Back in the Day 2 Rob French,2012-02 Excerpt from Back in the Day 2 The College Years With the little strength he had Thomas told us he wanted to go camping one last time Consider this my dying wish and honor it please Later that night Thomas began to use the bucket more frequently than he had been He said he had one last thing he wanted He told Chris he wanted to sit on his lap and have Chris sing his favorite song to him They looked into each other s eyes as Chris started to sing I see trees of green red roses too We all knew what that song was When Chris got to the part that says They re really sayin I love you Thomas forced out the words to Chris I love you and with that Thomas closed his eyes and drew his last breath Thomas got everything he wanted in his final days and hours We could see Chris just sitting there rocking Thomas lifeless body Reviews for Back in the Day Anthony Larson Phoenix AZ It is rare that a book speaks to me in the way this book did It has been a long time since I was so taken by a book that i had to literally force myself to put it down in order to do things like sleep and eat I had only gotten as far as the second paragraph when I first had the thought that this could just as well be my story As it turns out I would have that thought more times than I could count I am by no means easily moved to tears by something I am reading however this book moved me to tears a number of times If only every teenager who sees his or her self as being different in any way could have parents like John and Sara Kendall this world would be a much better place Jeff Milyard Arizona The excerpt from your book strikes home as a dear friend was beaten by both his mother and father after discovering a love letter from his boyfriend While I tried to ease his pain that incident placed fear in my heart and I never did come out
