned derogative stereotypes by many Euro American writers who did not portray their characters authentically The modern female ethnic authors undertake the battle with stereotypes that are the main source of girls problems They attempt to convince the reader that the lives of young girls cannot be interpreted according to offending images imposed on them This thesis aims to draw attention to the problems encountered by female ethnic adolescents in Toni Morrison s The Bluest Eye 1970 Maxine Hong Kingston s The Woman Warrior 1976 Sandra Cisneros The House on Mango Street 1984 and to portray their survival or collapse in American society Each of the books presented in the present study is a masterpiece of great literary value Toni Morrison was awarded the Nobel Prize for literature in 1993 Sandra Cisneros was the winner of the 1985 Before Columbus American Book Award Maxine Kingston won the National Book Critics Award with The Woman Warrior which was designated as non fiction in 1976 All of these books contribute significantly to the study of ethnic female adolescents The books chosen for the purpose of this thesis portray girls in an adolescent period The adolescents presented in this study are aged between ten and twenty one and are socially economically and politically dependent on their parents or guardians To further complicate matters the experiences of girls of colour are more complex than those encountered by white adolescents As the typical conflicts within the family problems with gender sexual development education and friends are juxtaposed with issues of racism and very often a lower social status In the light of these facts it does not come as a surprise that many ethnic adolescent girls have problems finding their self The first section of the initial chapter of this thesis takes into consideration the stereotypical image of Euro American adolescent girl as it often serves as a contradiction of the popular images of ethnic girls Furthermore the chapter examines stereotypes of African American Chinese American and Mexican American adolescents Despite their variety the stereotypes are the cause of girls victimisation in society The five following chapters analyse the problems more often

Luminol Theory Laura E. Joyce, 2017-08-23 Representations of forensic procedures saturate popular culture in both fiction and true crime One of the most striking forensic tools used in these narratives is the chemical luminol so named because it glows an eerie greenish blue when it comes into contact with the tiniest drops of human blood Luminol is a deeply ambivalent object it is both a tool of the police historically abused and misappropriated and yet it offers hope to families of victims by allowing hidden crimes to surface Forensic enquiry can exonerate those falsely accused of crimes and yet the rise of forensic science is synonymous with the development of the deeply racist science of eugenics Luminol Theory investigates the possibility of using a tool of the state in subversive or radical ways By introducing luminol as an agent of forensic inquiry Luminol Theory approaches the exploratory stages that a crime scene investigation might take exploring experimental literature as though these texts were crime scenes in order to discover what this deeply strange object can tell us about crime death and history to make visible violent crimes and to offer a tangible encounter with death and finitude At the luminol drenched crime scene flashes of illumination throw up words sentences and fragments that offer luminous strange glimpses bobbing up from below their polished surfaces When luminol shines its light it reveals it is magical it is prescient and it has a nasty allure

Toni Morrison's Fiction David L. Middleton, 2016-01-28 This collection of contemporary criticism explores her concern with racial and gender issues and analyzes her in relation to other major modern authors her philosophical and religious speculations and her preoccupation with the process of fiction making These classics provide a broad look at critical argument about Toni Morrison's meanings and significance during the past 10 years From the formative effects of learning one's Otherness as a result of majority perception to the apocalyptic implications of racial memory to the moral and psychologically constructive act of storytelling to the structural function served by improvisational jazz music to the imagery associated with both flight and naming to the uniquely female experience of community major issues raised by Morrison's body of work are explicated here

Contemporary Women's Fiction Subashish Bhattacharjee, Dipak Barman, 2016-04-13 Women's writing in the twentieth century has shown a dramatic shift in its preoccupations and intentions. Rather than occupying itself with the trivialities of the social and domestic spheres, the writing by women in the latter half of the twentieth century and approaching the twenty-first century inheres concerns such as political, historical questions of gender equity and rights, interrogations of normative and patriarchal practices, and other such issues that have not been adequately addressed in women's writing thus far. The four essays in the present volume are certainly not exhaustive or adequate in this regard, that of addressing this lacuna in literary scholarship, but it may be viewed as an attempt to bridge the proverbial gap. As a precursor to further scholarly works in the area already existing, as well as forthcoming, the essays discuss the works of Toni Morrison, Margaret Atwood, Bapsi Sidhwa, Manju Kapur, and Sunanda Sikdar. Although the essays purport to explore select areas of the authors' oeuvre, the distinctive fictional structures of the authors help us to explore wider theoretical and critical issues such as postmodernity, postcolonialism, feminism, globalism, nationalism, and other related issues.

Toni Morrison Carmen Gillespie, 2012-11-30 Toni Morrison, the only living American Nobel laureate in literature, published her first novel in 1970. In the ensuing forty-plus years, Morrison's work has become synonymous with the most significant literary art and intellectual engagements of our time. The publication of Home in May 2012, as well as her 2011 play Desdemona, affirm the range and acuity of Morrison's imagination. Toni Morrison: Forty Years in The Clearing enables audiences, readers, critics, and students to review Morrison's cultural and literary impacts and to consider the import and influence of her legacies in her multiple roles as writer, editor, publisher, reader, scholar, artist, and teacher over the last four decades. Some of the highlights of the collection include contributions from many of the major scholars of Morrison's canon, as well as art pieces, music, photographs, and commentary from poets Nikki Giovanni and Sonia Sanchez, novelist A. J. Verdelle, playwright Lydia Diamond, composer Richard Danielpour, photographer Timothy Greenfield Sanders, the first published interview with Morrison's friends from Howard University, Florence Ladd and Mary Wilburn, and commentary from President Barack Obama. What distinguishes this book from the many other publications that engage Morrison's work is that the collection is not exclusively a work of critical interpretation or reference. This is the first publication to contextualize and to consider the interdisciplinary artistic and intellectual impacts of Toni Morrison, using the formal fluidity and dynamism that characterize her work. This book adopts Morrison's metaphor, as articulated in her Pulitzer Prize-winning novel Beloved. The narrative describes the clearing as a wide open place cut deep in the woods, nobody knew for what. In the heat of every Saturday afternoon, she sat in the clearing while the people waited among the trees. Morrison's Clearing is a complicated and dynamic space. Like the intricacies of Morrison's intellectual and artistic voyages, the Clearing is both verdant and deadly, a sanctuary and a prison. Morrison's vision invites consideration of these complexities and confronts these most basic human conundrums with courage, resolve, and grace. This collection attempts to reproduce the character and spirit of this metaphorical terrain      The Aesthetics of Toni Morrison Connor, Marc C.,2010-01-06 Nobel laureate Toni Morrison s novels have almost exclusively been examined as sagas illuminating history race culture and gender politics This gathering of eight essays by top scholars probes Morrison s novels and her growing body of nonfiction and critical work for the complex and potent aesthetic elements that have made her a major American novelist of the twentieth century Through traditional aesthetic concepts such as the sublime the beautiful and the grotesque through issues of form narrative and language and through questions of affect and reader response the nine essays in this volume bring into relief the dynamic and often overlooked range within Morrison s writing Employing aesthetic ideas that range from the ancient Greeks to contemporary research in the black English oral tradition The Aesthetics of Toni Morrison shows the potency of these ideas for interpreting Morrison s writing This is a force Morrison herself has often suggested in her claims that Greek tragedy bears a striking similarity to Afro American communal structures At the same time each essay attends to the ways in which Morrison also challenges traditional aesthetic concepts establishing the African American and female voices that are essential to her sensibility The result is a series of readings that simultaneously expands our understanding of Morrison s work and also provokes new thinking about an aesthetic tradition that is nearly 2 500 years old These essays offer a rich complement to the dominant approaches in Morrison scholarship by revealing aspects of her work that purely ideological approaches have obscured or about which they have remained oddly silent Each essay focuses particularly on the relations between the aesthetic and the ethical in Morrison s writing and between the artistic production and its role in the world at large These relations show the rich political implications that aesthetic analysis engenders By treating both Morrison s fiction and her nonfiction the essays reveal a mind and imagination that have long been intimately engaged with the questions and traditions of the aesthetic domain The result is a provocative and original contribution to Morrison scholarship and to scholarship in American letters generally      The Novels of Toni Morrison Patrick Bryce Bjork,1992 This study focuses on the cultural and communal traditions embedded in the five novels written by Toni Morrison It explores how these traditions influence the search for self and place within a given African American community Thoroughly researched the book examines historical and ideological aspects of African American literature while offering in depth critical analysis of each Morrison novel The book ultimately demonstrates that within each novel Morrison reconstructs African American values traditions and beliefs in order to show the importance of community to the development and or dissolution of self and place      Delphi Complete Works of Arthur Morrison (Illustrated) Arthur Morrison,2016-03-14 Arthur Morrison wrote pioneering realistic narratives about working class life in London s East End He is also celebrated for his exciting mystery stories featuring the detective Martin Hewitt who served as a natural successor to Sherlock Holmes This comprehensive eBook presents Morrison s complete fictional works with numerous illustrations rare texts appearing in digital print for the first time and detailed introductions Version 1 Beautifully illustrated with images relating to Morrison s
