Spirits Captured In Stone Shamanism And Traditional Medicine Among The Taman Of Borneo:

Spirits Captured in Stone Jay H. Bernstein, 1997 Examines shamanism and healing practices among the Taman of Borneo Spirits Captured in Stone Jay H. Bernstein, 1997 This fascinating case study focuses on shamanism and the healing practices of the Taman a formerly tribal society indigenous to the interior of Borneo The Taman typically associate illness with an encounter with spirits that both seduce and torment a person in dreams or waking life Rather than use medicines to counter the effect of these discomfiting visitors the shamans called baliens use stones that are said to contain the convergence of wild spirits that have come into being during the initiation ceremony P 209 Korean Shamanism Chongho Kim, 2018-01-18 Title first published in 2003 Shamanism has a contradictory position within the Korean cultural system leading to the periodical suppression of shamanism yet also paradoxically ensuring its survival throughout Korean history This book examines the place of shamans within contemporary society as a cultural practice in which people make use of shamanic ritual and disputing the prevalent view that shamanism is popular culture a women s religion or performing arts Directly confronting the prejudice against shamans and their paradoxical situation in a modern society such as Korea this book reveals the cultural discrepancy between two worlds in Korean culture the ordinary world and the shamanic world showing that these two worlds cannot be reconciled This unique study of shamanism offers a significant contribution to growing studies in indigenous anthropology and indigenous religions and provides a captivating read for a wide range of readers through retelling the stories never to be told involving shamanic ritual Shamanism Mariko Namba Walter, Eva Jane Neumann Fridman, 2004-12-15 A guide to worldwide shamanism and shamanistic practices emphasizing historical and current cultural adaptations This two volume reference is the first international survey of shamanistic beliefs from prehistory to the present day In nearly 200 detailed readable entries leading ethnographers psychologists archaeologists historians and scholars of religion and folk literature explain the general principles of shamanism as well as the details of widely varied practices What is it like to be a shaman Entries describe region by region the traits such as sicknesses and dreams that mark a person as a shaman as well as the training undertaken by initiates They detail the costumes music rituals artifacts and drugs that shamans use to achieve altered states of consciousness communicate with spirits travel in the spirit world and retrieve souls Unlike most Western books on shamanism which focus narrowly on the individual s experience of healing and trance Shamanism also examines the function of shamanism in society from social political and historical perspectives and identifies the ancient continuous thread that connects shamanistic beliefs and rituals across cultures and millennia

Borneo Studies in History, Society and Culture Victor T. King, Zawawi Ibrahim, Noor Hasharina Hassan, 2016-08-12 This edited book is the first major review of what has been achieved in Borneo Studies to date Chapters in this book situate research on Borneo within the general disciplinary fields of the social sciences with the weight of attention devoted to anthropological research and related fields such as development studies gender studies environmental studies social policy studies and cultural studies Some of the chapters in this book are extended versions of presentations at the Borneo Research Council's international conference hosted by Universiti Brunei Darussalam in June 2012 and a Borneo Studies workshop organised in Brunei in 2012 The volume examines some of the major debates and controversies in Borneo Studies including those which have served to connect post war research on Borneo to wider scholarship It also assesses some of the more recent contributions and interests of locally based researchers in universities and other institutions in Borneo itself The major strength of the book is the inclusion of a substantial amount of research undertaken by scholars working and teaching within the Southeast Asian region In particular there is an examination of research materials published in the vernacular notably the outpouring of work published in Indonesian by the Institut Dayakologi in Pontianak In doing so the book also addresses the urgent matters which have not received the attention they deserve specifically subjects themes and issues that have already been covered but require further contemplation elaboration and research and the scope for disciplinary and multidisciplinary collaboration in Borneo Studies The book is a valuable resource and reference work for students and researchers interested in social science scholarship on Borneo and for those with wider interests in Indonesia and Malaysia and in the Southeast Asian region

Anthropology and Religion Robert L. Winzeler, 2012-04-12 Drawing from ethnographic examples found throughout the world this revised and updated text offers an introduction to what anthropologists know or think about religion how they have studied it and how they have interpreted or explained it since the late nineteenth century Robert Winzeler's balanced consideration of classic topics basic concepts and new developments in the anthropological study of religion moves beyond cultural anthropology and ethnography to gather information from physical anthropology prehistory and archaeology Written as a sophisticated but accessible treatment of the issues Anthropology and Religion is a key text for upper division courses

Shamans in Asia Clark Chilson, Peter Knecht, 2003-12-08 Shamans throughout much of Asia are regarded as having the power to control and coerce spirits Many Asians today still turn to shamans to communicate with the world of the dead heal the sick and explain enigmatic events To understand Asian religions therefore a knowledge of shamanism is essential Shamans in Asia provides an introduction to the study of shamans and six ethnographic studies each of which describes and analyses the lives and activities of shamans in five different regions Siberia China Korea and the Ryukyu islands of southern Japan Bangladesh and Pakistan The essays show what type of people become shamans what social roles they play and how shamans actively draw from the worldviews of the communities in which they operate As the first book in English to provide in depth accounts of shamans from different regions of Asia it allows students and scholars to view the diversity and similarities of shamans and their religions Those interested in spiritual specialists the anthropological study of religion and local religions in Asia will be intrigued if not entranced by Shamans in Asia

Borneo and Sulawesi Ooi Keat Gin, 2019-11-28 This book presents a great deal of new research findings on the history of Borneo the history of Sulawesi and the interrelationship between the two islands Some specific chapters focus on empires and colonizers including the activities of James Brooke in Sulawesi of Chinese mining communities in Borneo and of the the quisling issue in immediate post war Sarawak Other chapters consider indigenous peoples and how different regimes have handled them The book is published in honour of Victor T King a leading scholar in the field of Southeast Asian studies and a final chapter discusses his contribution to scholarship in particular his views on how area studies should be approached and the implications of this for future research

Wild Man from Borneo Robert Cribb, Helen Gilbert, Helen Tiffin, 2014-01-31 Wild Man from Borneo offers the first comprehensive history of the human orangutan encounter Arguably the most humanlike of all the great apes particularly in intelligence and behavior the orangutan has been cherished used and abused ever since it was first brought to the attention of Europeans in the seventeenth century The red ape has engaged the interest of scientists philosophers artists and the public at large in a bewildering array of guises that have by no means been exclusively zoological or ecological One reason for such a long term engagement with a being found only on the islands of Borneo and Sumatra is that like its fellow great apes the orangutan stands on that most uncomfortable dividing line between human and animal existing for us on what has been called the dangerous edge of the garden of nature Beginning with the scientific discovery of the red ape more than three hundred years ago this work goes on to examine the ways in which its human attributes have been both recognized and denied in science philosophy travel literature popular science literature theatre museums and film The authors offer a provocative analysis of the origin of the name orangutan trace how the ape has been recruited to arguments on topics as diverse as slavery and rape and outline the history of attempts to save the animal from extinction Today while human populations increase exponentially that of the orangutan is in dangerous decline The remaining wild men of Borneo are under increasing threat from mining interests logging human population expansion and the widespread destruction of forests The authors hope that this history will by adding to our knowledge of this fascinating being assist in some small way in their preservation

Way of the Ancient Healer Virgil Mayor Apostol, 2012-06-12 The first ever comprehensive introduction to traditional Filipino healing practices featuring rare photographs and insights into the roots and modern day rituals of this ancient shamanic and spiritual belief system brilliantly blends the art and science of the sacred teachings of Filipino traditional healing to help people find their path toward health and happiness Deepak Chopra Way of the Ancient Healer provides an overview of the rich tradition of Filipino healing practices discussing their origins world influences and role in daily life Enhanced with over 200 photographs and illustrations the book combines years of historical research with detailed descriptions of the spiritual belief system that forms the foundation of these practices Giving readers a rare look at modern day Filipino healing rituals the book also includes personal examples from author Virgil Mayor Apostol s own experiences with shamanic healing and dream interpretation The book begins with an explanation of Apostol s Filipino lineage and legacy as a healer After a brief history of the Philippine archipelago he describes the roots of traditional Filipino healing and spirituality and discusses the Indian Islamic Chinese Japanese Spanish and American influences that have impacted the Filipino culture He presents a thorough description of Filipino shamanic and spiritual practices that have developed from the concept that everything in nature contains a spirit animism and that living in the presence of spirits demands certain protocols and rituals for interacting with them The book s final chapter thoughtfully explores the spiritual tools used in Filipino healing talismans amulets stones and other natural symbols of power Soils Stones and Symbols Cultural Perceptions of the Mineral World Nicole Boivin,Owic,2013-07-04 Ethnographic and archaeological records feature a rich body of data suggesting that understandings of the mineral world are in fact both culturally variable and highly diverse Soils Stones and Symbols highlights studies from the fields of anthropology archaeology and philosophy that demonstrate that not all individuals and societies view minerals as commodities to be exploited for economic gain or as passive objects of disembodied scientific enquiry In visiting such diverse contexts as contemporary India colonial period Australia and prehistoric Europe and the Americas the papers in this volume demonstrate that in pre industrial societies minerals are often symbolically meaningful ritually powerful and deeply interwoven into not just economic and material but also social cosmological mythical spiritual and philosophical aspects of life In addressing the theme of the mineral world this book is not only unique within the social and geo sciences but also at the forefront of recent attempts to demonstrate the importance of materiality to processes of human cognition and sociality It draws upon theoretical developments relating to meaning experience the body and material culture to demonstrate that studies of rock art landscapes architecture technology and resource use are all linked through the minerals that constantly surround us and are the focus of our never ending attempts to understand and transform them Ritual Retellings

Isabell Herrman,2015-03-01 Belian is an exceptionally lively tradition of shamanistic curing rituals performed by the Luangans a politically marginalized population of Indonesian Borneo This volume explores the significance of these rituals in practice and asks what belian rituals do socially politically and existentially for particular people in particular circumstances Departing from the conception that rituals exist as ethereal liminal or insulated traditional domains this volume demonstrates the importance of understanding rituals as emergent within their specific historical and social settings It offers an analysis of a number of concrete ritual performances exemplifying a diversity of ritual genres stylistic modalities and sensual ambiances from low key habitual affairs to drawn out crowd seizing community rituals and innovative montage like cultural experiments 21st Century Anthropology: A

Fields of the Lord Lorraine V. Aragon, 2000-06-01 Religious and ethnic violence between Indonesia's Muslims and Christians escalated dramatically just before and after President Suharto resigned in 1998 In this first major ethnographic study of Christianization in Indonesia Aragon delineates colonial and postcolonial circumstances contributing to the dynamics of these contemporary conflicts Aragon's ethnography of Indonesian Christian minorities in Sulawesi combines a political economy of colonial missionization with a microanalysis of shifting religious ideology and practice Fields of the Lord challenges much comparative religion scholarship by contending that religions like contemporary cultural groups be located in their spheres of interaction rather than as the abstracted cognitive and behavioral systems conceived by many adherents modernist states and Western scholars Aragon's portrayal of near tribal populations who characterize themselves as fanatic Christians asks the reader to rethink issues of Indonesian nationalism and modern development as they converged in President Suharto's late New Order state Through its careful documentation of colonial missionary tactics unexpected postcolonial upheavals and contemporary Christian narratives Fields of the Lord analyzes the historical and institutional links between state rule and individuals' religious choices Beyond these contributions this ethnography includes captivating stories of Salvation Army angels of the forest and nationally marginal but locally autonomous dry rice and coffee farmers These Salvation Army soldiers make Protestantism work on their own ecological moral and political turf maintaining their communities and ongoing religious concerns in the difficult terrain of the Central Sulawesi highlands
