Luzac's Oriental List and Book Review ,1919 The Psychological Index ,1921 Psychological Index ,1923

Luzac & Co.'s Oriental List ,1921 From the Bodies of the Gods Earl Lee,2012-05-16 The origins of modern religion in human sacrifice ritual cannibalism visionary intoxication and the Cult of the Dead Explores ancient practices of producing sacred hallucinogenic foods and oils from the bodies of the dead for ritual consumption and religious anointing Explains how these practices are deeply embedded in the symbolism theology and sacraments of modern religion specifically Christianity and the Eucharist Documents the rites of Cults of the Dead from the prehistoric Minoans on Crete to the ancient Egyptians Greeks and Hebrews to early and medieval Christian sects such as the Cathars Long before the beginnings of civilization humans have been sacrificed and their flesh used to produce sacred foods and oils for use in religious rites Originating with the sacred harvest of hallucinogenic mushrooms from the corpses of shamans and other holy men these acts of ritual cannibalism and visionary intoxication are part of the history of all cultures including Judeo Christian ones and provided a way to commune with the dead These practices continued openly into the Dark Ages when they were suppressed and adapted into the worship of saintly bones or continued in secret by a few heretical sects such as the Cathars and the Knights Templar While little known today these rites remain deeply embedded in the symbolism theology and sacraments of modern religion and bring a much more literal meaning to the church s Holy Communion or symbolic consumption of the body and blood of Christ Documenting the sacrificial cannibalistic and psychoactive sacramental practices associated with the Cult of the Dead from the prehistoric Minoans on Crete to the ancient Egyptians and Hebrews and onward to early and medieval Christian sects Earl Lee shows how these religious rites influenced the development of Western religion In particular he reveals how Christianity originated with Jesus s effort to restore the sacred rites of Moses including the Marzeah or Feast for the Dead Examining the connections between these rites and the mysterious funeral of Father Sauniere in Rennes le Ch teau the author explains why the prehistoric Cult of the Dead has held such power over Western civilization so much so that its echoes are still heard today in our literature film and arts Community Bookshelf Minneapolis Public Library,1922 The Leaven of the Sadducees Ernest B. Gordon,1926 The Human Soul Joseph Mawinza,1967 The Psychological Register Carl Murchison,1929 Moved by the Dead Michael Amoruso,2025-04-14 In the sprawling city of S o Paulo a weekly practice known as devotion to souls devo o s almas draws devotees to Catholic churches cemeteries and other sites associated with tragic or unjust deaths The living pray and light candles for the souls of the dead remembering events and circumstances in a rite of collective suffering Yet contemporary devotion to souls is not confined to Catholic adherents or fixed to specific locations The practice is also linked to popular tours of haunted sites in the city and it moves within an urban environment routinely marked by violence and death While based in Catholic traditions devotion to souls is as complex and multifaceted as religion itself in Brazil where African Portuguese and other cultural forms have blended and evolved over centuries Michael Amoruso's insightful work uses the methods of ethnography, religious studies and urban studies to consider how devotion to souls embodies, adapts and challenges conventional ideas of religion as tethered to specific sites and practices. Examining devotees' varied ways of ascribing meaning to their actions, Amoruso argues that devotion to souls acts as a form of what he calls mnemonic repair, tying the living to the dead in a struggle against the forces of forgetting. The Psychological Register Carl Allanmore Murchison, 1932 Psychological Register, 1932 Encyclopedia of Death and the Human Experience Clifton D. Bryant, Dennis L. Peck, 2009-07-15 Death and dying and death-related behavior involve the causes of death and the nature of the actions and emotions surrounding death among the living. Interest in the varied dimensions of death and dying has led to the development of death studies that move beyond medical research to include behavioral science disciplines and practitioner-oriented fields. As a result of this interdisciplinary interest, the literature in the field has proliferated. This two-volume resource addresses the traditional death and dying-related topics but also presents a unique focus on the human experience to create a new dimension to the study of death and dying. With more than 300 entries, the Encyclopedia of Death and the Human Experience includes the complex cultural beliefs and traditions and the institutionalized social rituals that surround dying and death as well as the array of emotional responses relating to bereavement, grieving and mourning. The Encyclopedia is enriched through important multidisciplinary contributions and perspectives as it arranges, organizes, defines and clarifies a comprehensive list of death-related perspectives, concepts and theories. Key Features: Imparts significant insight into the process of dying and the phenomenon of death. Includes contributors from Asia, Africa, Australia, Canada, China, eastern southern and western Europe, Iceland, Scandinavia, South America and the United States who offer important interdisciplinary and cross-cultural perspectives. Provides a special focus on the cultural artifacts and social institutions and practices that constitute the human experience. Addresses death-related terms and concepts such as angel makers, equivocal death, end of life decision making, near death experiences, cemeteries, ghost photography, halo nurses, caregiver stress, cyberfunerals, global religious beliefs and traditions and death denial. Presents a selective use of figures, tables and images. Key Themes: Arts, Media and Popular Culture, Perspectives, Causes of Death, Conceptualization of Death, Dying and the Human Experience, Coping With Loss and Grief, The Human Experience, Cross-Cultural Perspectives, Culturally Determined Social Oriented and Violent Forms of Death, Developmental and Demographic Perspectives, Funerals and Death-Related Activities, Legal Matters, Process of Dying, Symbolic Rituals, Ceremonies and Celebrations of Life, Theories and Concepts, Unworldly Entities and Events. With an array of topics that include traditional subjects and important emerging ideas, the Encyclopedia of Death and the Human Experience is the ultimate resource for students, researchers, academics and others interested in this intriguing area of study. Bulletin of the New York Public Library New York Public Library, 1924 Includes its Report 1896-19 American Journal of Archaeology, 1923 Author Index to Psychological Index, 1894 to 1935, and Psychological Abstracts, 1927 to 1958
