Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975 Algonquian and Iroquoian Linguistics, 2009 Treaty No. 9 John Long, 2010. Restoring nearly forgotten perspectives to the historical record. John Long considers the methods used by the government of Canada to explain Treaty No 9 to Northern Ontario First Nations. He shows that many crucial details about the treaty's contents were omitted in the transmission of writing to speech while other promises were made orally but not included in the written treaty. Reproducing the three treaty commissioners' personal journals in their entirety, Long reveals the contradictions that suggest the treaty parchment was never fully explained to the First Nations who signed it. pub website Anthropological Linguistics, 2004 American Book Publishing Record, 2003 The Literary History of Alberta Volume Two George Melnyk, 1998. In this the companion to the landmark volume The Literary History of Alberta Volume One From Writing on Stone to World War Two, George Melnyk examines Alberta literature in the second half of the twentieth century. At last Melnyk argues Alberta writers have found their voice and their accomplishments have been remarkable. The contradictory landscape, the stereotypes of the Indian, the Mountie and the Cowboy and the language of the Other speaking from the margins, these elements all left their impressions on the consciousness of early Alberta. But writers in the last few decades have turned this inheritance to their advantage to create compelling stories about this place and its people Today Melnyk discovers Alberta writers can appreciate not only this achievement but also its essential source the symbolic communication of Writing on Stone The Literary History of Alberta Volume Two extends the study of Alberta s cultural history to the present day It is a vital text for anyone interested in Alberta s vibrant literary culture
