North Atlantic Civilization at War Patrick Lloyd Hatcher, 1998 This text recounts the World War II journey s of a soldier a ship and a bottle of spirits through and around five turning point battles constrained more by geography and climate than by generals and admirals Nevada Magazine , 1979 Loving Nature, Fearing the State Brian Allen Drake, 2013-11-01 A conservative environmental tradition in America may sound like a contradiction in terms but as Brian Allen Drake shows in Loving Nature Fearing the State right leaning politicians and activists have shaped American environmental consciousness since the environmental movement s beginnings In this wide ranging history Drake explores the tensions inherent in balancing an ideology dedicated to limiting the power of government with a commitment to protecting treasured landscapes and ecological health Drake argues that antistatist beliefs an individualist ethos and a mistrust of government have colored the American passion for wilderness but also complicated environmental protection efforts While most of the successes of the environmental movement have been enacted through the federal government conservative and libertarian critiques of big government environmentalism have increasingly resisted the idea that strengthening state power is the only way to protect the environment Loving Nature Fearing the State traces the influence of conservative environmental thought through the stories of important actors in postwar environmental movements The book follows small government pioneer Barry Goldwater as he tries to establish federally protected wilderness lands in the Arizona desert and shows how Goldwater s intellectual and ideological struggles with this effort provide a framework for understanding the dilemmas of an antistatist environmentalism It links antigovernment activism with environmental public health concerns by analyzing opposition to government fluoridation campaigns and investigates environmentalism from a libertarian economic perspective through the work of free market environmentalists Drake also sees in the work of Edward Abbey an argument that reverence for nature can form the basis for resistance to state power Each chapter highlights debates and tensions that are important to understanding environmental history and the challenges that face environmental protection efforts today Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1970-06 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world Close Encounters of the Third Kind Ray Morton,2007-11 Applause Books Morton has written the definitive book on this innovative movie by Steven Spielberg Meticulous research of this caliber is not found in other books on Close Encounters Fans will find Morton s take informative and fascinating Library Journal Steven Spielberg s 1977 masterpiece used all of the power and magic of cinema to tell a story of man s first meeting with extraterrestrial beings Renouncing the fear and pessimism of the day writer director Spielberg boldly envisioned this as a peaceful spiritual event full of hope and possibility This awe inspiring message made a powerful impact on audiences desperate for something to believe in The film was a massive box office hit and revolutionized the movie industry along with Star Wars it helped to create the modern blockbuster and ushered in a new era of hi tech effects Based on in depth research and the recollections of many of the film s principal creators Close Encounters is the first book to chronicle the making of this classic film from its inception through its tumultuous production to its many releases in special editions The book features new interviews with star Teri Garr producer Michael Phillips photographic effects supervisor Douglas Trumbull production designer Joe Alves and several cinematographers screenwriters and special effects legends John Hill Jerry Belson Hal Barwood and Matthew Robbins and special effects legends Richard Yuricich Robert Swarthe Dennis Muren Scott Squires Greg Jein and Rocco Gioffre World War I Songs Frederick G.
