A Spirituality Named Compassion and the Healing of the Global Village, Humpty Dumpty and Us Matthew Fox, 1979 A Spirituality Named Compassion Matthew Fox, 1999-09 Popular and controversial author Matthew Fox establishes a spirituality for the future that promises personal social and global healing Using his own experiences with the pain and lifestyle changes that resulted from an accident Fox has written an uplifting book on the issues of ecological justice the suffering of the Earth and the rights of her nonhuman citizens A Spirituality Named Compassion Matthew Fox, 1999-09-01 Fox marries mysticism with social justice leading the way toward a gentler and more ecological spirituality and an acceptance of our interdependence A road map to fulfillment for the coming century In A Spirituality Named Compassion Matthew Fox the popular and controversial author establishes a spirituality for the future that promises personal social and global healing Using his own experiences with the pain and lifestyle changes that resulted from an accident Fox has written an uplifting book on the issues of ecological justice the suffering of Earth and the rights of her nonhuman citizens Fox defines compassion as creativity put to the service of justice and argues that we can achieve compassion for both humanity and the environment as we recognize the interconnectedness of all things Working toward the creation of a gentler ecological and feminist Christianity Fox marries mysticism and social justice emphasizing that as we enter a new millennium society needs to realize that spirituality's purpose is to guide us on a path that leads to a genuine love of all our relations and a love for our shared interdependence The Search for Compassion Andrew Purves, 1989-01-01 The meaning of compassion is more than just sympathy empathy pity and concern Compassion has a theological meaning In this book Andrew Purves sees compassion as the center of pastoral care holding theology spirituality and ministry together He examines how a renewed compassion gives ministry shape and content which grows out of the life of God and God's care for the world The Compassion Quest Trystan Owain Hughes, 2013-02-21 In this follow up to his much praised Finding Hope and Meaning in Suffering Trystan Owain Hughes encourages us to develop an approach to life that looks beyond our own concerns Using illustrations from poetry literature and film and drawing on contemporary scientific thought the author makes plain that our natural state is an interconnected harmony with God with each other and with the world around us Gradually we come to realize that loving others and desiring the best for them is worthwhile even when there seems to be little in it for us Just as Christ chose to humble himself and become God with us so we too will bring light to the lives of those around us by transcending our self-centredness and becoming fully present to those in need And as we begin to attune ourselves to love's frequency our inner being will instinctively embrace all creation as sacred and deserving of our care and attention Art, Ritual, and Trance Inquiry Barbara A. Bickel, 2020-11-02 This book provides insights into the practice of trance based inquiry through arts based research serving as a beacon to guide the way to thresholds of ancient yet novel transmissions Embedded in lived experience and theory this book introduces the reader to the liminal space of place and trance based inquiry processes entwined with creative artworkings The interweaving of art ritual and trance based inquiry opens sacred spaces for learning and unlearning that bring spirit into form Each chapter presents examples from women artists and culminates with experiential practices drawn from the author s decades of creative peregrinations to assist artists teachers and researchers in transmitting a conscious way of practicing and creating with trance Caring from the Heart Mary Simone Roach,1997 This collection of essays on the issue of spirituality within the healthcare field is mainly for caregivers themselves although some sections are about those receiving care Caring From the Heart is targeted at a broad healthcare market nurses medical students and teachers hospital personnel hospices nursing homes pastoral staffs and chaplains The Way of Conflict Deidre Combs,2011-02-08 The Way of Conflict teaches strategies for using ancient wisdom and modern techniques to confidently engage in any dispute and reach a balanced resolution This groundbreaking book integrates the wealth of conflict skills found throughout the world s major religious and indigenous traditions with the latest scientific systems and conflict resolution theory It uses the cross cultural metaphor of the four natural elements earth water fire and air to identify the innate conflict personality types and propose a productive path through the chaos of conflict Combining her extensive experience as a licensed mediator and corporate trainer with wisdom gained from years of spiritual study Combs uses assessment tests anecdotes from indigenous and religious traditions and illustrative folktales to show how to quickly assess a conflict and implement an appropriate resolution strategy Arts-based and Contemplative Practices in Research and Teaching Susan Walsh,Barbara Bickel,Carl Leggo,2014-11-13 This volume presents a scholarly investigation of the ways educators engage in artistic and contemplative practices and why this matters in education Arts based learning and inquiry can function as a powerful catalyst for change by allowing spiritual practices to be present within educational settings but too often the relationship between art education and spirituality is ignored Exploring artistic disciplines such as dance drama visual art music and writing and forms such as writing witnessing freestyle rap queer performative autoethnograph and poetic imagination this book develops a transformational educational paradigm Its unique integration of spirituality in and through the arts addresses the contemplative needs of learners and educators in diverse educational and community settings Gratitude in Education Kerry Howells,2012-07-30 Teachers at all levels of education will find this book practical and inspiring as they read how other educators have engaged with challenges that reveal different dimensions of gratitude and how some have discovered its relevance in gaining greater resilience improved relationships and increased student engagement In the first comprehensive text ever written that is solely dedicated to the specific relevance of gratitude to the teaching and learning process Dr Howells pioneers an approach that accounts for both dilemmas and possibilities of gratitude in the midst of teachers busy and stressful lives She takes a contemporary and philosophical view of the notion of gratitude and goes beyond its conceptualisation simply from a religious or positive psychology framework Exploring real situations with teachers school leaders students parents academics and pre service teachers Gratitude In Education A Radical View examines many of the complexities encountered when gratitude is applied in a variety of secular educational environments Global History of Philosophy John C. Plott, 1989-01-01 The fourth and fifth volumes of the Global History of Philosophy are designated The Period of Scholasticism in order to stress that the scholastic method with its emphasis on thesis antithesis and attempts at synthesis became universal throughout Eurasia Scholasticism should not be taken in the pejorative sense as the juggling of arguments by straw men but in the sense of a challenge even in our own era to work for consistent and comprehensive systematic synthesis All the older traditions need to be reinterpreted in terms of modern conditions which after all is what the Eurasian scholastics of these centuries were doing for their own time The major developments of this period are Monism in Many Moods during the ninth century through Exfoliation and Elaboration of those seminal systems in the tenth and eleventh centuries until the time of the Great Summas in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries It was during this time that philosophy and theology developed a very highly sophisticated technique of balancing arguments and refutations and counter arguments and counter refutations As is true of the whole series these volumes are a new way of exploring the accumulative wisdom of mankind and in the process explode many of the ethnocentric stereotypes which still hinder intercultural communications and world peace through intercultural understanding Nonviolent Perspectives Andrew Fitz-Gibbon, 2025-02-04 This book is a compilation of essays addressing the central issue of humanity interpersonal violence and more importantly nonviolence as its antidote The essays trace the author's journey from early pacifist convictions influenced by personal experiences with violence to a nuanced understanding of nonviolence rooted in ethics love spirituality and critical theory Spanning over two decades the writings explore various dimensions of nonviolence from philosophical arguments and historical analysis to practical applications in parenting political resistance and care ethics The book brings together previously published works that have been instrumental in shaping the author's thinking making them accessible for scholars students and anyone interested in nonviolence With reflections on the works of Murdoch MacIntyre Gandhi and others it offers a comprehensive examination of nonviolence as both a personal practice and a social imperative Conversations with Silence Sally Longley, 2021-01-08 Silence scary inviting or both What do you do with silence And what if silence was a language we could learn to read hear and even speak This book invites you to tune the eyes and ears of your heart to the cadences of silence Enter into conversations with silence as you are taken on an odyssey Venture into the Australian bush Trek deep into the red desert Encounter shadows and desert dwellers You will also delve into the tiny houses of everyday silences and receive their gifts of hospitality And stumbling into that other territory where silence becomes a death threat or survival an orchard can show you the fruit of life beginning again Conversations with Silence takes you to the Rosetta Stone of an ancient forgotten language a language some have called God or the soul Immerse yourself in the silent realm of mystics musicians poets and pilgrims of every path These are our companions as we explore the nuanced vocabulary of the worlds of silences and join in the conversation with a new voice      The Call to Wholeness: Health as a Spiritual Journey Kenneth L. Bakken, 2009-09-01 We all encounter times of physical illness as well as of emotional psychological and spiritual distress and pain We are all in need of healing in every aspect of life In this important new book a physician specializing in preventive medicine integrates learnings from both science and religion to present a holistic approach to well being that is rooted in a new understanding of Christian principles an approach that has already proven effective in countless lives Using examples of people who have been healed Dr Bakken shows how stress fear anxiety anger guilt depression loneliness and unforgiveness contributes to disease and how spiritual growth perfect love casts out fear promotes health healing and wholeness Both practical and inspiring The Call to Wholeness is at once a convincing synthesis of several disciplines and an authentic witness to the healing power of Jesus Christ It demonstrates that God is the author renewer and sustainer of all life and the ultimate source of all healing It challenges individuals the Church and the medical establishment to expand their view of reality in the context of a Christ centered spirituality that can bring true and lasting wholeness to each and all of us      Eco-theology Celia

Deane-Drummond, 2008 Concern for the environment has developed and intensified over the last few decades to the point where it now dominates much of our contemporary political landscape and culture In Eco Theology Celia Deane Drummond offers a comprehensive resource book for this burgeoning field of enquiry that highlights and seeks to evaluate the merits or otherwise of contemporary eco theologies She introduces the reader to critical debates in eco theology tracing trends from around the globe and key theological responses and encourages reflection and analysis through further reading sections at the end of each chapter and questions for discussion Publisher      Historical Settlement of Liberia and Its

Environmental Impact Syrulwa L. Somah, 1995 This powerful book argues persistently that the historical settlement of liberated Americans of African descent had a destabilizing impact on the geography politics social and economic structure environment and culture of Liberia The author also draws attention to the environmental consciousness of indigenous Liberians and delves into the historical roots of the principle health problems and industrial activities threatening Liberia s environment Contents Glossary Liberia Historical Roots Geographical Description of Liberia The Arrival of New Settlers Historical Review Environmental Devastation Introduction Principle Health Problems Which Have Historical Roots Building of Monrovia A Case Study Impact of Foreign Capital on National Decision Deforestation and Ecological Impact The Impact of Iron Ore on Aquatic Biomass Proposal of a New Environmental Policy in Liberia Summary and Recommendations Endnotes Bibliography      Worst Enemy, Best Teacher Deidre Combs, 2011-02-08 Worst Enemy Best Teacher presents a powerful system to identify and learn how to best approach the person or problem that plagues us most whether it s a neighbor a brother in law a new boss or the factory s fiercest competitor Combs breaks down problems and threats into more easily understood categories such as conflicts that threaten physical harm emotional pain constriction of one s ability to be unique and intellectual threats and how they affect one s world view and beliefs Hands on exercises parables and real life stories show readers how to apply the wisdom gained from studying the opponent to any challenge whether within one's self with friends or family or between companies or nations Worst Enemy Best Teacher offers ingenious tips and techniques for learning from the enemy and converting conflict into resolution      A Question of Choice Pamela McGrath, 2018-10-26 First published in 1997 this book contributes to our understanding of the way our society responds to issues of death and dying The trans disciplinary research which informs this discussion is situated in the disciplines of bioethics and palliative care Postmodern notions of discourse and power are used to explore the organizational approach of one hospice Karuna Hospice Service to working with the dying In modern Western technological societies biomedicine is the dominant discourse which underpins our care of the terminally ill Bioethics has recently emerged as a discipline concerned with resolving the many ethical dilemmas arising from such a physiological technologized approach to death Rather than add to such studies this research looks into the direction of alternative ways of responding to the dying in our community KHS was chosen for this research as it presented the possibility of a holistic and spiritual alternative to the positivist reductionist hegemony of scientific medicine The research focus is on establishing and describing this difference and exploring how such an organization could maintain resistance to mainstream medicine The research findings are shared with the intent of using the material and insights gained to explore important issues presently arising in bioethics and palliative care for example the recent critique of Principlism in bioethics and the methodological difficulties restricting research into spirituality for palliative care      'Tis a Gift to be Simple Barbara Sorensen, David Allen Sorensen, 1992-01-01 Suggestions are given for telling the difference between needs and wants using time and money wisely relaxing more enjoying family and friends eating healthier food conserving the earth's resources and sorting through priorities      Women's Lives, Man's Myths C.
