The Heritage Theatre Marlite Halbertsma, 2011-05-25 The Heritage Theatre is a book about cultural heritage and globalisation Cultural heritage is the stage on which the global community smaller communities and individuals play out their similarities and differences their identities and singularities Cultural heritage forms an implicit cultural code governing the relationship between parts and the whole individuals and communities communities and outsiders as well as the relationship between communities and the world as a whole Cultural heritage by way of its producers its products and its audience presents an image of the world and its inner coherence The subjects in this book range from places as distant from each other as Dar es Salaam Jakarta Amsterdam Le Creusot Trinidad Brazzaville Bremerhaven New York and Prague and deal with themes such as wayang Kylie Minogue airports and heritage modernist architecture in Africa and the impact of DNA research on the concept of roots The volume is based on papers presented at a conference organised by the Erasmus School of History Culture and Communication of Erasmus University Rotterdam The authors have backgrounds in cultural studies art history anthropology museum studies sociology tourist studies and history

The Heritage Turn in China Carol Ludwig, Linda Walton, Yi-Wen Wang, 2025-10-01 The Heritage Turn in China The Reinvention Dissemination and Consumption of Heritage focuses on heritage discourse and practice in China today as it has evolved from the heritage turn that can be dated to the 1990s Using a variety of disciplinary approaches to regionally and topically diverse case studies the contributors to this edited volume show how particular versions of the past are selected re-invented disseminated and consumed for contemporary purposes These studies explore how the Chinese state utilises heritage not only for tourism entertainment educational and commercial purposes but also as part of broader political strategies on both the national and international stage Together they argue that the Chinese state deploys modes of heritage governance to construct new modernities while strengthening collective national identity in support of both its political legitimacy and its claim to status as an international superpower The authors also consider ways in which state management of heritage is contested by some stakeholders whose embrace of heritage has a different purpose and meaning

The Heritage of War Martin Gegner, Bart Ziino, 2011-08-16 The Heritage of War is an interdisciplinary study of the ways in which heritage is mobilized in remembering war and in reconstructing landscapes political systems and identities after conflict It examines the deeply contested nature of war

heritage in a series of places and contexts highlighting the modes by which governments communities and individuals claim validity for their own experiences of war and the meanings they attach to them From colonizing violence in South America to the United States Civil War the Second World War on three continents genocide in Rwanda and continuing divisions in Europe and the Middle East these studies bring us closer to the very processes of heritage production The Heritage of War uncovers the histories of heritage it charts the constant social and political construction of heritage sites over time by a series of different agents and explores the continuous reworking of meaning into the present What are the forces of contingency agency and political power that produce define and sustain the heritage of war How do particular versions of the past and particular identities gain legitimacy while others are marginalised In this book contributors explore the active work by which heritage is produced and reproduced in a series of case studies of memorialization battlefield preservation tourism development private remembering and urban reconstruction These are the acts of making sense of war they are acts that continue long after violent conflict itself has ended The Heritage of Hermes Alexandra Lember, Alexandra

Lember-Heidenreich, 2004 The Heritage Crusade and the Spoils of History David Lowenthal, 1998-05-13 Heritage has burgeoned over the past quarter of a century from a small lite preoccupation into a major popular crusade Everything from Disneyland to the Holocaust Museum from the Balkan wars to the Northern Irish Troubles from Elvis memorabilia to the Elgin Marbles bears the marks of the cult of heritage In this acclaimed book David Lowenthal explains the rise of this new obsession with the past and examines its power for both good and evil Timely and provocative brilliant and stimulating pyrotechnic everything from the Pilgrim Fathers to the Inuits from Homer s Greece to the rainforests of Brazil Roy Strong The Sunday Times entertaining and enthralling Ben Pimlott The Guardian Heritage Film Audiences Claire

Monk, 2012-09-07 This book is a study of the contemporary audiences for quality period films and their responses to these films with reference to the critical debate which constructs many of these films as heritage films The Heritage of Traditional Malay Literature V.I. Braginsky, 2022-06-20 Traditional literature or the deed of the reed pen as it was called by its creators is not only the most valuable part of the cultural heritage of the Malay people but also a shared legacy of Malaysia Indonesia Singapore and Brunei Malay culture during its heyday saw the entire Universe as a piece of literature written by the Creator with the Sublime Pen on the Guarded Tablet Literature was not just the creation of a scribe but a scribe himself imprinting words on the sheet of memory and thus shaping human personality This book the first comprehensive survey of traditional Malay literature in English since 1939 embraces more than a millennium of Malay letters from the vague data of the seventh century up to the early beginnings of the modern literatures in the late nineteenth century The long path trodden by traditional Malay literature is viewed in historical and theoretical perspectives as a development of integral system caused by cultural and religious changes primarily by gradual Islamization This changing system considered in the entirety of its genres and works is seen both externally and internally from the point of view of modern scholarship and through the examination of indigenous concepts of literary creativity poetics and aesthetics The book not only represents an original study based on a specific historico theoretical approach but it is also a complete reference work and an indispensable manual for students Wall Memorials and Heritage Sybille Frank, 2016-06-17

Analysing the transformation of Berlin's former Allied border control point Checkpoint Charlie into a global heritage industry this volume provides an introduction to and a theoretically informed structuring of the interdisciplinary international heritage debate This crucial case study demonstrates that an unregulated global heritage industry has developed in Berlin which capitalizes on the internationally very attractive but locally still very painful heritage of the Berlin Wall Frank explores the conflicts that occur when private commercial interests in interpreting and selling history to an international audience clash with traditional institutionalized public forms of local and national heritage making and commemorative practices and with the victims' perspectives Wall Memorials and Heritage illustrates existing approaches to heritage research and develops them in dialogue with Berlin's traditions of conveying history and the specific configuration of the heritage industry at Checkpoint Charlie Productively integrating theory with empirical evidence this innovative book enriches the international literature on heritage and its economic and political contexts The Heritage of Soviet Oriental Studies Michael Kemper, Stephan Conermann, 2011-02

The Western field of oriental studies and orientalism criticised by Edward Said among others for encouraging the orient to be viewed in a particular way has a counterpart in Russia and the Soviet Union This book examines this Russian Soviet intellectual tradition of oriental scholarship covering Islamic history and Muslim literatures of the USSR republics of Central Asia and the Caucasus Angkor Wat - A Transcultural History of Heritage Michael Falser, 2019-12-16

This book unravels the formation of the modern concept of cultural heritage by charting its colonial postcolonial nationalist and global trajectories By bringing to light many unresearched dimensions of the twelfth century Cambodian temple of Angkor Wat during its modern history the study argues for a conceptual connected history that unfolded within the transcultural interstices of European and Asian projects With more than 1 400 black and white and colour illustrations of historic photographs architectural plans and samples of public media the monograph discusses the multiple lives of Angkor Wat over a 150 year long period from the 1860s to the 2010s Volume 1 Angkor in France reconceptualises the Orientalist French colonial discovery of the temple in the nineteenth century and brings to light the manifold strategies at play in its physical representations as plaster cast substitutes in museums and as hybrid pavilions in universal and colonial exhibitions in Marseille and Paris from 1867 to 1937 Volume 2 Angkor in Cambodia covers for the first time in this depth the various on site restoration efforts inside the Archaeological Park of Angkor from 1907 until 1970 and the temple's gradual canonisation as a symbol of national identity during Cambodia's troublesome decolonisation 1953-89 from independence to Khmer Rouge terror and Vietnamese occupation and finally as a global icon of UNESCO World Heritage since 1992 until today

Congratulations to our author Michael Falser who received the prestigious 2021 ICAS Book Prize in the Ground Breaking

Subject Matter category The Heritage Arena Cristina Grasseni, 2016-10-01 In Europe a number of production and communication strategies have long tried to establish local products as resources for local development At the foot of the Alps this scenario appears in all its contradictions especially in relation to cheese production The Heritage Arena focuses on the saga of Strachitunt a cheese that has been designated an EU Protected Designation of Origin after years of negotiation and competition involving cheese makers merchants and Slow Food activists The book explores how the reinvention of cheese as a form of heritage is an ongoing and dynamic process rife with conflict and drama Global Heritage Lynn Meskell, 2015-06-22 Examines the social cultural and ethical dimensions of heritage research and practice and the underlying international politics of protecting cultural and natural resources around the globe Focuses on ethnographic and embedded perspectives as well as a commitment to ethical engagement Appeals to a broad audience from archaeologists to heritage professionals museum curators to the general public The contributors comprise an outstanding team representing some of the most prominent scholars in this broad field with a combination of senior and emerging scholars and an emphasis on international contributions Cultural Heritage Management in Africa George Okello Abungu, Webber Ndoro, 2022-12-15 Cultural Heritage Management in Africa explores the diversity of Africa's cultural heritage by analysing how and why this heritage has been managed and by considering the factors that continue to influence management strategies and systems throughout the African continent Including contributions from prominent scholars and heritage professionals working across Africa the volume presents critical contemporary perspectives on the state of heritage in the area Chapters analyse the practices that emanated from different colonial experiences and consider what impact these had and continue to have on the management of African heritage It also critically examines the ideological influence of independence movements on the African continent's management and remembering of heritage and considers whether there are any differences in heritage management between countries that experienced armed conflicts and those that did not The volume will be the first to critically assess the state of heritage management now at a time when vital conversations about the balance between heritage and development is ongoing and the actions of new players have begun to impact the management and practice of heritage in the region Cultural Heritage Management in Africa will be essential reading for those engaged in the study of museums and heritage development archaeology anthropology history and African studies It will also be of interest to heritage and museum professionals who wish to learn more about the decolonisation of heritage Many Voices, One Vision: The Early Years of the World Heritage Convention Christina Cameron, Mechthild Rössler, 2016-05-13 In 1972 UNESCO put in place the World Heritage Convention a highly successful international treaty that influences heritage activity in virtually every country in the world Focusing on the Convention's creation and early implementation this book examines the World Heritage system and its global impact through diverse prisms including its normative frameworks constituent bodies programme activities personalities and key issues The authors concentrate on the period between 1972 and 2000 because implementation of the World Heritage Convention during these years sets the stage for future activity and provides a foil for understanding the subsequent evolution in the decade that follows This innovative book project seeks out the voices of the pioneers some 40 key players who participated in the creation and early implementation of the Convention and combines these insightful interviews with original research drawn from a broad range of both published and archival sources The World Heritage Convention has been significantly influenced by 40 years of history Although the text of the Convention remains unchanged the way it has been implemented reflects global trends as well as evolving perceptions of the nature of heritage itself and approaches to conservation Some are sounding the alarm claiming that the system is imploding under its own weight Others believe that the Convention is being compromised by geopolitical considerations and rivalries This book stimulates reflection on the meaning of the Convention in the twenty first century Narrating the Heritage of Psychiatry ,2024-10-14 This volume highlights the importance of diverse voices and perspectives in understanding the history and heritage of psychiatry Exploring the complex interrelations between psychiatry heritage and power Narrating the Heritage of Psychiatry complicates the pervasive biomedical narrative of progress in which the history of psychiatry is usually framed By examining multiple perspectives including those of users survivors of mental health services the collection sheds light on neglected narratives and aims to broaden our understanding of psychiatric history and current practices In doing so it also considers the role of art activism and community narratives in reimagining and recontextualizing psychiatric heritage This volume brings into conversation perspectives from practitioners patients users and scholars from the humanities and social sciences Conservation of Architectural Heritage Dean Hawkes,Hocine Bougdah,Federica Rosso,Nicola Cavalagli,Mahmoud Yousef M. Ghoneem,Chaham Alalouch,Nabil Mohareb,2019-07-26 History is one of the main aspects that shapes a country s culture and leaves its traces on the built environment in the form of an architectural heritage Such a heritage records the existence of humans their past endeavours and in doing so preserves their cultures and traditions for future generations and contributes to the formation of their identities by acting as an inspiration for their architectural achievements From this perspective conservation of architectural heritage becomes important to both current and future architectural endeavours This book discusses several topics of great importance and relevance to the conservation of worldwide architectural heritage From historic cities and cultural landscapes to some of the largest archaeological sites in the world conserving such a legacy is a challenging task that requires commitment effort and international cooperation that this book proves possible The book has an abundance of information that undoubtedly covers major areas in the field of architecture heritage It discusses the challenges faced in the field and demonstrates the importance of such an undertaking to individuals communities and cities identity all over the world It also highlights the role of individuals and organizations in the precise and complex process of conserving architectural heritage Repatriation of Sacred Indigenous Cultural Heritage and the Law Vanessa Tünsmeier,2022-01-25 This book examines the ways in which law can be used to structure the return of indigenous sacred cultural heritage to indigenous communities referred to as repatriation in this volume In particular it aims at developing legal structures that align repatriation with contemporary international human rights standards To do so it gathers the most valuable lessons learned from different repatriation laws and frameworks adopted in the United States and Canada In both countries very different ways of approaching repatriation have been used for several decades highlighting the context dependent nature of repatriation The volume is divided into four parts looking first at international law then at the national legal landscape in the United States followed by Canada before the different repatriation models are evaluated against the backdrop of human rights law standards Emphasis is placed not only on repatriation specific legislation but also on the legal context in which it was developed and operates In turn the fourth part develops various models on the basis of these experiences that can be aligned with contemporary indigenous and cultural rights The book ends by considering the models suitability for international repatriation and the lessons that can be learned from them The primary audience includes those addressing the legal hurdles to repatriation be they researchers policymakers communities or museums

Archaeology and Heritage Management Usman Ali, 2021-01-10 This volume reconsiders the World Heritage Guidelines to manage cultural and natural heritage sites effectively The study approaches this in two ways The first is by evaluating and analyzing the fundamental theories and practice of heritage with comparison to World Heritage prescribed parameters for effective management particularly authenticity and the second is about to rereview the international legislation in the context of authenticity of heritage practice as a part of understanding and developing new parameters for conservation preservation and management Usman Ali is an associated researcher at University of Amsterdam The Netherlands
