Henri Nouwen and Soul Care Wil Hernandez, 2008 In examining Henri Nouwen's approach to the ministry of soul care and spiritual formation at close range we can conclude that his holistic and integrative style is essentially drawn from his sophisticated understanding of the coinherence of spirituality with psychology ministry

Mary Clark Moschella, 2016-09-07 In Caring for Joy: Narrative Theology and Practice Mary Clark Moschella offers a new account of the value of joy in caregiving vocations demonstrating how the work of caring for persons, communities and the world need not be a dreary endeavor overwhelmed by crises or undermined by despair. Moschella presents glimpses of joy in action in the narratives of five notable figures: Heidi Neumark, Henri Nouwen, Gregory Boyle, Pauli Murray and Paul Farmer, gleaned from their wisdom for the construction of a theology of joy that embodies compassion, connection, justice and freedom. Care must be deep enough to hold human suffering and spacious enough to take in the divine goodness, beauty and love. This book expands the pastoral theological imagination and narrates joy, full approaches to transformational care. This work is a scholarly, engaging and compassionate call to reconsider the significance of joyful living and joyful lives in radical pastoral theology. Heather Walton, University of Glasgow, President of the International Academy of Practical Theology, July 2016. Based on biographies, interviews and life stories, Mary Clark Moschella presents joy as a counter-cultural emotion, as a spiritual path and as a fruit of the Spirit. In her research, joy and reason are not ultimately opposed. Jeanne Stevenson Moessner, Professor of Pastoral Care, Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, July 2016. This highly readable and compelling theology of joy will inspire you to explore how joy might energize your vocation, especially caregiving vocations that use narrative approaches to spiritual care and pastoral counseling. I plan on using this book as a textbook in my theodicy, grief, death and dying, and vocational courses. Carrie Doehring, Professor of Pastoral Care and Counseling, Iliff School of Theology, Denver, August 2016. Mary Moschella has given us a rare text, one that is theologically rich, intellectually sophisticated, drenched in pastoral wisdom and beautifully written. She gives us a pastoral theology attuned to the realities of diversity and sensitive to the complex challenges facing those who live constantly interface with suffering. There is simply nothing else like this book in pastoral care. Willie James Jennings, Professor of Systematic Theology and Africana Studies, Yale University, August 2016.

The Motif of Hospitality in Theological Education Davina Hui Leng Soh, 2016-12-14 These are exciting times in theological education as old models are being reassessed and teachers and schools are looking for guidance on how best to do the job and how to profitably relate to students in the ministry of teaching. Increasingly, the motif of hospitality is being used to guide our thinking and practice, but it needs a careful assessment if it is to be of maximum use to theological education today. This book provides an integrated biblical, theological and educational rationale to inform theological educators of the place of hospitality in enhancing their quest to create more effective learning environments for the holistic formation of students. Dr Davina Soh explores key elements of hospitality such as inclusion, presence, care and reciprocity, which when combined can deliver the best possible educational experience for theological students and transform an entire institution.
