Pennsylvania's Civil War William Blair, William Pencak, 2010-11-01 Beyond Grief Cynthia Mills, 2014-09-23 Beyond Grief explores high style funerary sculptures and their functions during the turn of the twentieth century Many scholars have overlooked these monuments viewing them as mere oddities a part of an individual artist's oeuvre a detail of a patron's biography or local civic cemetery history This volume considers them in terms of their wider context and shifting use as objects of consolation power and multisensory mystery and wonder Art historian Cynthia Mills traces the stories of four families who memorialized their losses through sculpture Henry Brooks Adams commissioned perhaps the most famous American cemetery monument of all the Adams Memorial in Washington D C The bronze figure was designed by Augustus

Saint Gaudens who became the nation's foremost sculptor Another innovative bronze monument featured the Milmore brothers who had worked together as sculptors in the Boston area Artist Frank Duveneck composed a recumbent portrait of his wife following her early death in Paris in Rome the aging William Wetmore Story made an angel of grief his last work as a symbol of his sheer desolation after his wife's death Through these incredible monuments Mills explores questions like Why did new forms many of them now produced in bronze rather than stone and placed in architectural settings arise just at this time and how did they mesh or clash with the sensibilities of their era Why was there a gap between the intention of these elite patrons and artists whose lives were often intertwined in a closed circle and the way some public audiences received them through the filter of the mass media Beyond Grief traces the monuments creation influence and reception in the hope that they will help us to understand the larger story how survivors used cemetery memorials as a vehicle to mourn and remember and how their meaning changed over time
