Echoes of Aquinas in Cusanus's Vision of Man Markus Führer, 2014-02-19 This book demonstrates the influence that the philosophical and theological anthropology of Saint Thomas Aquinas had on Nicholas of Cusa s Cusanus view of human nature While Rudolf Haubst suggested that Aquinas had in fact influenced several factors of Cusanus theology Haubst did not explore the topic of anthropology Since the philosophy of man is supposed to be one of the determining characteristics of the Renaissance and because there is a prevailing opinion that Cusanus was not only a Renaissance philosopher but indeed one of the founders of Renaissance humanism I demonstrate that his view of the place of man in the universe is remarkably similar to the view of Aquinas A close examination of the texts of both thinkers when compared to some of the leading Renaissance writers indicates that it is not entirely true that Cusanus is Renaissance in his analysis of the human condition Because Cusanus copies of some of the works of Aquinas are still intact and his marginal comments in these manuscripts indicate not only that he read Aquinas carefully but also actually reacted to texts in Aquinas it is possible to conduct a study of Cusanus use of Aquinas based directly on the text of Aquinas It is also possible to explore similarities by studying the formulae that both writers used in expressing their respective positions The present study appeals to students and scholars of late medieval theology and philosophy in its unique examination of the impact of Aquinas thought upon Cusanus Two Thousand Years in Celestial Life Henry Clay Hodges,1901 Divine Intervention IV: A Guide To Healing Within And Living Without ,2012 From Sandye M Roberts and Arthur L Jones III the Authors of the Divine Intervention series of Nonfiction books comes the latest installment DI4 is a book intended to inspire those who feel lost within this imperfect world to rediscover their own sense of inner peace passion purpose and positivity This book examines and discusses many methods of achieving balance by holding onto what is needed for our greatest good and releasing those things which we no longer need or want The Churchman ,1901 The Planet Mars and Its Inhabitants J.
