The Reproductive Body at Work Verena Namberger, 2019-04-11 The transnational industry surrounding assisted reproductive technology and regenerative medicine is based on the unacknowledged labour of gamete providers surrogates and research subjects and benefits from low labour costs in enabling sectors such as logistics and transport This finding calls for a comprehensive analysis of how the contemporary intersection of neoliberal capitalism and the life sciences in short the bioeconomy capitalises on the body and its re productive capacities The Reproductive Body at Work uptakes this challenge as it explores the relations between value production labour and the body in one particular realm of the global bioeconomy the South African bioeconomy of egg donation It highlights different forms and dimensions of unacknowledged or precarious human labour that are constitutive for the procurement brokering and circulation of oocytes as valuable resources The analysis illustrates that the respective organisation of value and labour renegotiate what the reproductive body can do which status and roles it is ascribed which cultural and economic values it signifies and how it is experienced and enacted within a matrix of intersectional power relations A theoretically profound contribution to the interdisciplinary debate on New materialism The Reproductive Body at Work will appeal to students and researchers interested in fields such as gender studies medical anthropology cultural studies sociology political economy and science and technology studies     Seeing Through Closed Eyelids Elizabeth Mangini,2021 Presentness and Trace An Artist Turned Inside Out Radical Reciprocity Passive Sculptor Active Material Tempus Arborus Tree Time     Come Along Jacinta Respondowska,2009 Come Along is an attempt to respond to the contemporary crises in the world with the intention of discovering the path to peace and happiness which every human heart craves Since they are seen as a consequence of being true to our human nature answers to the perennial questions of philosophy are of paramount importance And since the latter are rooted in and stem from the heart of reality which from time immemorial has received irreconcilable interpretations inquiry into reality is the major undertaking of this volume Jacinta Respondowska s study terminates in a system of thought By discovering the truth of reality as well as the answers to the perennial questions regarding one s life on the one hand and the reasons for the crises in our time on the other those who struggle thus find the path that leads to genuine happiness Jacket
