Selected Poems Rabindranath Tagore, 2005-03-31 The poems of Rabindranath Tagore 1861-1941 are among the most haunting and tender in Indian and in world literature expressing a profound and passionate human yearning His ceaselessly inventive works deal with such subjects as the interplay between God and the world the eternal and transient and with the paradox of an endlessly changing universe that is in tune with unchanging harmonies Poems such as Earth and In the Eyes of a Peacock present a picture of natural processes unaffected by human concerns while others as in Recovery 14 convey the poet's bewilderment about his place in the world And exuberant works such as New Rain and Grandfather's Holiday describe Tagore's sheer joy at the glories of nature or simply in watching a grandchild play

Selected Short Stories Rabindranath Tagore, 2005-09-01 Poet novelist painter and musician Rabindranath Tagore 1861-1941 is the grand master of Bengali culture Written during the 1890s the stories in this selection brilliantly recreate vivid images of Bengali life and landscapes in their depiction of peasantry and gentry casteism corrupt officialdom and dehumanizing poverty Yet Tagore is first and foremost India's supreme Romantic poet and in these stories he can be seen reaching beyond mere documentary realism towards his own profoundly original vision

Of Women, Outcastes, Peasants, and Rebels Kalpana Bardhan, 1990-03-13 Until now the large body of socially focused Bengali literature has remained little known to Western readers This collection includes some of the finest examples of Bengali short stories stories that reflect the turmoil of a changing society traditionally characterized by rigid hierarchical structures of privilege and class differentiation Written over a span of roughly ninety years from the early 1890s to the late 1970s the twenty stories in this collection represent the work of five authors Their characters drawn from widely varying social groups often find themselves caught up in tumultuous political and social upheaval The reader encounters Rabindranath Tagore's extraordinarily spirited and bold heroines Manik Bandyopadhyay's peasants laborers fisherfolk and outcastes and Tarashankar Bandyopadhyay's rural underclass of snake charmers corpse handlers stick wielders potters witches and Vaishnava minstrels Mahasweta Devi gives voice to the semi-landless tribals and untouchables effectively denied the rights guaranteed them by the Constitution Hasan Azizul Huq depicts the plight of the impoverished of Bangladesh
