Splash Of Colors The Self Destruction Of Braniff International:

Splash of Colors John J. Nance, 1984      Deadly Turbulence Steve Pollock, 2014-03-27 Jet airliner operations in the United States began in 1958 bringing it was thought a new era of fast high safe smooth sophisticated travel But almost immediately the new aircraft were involved in incidents and accidents that showed jets created new problems even as they solved old ones This book discusses five disasters or near disasters of the early Jet Age experiences which shook the industry regulators and public out of early complacency and helped build a more realistic foundation for safer air transportation Special attention is paid to the 1966 destruction of Braniff International Airways Flight 250 in Nebraska Nearly two years of inquiry helped advance the understanding of jet operations in severe weather and saw the first use of cockpit voice recorder technology in an aviation accident investigation In addition a University of Chicago professor Dr Tetsuya Ted Fujita conducted a more intensive investigation of the weather system which downed Flight 250 Dr Fujita s already extensive knowledge of thunderstorms and tornadoes led to his creation of the Fujita Scale of Tornado Intensity the F scale that we hear about so frequently during storm season      Splash of Colors John J. Nance, 1984      Airline Executives and Federal Regulation Walter David Lewis, 2000 This book is a collection of eight case studies of relationships between airline executives and federal regulatory agencies from the passage of the Air Commerce Act in 1926 to the Airline Deregulation Act of 1978 By focusing on the lives and personalities of individual entrepreneurs W David Lewis and his contributors hope to explore the interaction between technology government regulation and entrepreneurship Each essay in the book focuses on a particular airline executive such as Eddie Rickenbacker Robert Six and Donald Nyrop Lewis has been careful to give a variety of perspective Airlines of various types are represented large and small scheduled and unscheduled Some of the executives profiled were known for having adversative relationships with federal regulators whereas others wholeheartedly accepted regulation and thrived under it There have been public calls for a return to airline regulation and Lewis thinks it is not inconceivable that regulation may ultimately return if problems continue and conditions deteriorate further But he says it is well to remember that deregulation occurred because there were flaws in the regulatory system it replaced This collection of essays scholarly and well documented but written in a lively style suitable for specialists and nonspecialists alike provides a long range perspective on the issue of airline deregulation      Hard Landing Thomas Petzinger, Jr., 2010-12-01 In this updated paperback edition of a rich readable and authoritative Fortune book Wall Street Journal reporter Petzinger tells the dramatic story of how a dozen men including Robert Crandall of American Airlines Frank Borman of Eastern and Richard Ferris of United battled for control of the world s airlines      1000 Patterns Drusilla Cole, 2003 Arranged by period and style you can see at a glance patterns used from ancient to contemporary times A handy pattern finder up front makes it easy to locate and cross reference any motif or design in the book Whether you have a long standing interest in art and ornamentation or a newfound curiosity you ll find 1000 Patterns an intriguing reference and fascinating history BOOK

JACKET Working the Skies Drew Whitelegg, 2007-06 Publisher description New Books National Defense University. Library, Decision Making in Aviation Don Harris, Wen-Chin Li, 2017-07-05 Decision making pervades every aspect of life people make hundreds of decisions every day The vast majority of these are trivial and without a right or wrong answer In some respects there is also nothing extraordinary about pilot decision making It is only the setting that is different the underlying cognitive processes are just the same However it is the context and the consequences of a poor decision which serve to differentiate aeronautical decision making Decisions on the flight deck are often made with incomplete information and while under time pressure The implications for inadequate performance is much more serious than in many other professions Poor decisions are implicated in over half of all aviation accidents This volume contains key papers published over the last 25 years providing an overview of the major paradigms by which aeronautical decision making has been investigated Furthermore decision making does not occur in isolation It is a joint function of the flight tasks knowledge equipment on the flight deck and other stressors In this volume of collected papers works from leading authors in the field consider all these aspects of aeronautical decision making Improving Teamwork in Organizations Eduardo Salas, Clint A. Bowers, Eleana Edens, 2001-03-01 This edited volume applies the excellent work done in Crew Resource Management CRM in the aviation industry to training teams in other organizations CRM is not only a design for training but it also has been evaluated over time and shown great success This lesson should be transferred to other nonaviation settings and this book was written with that goal in mind This book has two purposes First it provides those interested in designing and delivering resource management training with useful and practical information containing the latest thinking and guidance available Second it launches CRM training as a viable intervention that can be used to enhance teamwork and organizational effectiveness as well as minimize human error in a wide variety of industries and organizations Written from experts in the field of training this volume is organized into four sections that address the foundation of resource management training focus on the tools needed for design and delivery of resource management training apply resource management training to several industries and domains i e medical naval airlines and look at the global issues such as culture of organizations national issues and error in training One Hundred Years of Air Power and Aviation Robin Higham, 2003 In this precise interpretive and informative volume Higham looks at everything from the roots of strategic bombing and tactical air power to the lessons learned and unlearned during the invasion of Ethiopia the war in China and the Spanish Civil War He also considers the problems posed by jet aircraft in Korea and the use of Patriot missiles in the Persian Gulf He covers anti guerrilla operations doctrine industrial activities and equipment as well as the development of commercial airlines Pan Am Pioneer Sanford B. Kauffman, 1995 Fascinating story of the growth of a new industry a legendary American business and a pioneering spirit Deregulating Desire Ryan Patrick Murphy, 2016-10-14 In 1975 National Airlines was shut down for 127 days when flight attendants went on strike to protest long hours and low pay Activists at National and many other U S airlines sought to win political power and material resources for people who live beyond the boundary of the traditional family In Deregulating Desire Ryan Patrick Murphy a former flight attendant himself chronicles the efforts of single women unmarried parents lesbians and gay men as well as same sex couples to make the airline industry a crucible for social change in the decades after 1970 Murphy situates the flight attendant union movement in the history of debates about family and work Each chapter offers an economic and a cultural analysis to show how the workplace has been the primary venue to enact feminist and LGBTQ politics From the political economic consequences of activism to the dynamics that facilitated the rise of what Murphy calls the family values economy to the Airline Deregulation Act of 1978 Deregulating Desire emphasizes the enduring importance of social justice for flight attendants in the twenty first century Going Places Carlos A. Schwantes, 2003-03-10 How trains cars and planes helped tame and transform the American West Reconsidering a Century of Flight Roger D. Launius, Janet R. Daly Bednarek, 2015-12-01 On December 17 1903 Orville and Wilbur Wright soared into history during a twelve second flight on a secluded North Carolina beach Commemorating the 100th anniversary of the first flight these essays chart the central role that aviation played in twentieth century history and capture the spirit of innovation and adventure that has characterized the history of flight The contributors all leading aerospace historians consider four broad themes relating to the development of flight technology innovation and the technology of flight civil aeronautics and government policy aerial warfare and aviation in the American imagination Through their attention to the political economic military and cultural history of flight the authors establish that the Wrights invention and all that followed in both air and space was one of the most significant technologies of the twentieth century fundamentally reshaping our world Supported by the First Flight Centennial Commission The contributors are Janet R Daly Bednarek Tami Davis Biddle Roger E Bilstein Hans Joachim Braun David T Courtwright Anne Collins Goodyear Roger D Launius William M Leary David D Lee W David Lewis John H Morrow Dominick A Pisano and A Timothy Warnock The Best Transportation System in the World Mark H. Rose, Bruce Edsall Seely, Paul F. Barrett, 2006 From 1920 to the mid 1990s American transportation in the form of railroads trucks and airlines was simply a creature of politics and public policy In brief the markets for rail truck and airlines were not natural entities but had been created through hard fought political contests full time lobbying and unceasing litigation Between 1940 and the late 1970s moreover leaders of rail truck and airline firms lobbied and litigated to protect the workings of this regulatory regime In the mid 1950s President Eisenhower asked Congress to award railroad executives authority to modify prices and service Eisenhower was concerned about a railroad industry in decline During the 1960s President Johnson sought broad deregulation of rail trucks and airline firms Johnson wanted another device to fine tune the economy In the 1970s Presidents Nixon Ford and Carter sought to deregulate transportation with a view toward reversing stagflation Between 1978 and 1980 Congress and President Carter approved deregulation of airlines trucking and railroads Carter aide Mary Schuman played a crucial role in bringing about airline deregulation For all the market talk that surrounded transportation politics before and after 1980 however officials of the American state had been and remained the principal agents creating those markets BOOK JACKET Time Briton Hadden, Henry R. Luce, 1985 United States
