Spiritual Needs And Pastoral Services Readings In Research:

Spiritual Needs & Pastoral Services Larry VandeCreek, 2010-11-01 What do spiritual needs health care pastoral services religious resources statistics and quantitative research methods have in common Traditional literature in the pastoral care counseling and education movement probably would say Not a great deal Indeed the pastoral arts and sciences have tended to be high on art especially praxis but relatively low on science especially quantitative research That s too bad claims Dr Larry VandeCreek who has gathered together a sample of previously published but widely scattered research reports which he hopes will inform hospital chaplains congregational pastors hospital personnel and theological students on ways in which knowledge gained from carefully designed research can enhance their project of care Selecting only quantitative research reports the volume explores such topics as the role of spirituality in terminally ill hospitalized patients the demonstrated helpfulness of prayer in health crisis the possible impact of hope among women with breast cancer the role and impact of chaplaincy services in general hospitals as well as other studies demonstrating a variety of relationships between spirituality and health care

Spiritual Care and Therapy Peter L. VanKatwyk, 2006-01-01 The current interest in spirituality has intensified the quest to incorporate spirituality in non sectarian therapy Spiritual Care and Therapy is a hands on up to date clinical guide that addresses this concern Peter VanKatwyk explores spiritual care from pastoral traditions to essential psychotherapies in individual couple and family therapy offering integrative perspectives Therapy vignettes from multiple perspectives are included as well as a wealth of diagrams and maps His unique perspective of different helping relationships is an approach that celebrates diversity and promotes the flexibility of multiple uses of self and their respective styles of care Part 1 describes common and pluralistic meanings of spirituality locating spiritual care both in the ordinary experience of daily life and in professional practice Part 2 focuses on the essentials of caring posed in the three questions of what to know therapy models what to say communication roles and what to be uses of self These three core areas converge in the book s central framework of the helping style inventory helping relationships Part 3 maps the contexts of care the person situated in family and society moving through time in rites of passage that congest when impacted by crisis and loss Finally Part 4 presents the actual process of clinical education first through a model of supervision and second through a research methodology designed for the study of spirituality and health care Perfect as a text in either education or academic programs this book will be of interest to all helping professionals who value an integrative and holistic approach to spiritual care and therapy

Transforming Chaplaincy Steve Nolan, Annelieke Damen, 2021-10-28 Evidence based medicine has transformed contemporary medical practice For over twenty five years George Fitchett has been a pioneering advocate of the view that evidence based spiritual care can and should equally transform chaplaincy This book collects a key selection from his ground breaking research As models of good research practice these papers demonstrate the real world value of research and introduce their readers to issues that have continuing importance to spiritual care and professional chaplaincy

As such this collection offers an ideal introduction to spiritual care research The collection is complemented by three essays specially commissioned from observers well positioned to comment on future directions for both professional chaplaincy and spiritual care research

Scientific Research on Spirituality and Health David B. Larson, James P. Swyers, Michael E. McCullough, 1998

Spiritual Assessment in Healthcare: A Resource Guide Linda Ross, Wilfred McSherry, 2025-05-23 This new edition led by two prominent Professors of Nursing explores issues of spiritual assessment in healthcare practice while adopting a lifespan approach and also including expertise from nursing midwifery medicine mental health children and adolescents meaningful ageing and intellectual disability The importance of cultural sensitivity and diversity are explored because it is recognised that these are themes that have been neglected in discussions about spiritual assessment It provides nurses and other healthcare professionals with a valuable resource that will assist them with identifying and meeting their patients and clients spiritual needs The book as previously commenced by providing an overview of what is meant by spirituality this operational definition is derived from the authors research and experiences in teaching these subjects to a wide range of healthcare professionals The updated and expanded text will assist readers to engage with the conceptual and theoretical challenges and developments associated with spirituality and spiritual care The book offers very practical insights and steps for introducing and advancing spiritual assessment in a wide range of healthcare settings The adoption of a life span approach means that concepts such as spirituality spiritual care and assessment can be better understood by healthcare professionals working in specialist fields of practice Each chapter will draw upon up to date evidence to demonstrate the development of both the art and science of spiritual assessment The book will continue to challenge contemporary thinking asking for healthcare professionals working within a diverse range of care settings organisations institutions educational contexts to evaluate their practice in relation to spiritual assessment A primary goal of this 2nd Edition is to continue to advance thinking and practice in spiritual assessment by using a lifespan approach that offers insight into the dilemmas obstacles deficits that inhibit or prevent nurses and other allied healthcare providers from supporting clients and patients with their spiritual needs Evidence-Based Healthcare Chaplaincy George Fitchett, Kelsey White, Kathryn Lyndes, 2018-07-19 Research literacy is now a requirement for Board Certified chaplains in the US and a growing field in the UK This reader gives an overview and introduction to the field of healthcare chaplaincy research The 21 carefully chosen articles in this book illustrate techniques critical to chaplaincy research case studies qualitative research cross sectional and longitudinal quantitative research and randomized clinical trials The selected articles also address wide ranging topics in chaplaincy research for a comprehensive overview of the field To help readers engage with the research each article includes a discussion guide highlighting crucial content as well as important background information and implications for further research This book is the perfect primary text for healthcare chaplaincy research courses bringing together key articles from peer reviewed journals in one student friendly format Interweaving Methodology and Praxis I. John Mohan Razu, 2007 Contributed seminar articles Learning from Case Studies in Chaplaincy Martijn Stoutjesdijk, 2020-12-01 The recent production of case studies in chaplaincy care combines the narrative nature of chaplaincy with the rigors of research demanded in contemporary care settings The contributions in this volume from both practitioners and academic researchers join reflections on the challenges and promises of case study research in chaplaincy care with the results of specific case studies Based on reflections on methodology and professionalization in chaplaincy the volume hopes to contribute to answering the question of how and why chaplaincy works As such the book aims for a wide readership of scholars chaplains and policy makers Learning from Case Studies originated from the first international conference on case study research in chaplaincy care that was held in Amsterdam in 2019 This book is a valuable Western European contribution to the international emerging field of chaplaincy research Prof dr Anne Vandenhoeck Director of the European Research Institute for Chaplains in Health Care KU Leuven Belgium This significant book represents a step change in research into effective chaplaincy practice Building on previous work led by Fitchett and Nolan chaplains and academics offer new case studies but also develop this critically reflective approach together Chapters on methodology show how case studies especially when analysed comparatively provide important evidence for how and why chaplaincy works Rev Dr Andrew Todd Director of the Professional Doctorate in Practical Theology Anglia Ruskin University England At the heart of chaplaincy are stories and this collection combines reverence for the stories themselves alongside a critical exploration of how these cases engage with the important issues of our times what it means to be a profession and to have a professional identity and the need for research that recognises the integral relationship between practice and evidence This book provides a significant contribution to the current conversations in the spiritual care field Cheryl Holmes OAM CEO Spiritual Health Association Australia Here We Stand Craig L. Nesson, Victor I. Vieth, 2025-07-17 Although the life and writings of Martin Luther and other reformers have a great deal to say about children and our need to protect them from maltreatment this legacy of the Lutheran churches and of Christianity as a whole has largely been forgotten Here We Stand reclaims the Lutheran heritage as it sets forth a Lutheran theological and ethical foundation for the church's response to child abuse The book models rooting our response to child abuse in fertile biblical and theological soil Written by Lutheran theologians and child abuse prevention experts the groundbreaking book provides practical direction for the pastoral ministry of clergy and for congregations that wish to develop robust policies and practices in order to protect children Part 1 Lutheran Theological Foundations for Addressing Child Abuse explores core Lutheran commitments by retrieving historical confessional and theological sources Part 2 Lutheran Interpretation of Challenging Biblical Texts addresses misinterpretations of Scripture and the Lutheran traditions Part 3 Lutheran Theology Addressing the Sin of Child Abuse provides practical instruction for ministry challenges related to child abuse
