Centrat en les obres de Kate Chopin Elizabeth Madox Roberts Zora Neale Hurston Lillian Smith Eudora Welty Alice Walker Llegix Smith Jill McCorkle i Bobbie Ann Mason aquest llibre analitza el retrat ambivalent de l'espai domèstic descrit per les escriptores del sud Les qüestions més profundes de gènere raça i classe en una societat tradicional com la del sud americà es manifesten precisament dins l'esfera domèstica on l'espai sovint un mitjà crucial de dominació Les escriptores contemporànies del sud sovint han utilitzat la transformació de la llar i els seus significats com una nova font per a la ficció Han estat explorant formes noves i antigues d'imaginar el que podria ser una llar i la seva narrativa diu molt de la manera en la qual el treball els llocs i la família contribueixen a la creació d'un altre en el sud contemporani The Homeplace Janet Dailey, 1988

The Fish Factory Barbara J. Garrity-Blake, Barbara Jean Garrity, 2005 Focusing on the menhaden fishermen of the southern coastal regions The Fish Factory is an engaging and insightful exploration of what work means to different social groups employed within the same industry Since the nineteenth century the menhaden industry in the South has been traditionally split between black crews and white captains Using life histories historical research and anthropological fieldwork in Reedville Virginia and Beaufort North Carolina Barbara Garrity Blake examines the relationship between these two groups and how the members of each have defined themselves in terms of their work The author finds that for the captains and other white officers of the menhaden vessels men born and bred for a life on the water work is a key source of identity Black crewmen however have insisted on a separation between work and self they view their work primarily as a means of support rather than an end in itself In probing the implications of this contrast Garrity Blake describes captain crew relations within both an occupational context and the context of race relations in the South She shows how those at the bottom of the shipboard hierarchy have exercised a measure of influence in a relationship at once asymmetrical and mutually dependent She also explores how each group has reacted to the advent of technology in their industry and most recently to the challenges posed by those proclaiming a conservationist ethic Appalachia ,1981 Foxfire 11 Foxfire Fund, Inc.,1999-12-01 First published in 1972 The Foxfire Book was a surprise bestseller that brought Appalachia's philosophy of simple living to hundreds of thousands of readers Whether you wanted to hunt game bake the old fashioned way or learn the art of successful moonshining The Foxfire Museum and Heritage Center had a contact who could teach you how with clear step by step instructions This eleventh volume celebrates the rituals and recipes of the Appalachian homeplace including a one hundred page section on herbal remedies and segments about planting and growing a garden preserving and pickling smoking and salting honey making beekeeping and fishing as well as hundreds of the kind of spirited firsthand narrative accounts from Appalachian community members that exemplify the Foxfire style Much more than how to books the Foxfire series is a publishing phenomenon and a way of life teaching creative self sufficiency the art of natural remedies home crafts and other country folkways fascinating to everyone interested in rediscovering the virtues of simple life All Y'all Heidi Siegrist,2024-11-12 The South is often perceived as a haunted place in its region's literature one that is strange deviant or queer The peculiar often sexually charged literary worlds of contemporary writers like Fannie Flagg Monique Truong and Randall Kenan speak to this connection between queerness and the South Heidi Siegrist explores the boundaries of negotiating place and sexuality by using the concept of Southernness a purposefully fluid idea of the South that extends beyond simple geography eschewing familiar ideas of the Southern canon When the connection between queerness and Southernness becomes apparent Siegrist shows a Southern branded queer deviance can not only change the way we think about literature but can also change Southern queer people's lived experiences Siegrist gathers a bevy of undertheorized writers from Kenan and Truong to Dorothy Allison and even George R R Martin showing that there are many queer Souths Siegrist offers these multiverses as a way to appreciate a place that is often unfriendly even deadly to queer people But as Siegrist argues none of these Souths from the terrestrial to the imaginary would be what they are without the influence and power of queer literature Mothers on the Move Pamela Feldman-Savelsberg,2016-11-08 In Mothers on the Move anthropologist Pamela Feldman Savelsberg explores how Cameroonian women in Germany seek to establish their belonging through birthing and caring for children and what happens to their ties to places of origin and places of migration in the process The book is about the social actions and webs of relationships through which Cameroonian women manage the tension between mobility and belonging Marriage and reproduction have long involved movement for Bamileke and other Grassfields women Feldman Savelsberg argues that predicaments regarding reproduction reproductive insecurity and the perils of belonging motivate migration from rural to urban areas and from cities to transnational locales But each movement engenders new problems of belonging Women manage these challenges by building up relationships with others maintaining them through stop and start emotion laden exchanges and circulating stories regarding how to get along with families with migrant community organizations and with German state and social service actors stories that then crystallize into collectively held orientations and repertoires Rather than talking in generalizations about Cameroonian migrant mothers Feldman Savelsberg strives to introduce a variety of characters each with her unique history concerns and voice She also enlivens ideas about migration and networks by describing scenes for example a hometown association s year end party a celebration for a new baby and a visit to the Foreigner s Office that then place women s individual voices within significant social interactional contexts This work makes an important contribution to our strong lists on African migration to Europe African women s studies and related areas Intersections of Multiple Identities Miguel E.
