Elizabeth Daly

The House Without The Door:

The House without the Door Elizabeth Daly, 2012-12-15 From Agatha Christie's favorite American author an amateur sleuth helps a Manhattan widow who fears her husband's killer is stalking her. Acquitted of murdering her wealthy husband Mrs. Vina Gregson remains essentially a prisoner trapped in her elegant New York apartment with occasional furtive forays to her Connecticut estate. A jury may have found her innocent but Mrs. Gregson remains a murderess in the eyes of the public and of the tabloid journalists who hound her every step. She has recently begun receiving increasingly menacing letters written she is certain by the person who killed her husband. Taking the matter to the police would heighten her notoriety so she calls on antiquarian bookseller and handwriting expert Henry Gamadge, the gentleman sleuth who is known for both his discretion and his ability to solve problems that baffle the police. Henry Gamadge is one of the most civilized detectives in fiction you'll have a hard time finding better reading. New York Times The House Without the Door Elizabeth Daly, 1970

The death of Curtis Gregson had left his wife very rich. Mrs. Gregson wants Henry Gamadge, known for his ability as a detective, to clear her name even though a jury had acquitted her. She also wants him to keep her alive. The House Without the Door Elizabeth Daly, 1945 The House Without Windows Barbara Newhall Follett, 2019-10-03 Escape into the wild from the comfort of your own home this winter with a dazzling lost classic of nature writing. Eepersip is a girl with the wild in her heart. She does not want to live locked up behind the walls of a house. So she runs away first to the Meadow then to the Sea and finally to the Mountain. Her heartbroken parents follow their daughter trying to bring her home safe but Eepersip has other ideas. Republished by Penguin with a new introduction and hand inked illustrations by beloved artist Jackie Morris. The House Without Windows is a timeless fable about wildness, freedom, and the redemptive power of the natural world. I can safely promise joy to any reader of The House Without Windows. Perfection. Eleanor Farjeon, winner of the Carnegie Medal and The Hans Christian Andersen Award. Gloriously illuminated by Jackie Morris's moving art, this is a work of strange power for our own bewildered times. Nick Drake. A classic as miraculous and awe inspiring as the author. The Role of Revelation in the World's Religions Beverly Moon, 2014-01-10 The human reception of divine messages known as revelation has often played a central role in world religions. This study explores how spirituality and the personal experience of the divine has been expressed and preserved in various religious traditions. The phenomenon of revelation is explored and interpreted through examples from across the religious spectrum and six different types of revelation are posited: visions and voices, divination, spirit journey, spirit mediation, mystical union, and divine incarnation.
