Spring 1981 An Annual Of Archetypal Psychology And Jungian Thought:

Spring 1987 James Hillman,1987-09-01 Dialectics & Analytical Psychology Wolfgang Giegerich,David L. Miller,Greg Mogenson,2020-02-25 What is dialectical thinking and why do we need it in psychology How are moments of truth to be psychologically discerned and differentiated How does the recognition of the historicity of archetypal and mythological materials relate to their interpretation In a seminar held in the El Capitan Canyon near Santa Barbara California in June of 2004 the renowned Jungian analyst Wolfgang Giegerich along with conversation partners David L Miller and Greg Mogenson tackled these important questions while at the same time thinking Jungian psychology forward in a radically new way Conceived to meet the call for more that followed the publication of Giegerich s landmark book The Soul s Logical Life this volume also serves as the most accessible introduction to Giegerich s approach to psychology for the first time reader of his work A valuable resource for students of fairy tale myth and depth psychology this volume includes a complete and up to date bibliography of Giegerich s writings in all languages

Psychotherapy, the Alchemical Imagination and Metaphors of Substance Alan Bleakley,2023-07-04 Alchemy is popularly viewed as a secret way of turning worthless base metal into gold and then a precursor to modern chemistry This is often taken as a metaphor for psychological development This book describes an innovative third way for both the education and exercise of an alchemical imagination that embraces both material matters and psychological insight alchemy as lyrical poetics or the intensive production of embodied metaphor Alchemy here is viewed as an immanent set of metaphor driven best practices for indwelling complex and contradictory earthly matters in a sensual artistic and humane manner Or again it describes best psychotherapeutic practice Alchemy is read not as a medium for personal growth but optimal co existence with the natural world It is an eco logical rather than ego logical project with deep aesthetic concerns education of the senses in close noticing and political intentions a democracy of worldly things The book echoes post Freudian developments in psychoanalysis that avoid the mysticism of symbol systems to work rather with everyday signs and linguistic registers such as embodied metaphors keeping the focus on known and sensed phenomena rather than abstractions

The Dove in the Consulting Room Greg Mogenson,2004-06-02 This provocative and original book critically engages with psychoanalysis and in particular the phenomenon of the return of hysteria to analysis from a Jungian perspective

The Archetypal Process David Griffin,1989 Archetypal Process is a pioneering study linking the ideas of process philosophy as developed by Alfred North Whitehead and Charles Hartshorne with the archetypal psychology of C G Jung and James Hillman This is the first work to examine the interconnections of these two modes of thought Archetypal Process examines the importance of cosmological thinking and the need to ground archetypal psychology in a metaphysical philosophical framework It treats the necessity for symbol and myth the nature of the spirit and language as a metaphorical vehicle of thought and finally it adds a much needed feminist perspective to the debate

The Mythopoetics of Currere Mary Aswell Doll, 2018-04-19 In The Mythopoetics of Currere Doll uses depth psychology myth and literature to offer a new approach to currere the root of curriculum through essays exploring significant literary images that open doorways into the fictions that layer the self Offering a focus on the body queer love false belief strangeness otherness and chaos this book suggests new metaphors for understanding why currere is what matters most in curriculum

Sacral Revolutions Gottfried Heuer, 2013-12-16 Sacral Revolutions is a unique project reflecting the contribution that Andrew Samuels has made to the general field of psychoanalysis and Jungian analysis in both clinical and academic contexts Gottfried Heuer has brought together an international array of authors friends and colleagues of Samuels to honour his 60th Birthday As a result the collection provides a creative and cutting edge overview of a fragmented field The chapters demonstrate the profound sense of social responsibility of these analysts and academics whose concerns include the mysteries and hidden meanings in social and political life This open and engaging volume includes a previously unpublished interview with C G Jung adding to its usefulness as an essential companion for academics analysts therapists and students

Like Letters in Running Water Mary Aswell Doll, 2000-07-01 Like Letters in Running Water explores ways in which fiction prose drama poetry myth fairytale yields transformative insights for educational theory and practice Through a series of intensely original powerful essays drawing on curriculum theory literary analysis psychology and feminist theory and practice Doll seeks to confront a commonly held bias that reading literary fictions is mere entertainment not a learning experience She suggests that fiction has immense teaching power because it connects readers with their alliances within themselves and this connection attends to social outer issues addressed by traditional pedagogies with greater deeper awareness Her elaboration in this book of the concept of currere the lived experience of curriculum through literature drama and myth is a major contribution to the field of curriculum theory The More of Myth Mary Aswell Doll,2011-11-19 This book uses a nine year experience of teaching world mythology to art students in order to discuss why and how such ancient stories provide significance today Myth s weird images and metaphors recall Wyrð Word the goddess of the cauldron Students can be guided into the cauldron of mythic language to feel the stirring of new awareness of what it really means to be human Psychologically myth offers insights into family relations memory imagination and otherness Ecological insights from myth teach the connection among human animal plant relations and the organicism of all life forms Cosmological insights from myth surprisingly echo findings in new science with its emphasis on quantum mechanics force fields black holes subatomic particles chaos and the possibilities of time travel Two areas often considered completely opposite myth and science actually reflect one another since both propose theories albeit in different ways Myth cannot be laughed away as mere fabula since like science and psychology it has long explored adventures into unseen unknown worlds that yield necessary knowledge about the place of humans in the scheme of things big and small The more of myth will be of interest to teachers and students of curriculum studies to those seeking to go beyond Oedipus and Gutenberg and to readers who know that all forms of life including fingernails and rocks are wondrous diverse alive capable purposive and necessary In God's Shadow Ann Conrad Lammers,1994 For years world famous psychologist C G Jung and British theologian Victor White author of God and the Unconscious engaged in a lively correspondence Now Anne Conrad Lammers examines the highly illuminating friendship and dialogue between these two men providing particularly valuable insights into Jung s attitude toward theology The Psychology of Kundalini Yoga C. G. Jung,2012-01-12 Kundalini yoga presented Jung with a model of something that was almost completely lacking in Western psychology an account of the development phases of higher consciousness Jung s insistence on the psychogenic and symbolic significance of such states is even more timely now than then As R D Laing stated It was Jung who broke the ground here but few followed him From the introduction by Sonu Shamdasani Jung s seminar on Kundalini yoga presented to the Psychological Club in Zurich in 1932 has been widely regarded as a milestone in the psychological understanding of Eastern thought and of the symbolic transformations of inner experience Kundalini yoga presented Jung with a model for the developmental phases of higher consciousness and he interpreted its symbols in terms of the process of individuation With sensitivity toward a new generation s interest in alternative religions and psychological exploration Sonu Shamdasani has brought together the lectures and discussions from this seminar In this volume he re creates for today s reader the fascination with which many intellectuals of prewar Europe regarded Eastern spirituality as they discovered more and more of its resources from yoga to tantric texts Reconstructing this seminar through new documentation Shamdasani explains in his introduction why Jung thought that the comprehension of Eastern thought was essential if Western psychology was to develop He goes on to orient today's audience toward an appreciation of some of the questions that stirred the minds of Jung and his seminar group What is the relation between Eastern schools of liberation and Western psychotherapy What connection is there between esoteric religious traditions and spontaneous individual experience What light do the symbols of Kundalini yoga shed on conditions diagnosed as psychotic Not only were these questions important to analysts in the 1930s but as Shamdasani stresses they continue to have psychological relevance for readers on the threshold of the twenty first century This volume also offers newly translated material from Jung's German language seminars a seminar by the indologist Wilhelm Hauer presented in conjunction with that of Jung illustrations of the cakras and Sir John Woodroffe's classic translation of the tantric text the Sat cakra Nirupana
