Cultures and Civilizations Struan Reid, 1994 The history of humankind, its cultures and civilizations is inextricably linked with the development of trade. Cities grew up around the markets it took place in and empires were built on the wealth it created. Across Asia the paths of the Silk and Spice Routes brought together the many different peoples of these empires and cities. When meeting to trade they not only exchanged precious goods but also the ideas and beliefs that shaped each of their cultures, ideas expressed in their lifestyles, their arts, and even in the goods they had to sell. By these means cultures slowly changed, amalgamated, and developed. Splendidly illustrated with dozens of historic visuals, Cultures and Civilizations explores the interrelations of trade and cultures as they developed along the Silk and Spice Routes.
