Spike Island Portrait Of A British Police Division:

Spike Island James McClure, 1986 The police personnel of a tensionridden Liverpool precinct house tell their own story and describe inner city deterioration European style in this social and psychological documentary

Spike Island James MacClure, 1980

The Caterpillar Cop James McClure, 2010-08-01 When a twelve year old boy is found strangled to death with multiple stab wounds his killer is assumed to be a pedophile Lieutenant Tromp Kramer and his sidekick Bantu Detective Sergeant Mickey Zondi begin to investigate and soon learn that the boy had been involved in a detective club that encouraged children to spy and snitch on people and no one likes a snitch Whom was Boetie spying on As the two men look into possible leads on the case they must also navigate increasing tensions surrounding racism in the 70s in South Africa and Kramer finds himself on the receiving end of much of the hatred himself

Police for the Future David H. Bayley, 1996-03-07 Police do not and cannot prevent crime This alarming thesis is explored by David Bayley one of the most prolific and internationally renowned authorities on criminal justice and policing in Police for the Future Providing a systematic assessment of the performance of the police institution as a whole in preventing crime the study is based on exhaustive research interviews and first hand observation in five countries Australia Canada Great Britain Japan and the United States It analyzes what police are accomplishing in modern democratic societies and asks whether police organizations are using their resources effectively to prevent crime Bayley assesses the impediments to effective crime prevention describes the most promising reforms currently being tested by the police and analyzes the choices that modern societies have with respect to creating truly effective police forces He concludes with a blueprint for the creation of police forces that can live up to their promise to reduce crime and enhance public safety Written for both the general public and the specialist in criminal justice Police for the Future offers a unique multinational perspective on one of society's most basic institutions

The Steam Pig James McClure, 2010-07-01 In the debut mystery featuring Lieutenant Kramer and Detective Sergeant Mickey Zondi set in South Africa a beautiful blonde has been killed by a bicycle spoke to the heart Bantu gangster style Why

Liverpool: A Memoir of Words Tony Crowley, 2023-09-15 Included in the TLS Books of the Year 2023 Written by an author brought up in working class Liverpool in the 1960s and 1970s Liverpool A Memoir of Words is a work of creative non fiction that combines the study of language in Liverpool with social history the history of the English language and personal memoir A beautifully written book based on a lifetime's academic research it explores the relationship between language and memory and demonstrates the ways in which words are enmeshed in history and history in words Starting with Ace and weaving its way alphabetically to Z Cars the work illustrates the deep relationship that has been forged in the past two hundred years or so between a form of language a place and a social identity The account is funny sad full of surprises and always illuminating It tells the real history of Scouse details the multicultural complexity of Liverpool English examines the common use of plazzymorphs and shows how Liverpudlian words exemplify standard processes of change and development Neither a memoir dictionary or history book this work crosses different fields of knowledge in order to weave an engaging and fascinating story It is a book that will educate and delight Liverpoolians students of language and social historians alike

Scarman and After John Benyon,2014-05-17 Scarman and After Essays Reflecting on Lord Scarman's Report the Riots and their Aftermath covers the proceedings of a conference on Lord Scarman's social and economic issues held at the University of Leicester in April 1982 organized by the Continuing Education Unit of the University's Department of Adult Education The Lord Scarman Report itemized and stressed particular issues that arose from the Brixton disorders This text is organized into five parts encompassing 22 chapters The first parts explore the political agenda of the Brixton riot and Lord Scarman's report explanations images and impact of riots Another part is concerned with the issues in policy making related to the community public and accountability These topics are followed by discussions of the issues of unemployment and racial disadvantages in cities The last part contains a summary of the Report This book will prove useful to historians sociologists and researchers

Police Research Mollie Weatheritt,2023-03-31 In marked contrast to the decade before the 1980s saw an enormous growth of sociological research on the police and on policing Originally published in 1989 the chapters in this book stand as evidence both of the growth of police research in those years and its variety Contributors were asked to take stock of research in their respective fields and to assess where policing research had got to and how it had arrived there The resulting contributions range from broad conceptual reviews chapters 1 5 and 9 to concentration on specific pieces of empirical work some of which was being reported for the first time chapters 7 and 8 Other papers were concerned with the relationship actual and potential between research and policy chapters 2 3 and 4 yet others on charting and accounting for developments in policing policy and speculating about their likely effects chapters 10 and 11 Today it can be read and enjoyed in its historical context

The Liverpool English Dictionary Tony Crowley,2017-09-30 From Abbadabba to Z Cars this remarkable dictionary records the rich vocabulary that has evolved over the past century and a half as part of the complex stratified multi faceted and changing culture of Liverpool The roots routes meanings and histories of the words of Liverpool are presented in a concise clear and accessible format

Modern Policing David Watts Pope,Norman L. Weiner,2023-03-31 Originally published in 1981 Modern Policing provided an opportunity for members of the Police Staff College Bramshill to air their views about different aspects of modern British policing Contributions were made by members of the directing staff professional and academic and by students This book was addressed primarily to policemen themselves but also had wider appeal to those interested in policing The editors saw within police constabularies a rapidly developing concern for management information by senior police personnel for material to better prepare officers for their difficult task by training departments for relevant analyses to help improve qualifications by policemen themselves This was one of the first books to include views from inside the police rather than those from the outside the service

P.D. James Laurel A. Young,2017-06-09 British National Health Service employee Phyllis Dorothy James White 1920 2014 reinvented herself at age 38 as P D James crime novelist She then became long known as England's Queen of Crime Sixteen of her 20 novels feature one or both of her series detectives Adam Dalgliesh of Scotland Yard and private eye Cordelia Gray Stand alone works include the dystopian The Children of Men 1992 and Death Comes to Pemberley 2011 a sequel to Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice James's careful plotting has earned comparison with Golden Age British detective writers such as Agatha Christie and Dorothy L Sayers Yet James's work is thoroughly modern with realistic descriptions of police procedures and the echoes and aftereffects of crime This literary companion includes more than 700 encyclopedic entries covering the characters settings and themes of her published writing along with a career chronology chronological and alphabetical listings of her works and an exhaustive index

Investigating Arthur Upfield Carol Hetherington, Kees de Hoog, 2011-10-18 Arthur Upfield created Detective Inspector Napoleon Bonaparte Bony who features in twenty nine novels written from the 1920s to the 1960s mostly set in the Australian Outback He was the first Australian professional writer of crime detection novels Upfield arrived in Australia from England on 4 November 1911 and this collection of twenty two critical essays by academics and scholars has been published to celebrate the centenary of his arrival The essays were all written after Upfield's death in 1964 and provide a wide range of responses to his fiction The contributors from Australia Europe and the United States include journalist Pamela Ruskin who was Upfield's agent for fifteen years anthropologists literary scholars pioneers in the academic study of popular culture such as John G Cawelti and Ray B Browne and novelists Tony Hillerman and Mudrooroo whose own works have been inspired by Upfield's The collection sheds light on the extent and nature of critical responses to Upfield over time demonstrates the type of recognition he has received and highlights the way in which different preoccupations and critical trends have dealt with his work The essays provide the basis for an assessment of Upfield's place not only in the international annals of crime fiction but also in the literary and cultural history of Australia

The English Police Clive Emsley, 2014-09-19 A comprehensive history of policing from the eighteenth century onwards which draws on largely unused police archives Clive Emsley addresses all the major issues of debate he explores the impact of legislation and policy at both national and local levels and considers the claim that the English police were non political and free from political control In the final section he looks at the changing experience of police life Established as a standard introduction to the subject on its first appearance the Second Edition has been substantially revised and is now published under the Longman imprint for the first time

The Best Police in the World Barbara Weinberger, 2016-12-05 Based on interviews with former police officers this book addresses two main issues Firstly the question of how the police themselves viewed the priorities of the job and what they considered their role to be This is the first study to consider this question and its implications for the style and content of police work Secondly it challenges the view of the prewar period as a Golden Age and shows that policing from the 1930s to the 1960s was not as unproblematic as has often been assumed Police violence and the fabrication of evidence were more prevalent than the cosy image of the British TV series Dixon of Dock Green would have us believe The fact that this image often went unchallenged has much to do with prevailing concepts of masculinity and with the greater moral certitude of the police within a more stable and stratified society Cop World James McClure,1984 International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature TheInternational Who s Who of Authors and Writersoffers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters The Armchair Detective ,1981 The Top One Hundred Police Writers Bruce Swanton,1988 National Union Catalog ,1981 Includes entries for maps and atlases National Union Catalog, 1981 ,1982
