

SPIRITUAL FUNDAMENTALS: PRAYER AND FASTING

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18; Luke 11:1-12, Colossians 4:2

YOUTH MEETING 22ND APRIL 2024

OVERVIEW

Prayer and time spent away from food would keep the believer on his/her toes. The believer should be reminded that as a spiritual being, he or she lives also by the power of the Holy Spirit ignited through prayer and fasting.

CONTENT EXPOSITION

Just like the word of God, prayer is very important in the life of a Christian. The New Birth establishes a parent-child relationship between God and the believer, and God wants to keep this relationship active and growing through regular conversation with Him. Therefore, although He is able to supply our needs without us asking Him, He insists we ask Him to supply our needs whenever we find any. (Matt. 7:7)

In asking, we must ask in the right way. What is the right way?

Our prayers must be patterned after God's word. When we ask anything according to his will, God answers. (1 Jn. 5:14-15) The will of God is His word. What it means is that when our lives are ordered by God's word our prayers will be answered. The opposite is also true, in Prov. 28:9, the Bible emphasizes that if anyone does not obey God, his prayers are abomination to Him.

Prayer also helps the believer to recognize the doings of the Lord in his or her life. If indeed, he asked God and God did it, it gives him/her a testimony and helps him to put his trust fully in God.

The importance of fasting to spiritual growth lies in the fact that it creates the space and time for the believer to wait on God to be filled with good things without interruptions. When we deny ourselves of food and other pleasures of the body, we are able to concentrate better on God. We get the opportunity to assess our past and gain a clearer perspective for the future.

Because of the physically weakening effect it imposes, fasting may require that we stay away from the regular demands on our time and devote much attention to God alone. Where it is not possible to totally abstain from work you will need to make a conscious effort to make time within the fasting period for prayer and the study of the Word.

Fasting, however, does not stop the devil from appealing to our desires (Matt. 4:8). As we fast, its important to be sensitive to God and His word which is able to build us. (Acts 20:32)

Simplicity Craig Dilworth,2013 Simplicity presents a new wide ranging philosophical theory one that concerns how reality is conceived In so doing it also provides a new logic with which to approach conceptual situations In this book Craig Dilworth replaces the dualistic true false approach of formal logic with a three part basis for thought This basis consists of the categories of simplicity complexity and nothingness The category of simplicity is paradoxical while that of complexity is unproblematic and that of nothingness is self contradictory When applied to ontological categories such as those of substance self or causality these categories of reason can resolve rather than solve intellectual issues The notion of perspective is integral to the simplicity way of thinking A particular entity such as the self may be conceived as simple in one perspective while being complex or nothing in another Combined with the categories of the simplicity theory Dilworth uses the notion of perspective to reveal a type of conceptual conflict that differs from contradiction So for example simplicity better represents the relation between competing scientific theories such as the wave and particle theories of radiation as a form of perspectival incompatibility The book distinguishes between two forms of simplicity analytic and synthetic which can respectively be conceived of as a point and a whole Again the notion of perspective is employed what is analytically simple in one perspective may well be synthetically simple in another In this book the simplicity way of thinking is applied to intellectual issues in philosophy set theory and physics These applications show how simplicity can provide real insight into a wide variety of conceptually complex situations
