Sports Law in Spain Juan de Dios Crespo Pérez,2021-08-20 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this practical analysis of sports law in Spain deals with the regulation of sports activity by both public authorities and private sports organizations The growing internationalization of sports inevitably increases the weight of global regulation yet each country maintains its own distinct regime of sports law and its own national and local sports organizations Sports law at a national or organizational level thus gains a growing relevance in comparative law The book describes and discusses both state created rules and autonomous self regulation regarding the variety of economic social commercial cultural and political aspects of sports activities Self regulation manifests itself in the form of by laws and encompasses organizational provisions disciplinary rules and rules of play However the trend towards more professionalism in sports and the growing economic social and cultural relevance of sports have prompted an increasing reliance on legal rules adopted by public authorities This form of regulation appears in a variety of legal areas including criminal law labour law commercial law tax law competition law and tort law and may vary following a particular type or sector of sport It is in this dual and overlapping context that such much publicized aspects as doping sponsoring and media and responsibility for injuries are legally measured This monograph fills a gap in the legal literature by giving academics practitioners sports organizations and policy makers access to sports law at this specific level Lawyers representing parties with interests in Spain will welcome this very useful guide and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative sports law      The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1908

The Sportswoman's Library, Volume 2 (of 2) (Illustrations) Various,2014-11-13 Example in this ebook When I look at the completed MSS of the first volumes of the Sportswoman's Library I feel deeply grateful to the many good sportswomen who have aided me in my work not only for the great stores of practical knowledge they have brought to bear on the several subjects of which we have treated but for the way in which they have collaborated with me For this my warmest thanks are due to them one and all The object we have placed before us is to give women the information and help they are not likely to find in those books which are written chiefly from a man's point of view and we have therefore avoided as far as possible trenching on ground that has been already adequately covered by those who to sportsmen and sportswomen alike are the best authorities on the various subjects If therefore our writings sometimes seem to be wanting in completeness it is I venture to think to be attributed to this cause When I first gathered round me the body of contributors some of whom were personally unknown to me I could but feel that the many threads I held in my hand might prove to be a very tangled skein before the work was brought to completion This foreboding however I am glad to say was entirely without foundation for each writer threw herself into her part with such genuine determination to do the best she could for the matter of her work that the minor details as to the manner in which it should be given to the world did not assume undue proportions and there has been nothing to throw the slightest shadow over the harmony in which we have worked That the effort we have thus jointly made to give some help to our sister sportswomen may be successful is to wish the writers the best reward they can have for the labour they have bestowed Besides my fellow workers I have a debt of gratitude to discharge to all who have so kindly assisted me Foremost among these I must acknowledge the valuable help given by Lady Gifford Mrs Pryse Rice Mrs Cheape and Miss Lloyd of Bronwydd without whose assistance I could not have ventured to write on the subject of Hare Hunting by Mr T F Dale author of The Game of Polo whose great practical knowledge of sport has made him an invaluable referee on many important questions by another good sportsman Captain the Hon R C Drummond who generously gave me the benefit of his advice on matters which have been a lifelong study to him by Elizabeth Lady Wilton Lady Theodora Guest Lady Gerard Lady Dorothy Coventry Mrs Wrangham Mrs T E Harrison Miss Serrell Mr C H Bassett late Master of the Devon and Somerset Staghouids Mr Ian Heathcoat Amory Master of the Tiverton Staghouids Mr W L Wyllie A R A Miss Maud Earl Miss Walrond Mr Cuthbert Bradley Dr Lewis Mackenzie Miss Florence Ritson and Mrs Dudley Smith I must also acknowledge the help so readily given by Mr Charles Lancaster and Messrs Holland and Holland on the sport with which their names are so closely connected and I must thank those photographers who have exercised their skill on our behalf viz Messrs Lombardi and Co who from the first have helped us largely Messrs Lambert Weston J Weston and Son Stuart Becken and A Debenham My thanks are also due to the Proprietors of Baily s Magazine The Field The Gentlewoman and The Lady s Pictorial Lastly I must discharge the debt of gratitude I owe Messrs A Constable and Co for the unfailing courtesy I have met with at their hands and for the hearty way in which they have thrown themselves into the interests of the book To be continue in this ebook Sport and the English Middle Classes, 1870-1914 John Lowerson,1993 This book examines the phenomena which explain the boom in sport among the middle classes in late Victorian England The author focuses on the extent to which sport became an agent of the development of the middle classes and an instrument of their self definition The book does not set out to explain the making of the English middle classes rather it examines a significant part of that making
