Spiritual Leadership in the Entrepreneurial Business Mario Fernando, 2007 In this well informed insightful and comprehensive study Mario Fernando critically explores the complex and multiform interplay of management theory and practice personal biographies theologies of faith and cultural dynamics in order to elaborate and advance a coherent theory of spiritual leadership George Gotsis and Zoe Kortezi Entrepreneurship and Innovation In this example of science and theory meeting emerging reality Mario Fernando delves into the complex dimensions of the interplay of the science of management theologies of faith and the dynamics of culture to first understand and then construct and advance a theory of spiritual leadership With real world insights and reflections from himself and others he addresses theory to practice implications and cautions against creating just another fad This insightful and thought provoking book provides a timely read and focus for reflection for organizational leaders concerned with success in the new age economy and global society and who seek a path to understand their own personal and pragmatic spiritual leadership grounding Gary D Geroy Colorado State University US The book will be an important contribution to the literature and will certainly open up some new avenues of research and inquiry Ralph L Piedmont Loyola College in Maryland US Although interest in workplace spirituality continues to soar the literature and empirical research on non Western non Christian spirituality in entrepreneurship and leadership is almost non existent Mario Fernando s unique study fills the gap in the literature exploring cross cultural and religious distinctions of the contemporary meaning and enactment of spirituality in organizations Case studies of thirteen influential spiritually motivated Buddhist Hindu Christian and Muslim entrepreneurs are used to explore the significant impact of religion upon the management and leadership of an organization The book concludes that although each entrepreneur s outward practice of spiritual leadership conformed to personal religious beliefs these practices had two common aims a connection with self others and or an ultimate reality and a need to direct and motivate self and or others to develop an organizational culture founded on a sense of shared community This unique and fascinating work will strongly appeal to entrepreneurship leadership and business and management researchers and scholars with a particular interest in the interplay between entrepreneurship and spiritual leadership

Spirituality and Business Sharda S. Nandram, Margot Esther Borden, 2009-11-11 We Sharda and Margot feel very honored to be able to write and edit such a book Our spiritual journey has led to the passion of bringing together and sharing the thoughts we ourselves have come across in our lives by meeting gurus swamis like minded seekers managers teachers entrepreneurs academics students and by reading books and practicing spiritual techniques We also have gained much spiritual inspiration from the teachings of Sri Aurobindo and The Mother to whom we are grateful The thoughts presented in this book already exist in the East and West Integrating them into the way we do business can help us to regain trust and respect in business even in the current economic crisis We aim to convince others of our deep belief that spiritual practices and a spiritual orientation help make life more enjoyable and makes us better human beings through helping us to live in line with our karma in every context of life in our roles as employees entrepreneurs managers leaders mothers or fathers etc     The Marketplace Annotated Bibliography Pete

Hammond,2011-03 Every workday millions of Christians enter the marketplace Whether as sales associates or engineers auto mechanics or executives Christians are called to serve God in the workplace But most need help integrating faith and work How can you be salt and light on the job Where can you turn for help in developing a biblical and satisfying view     The
